When Monday Comes. Renewing Your Wonder: Love, Wonder and Grace

Following

Special Edition - When Monday Comes, our On-line Retreat is available on Podcast.

By Grace that Reigns

Dear Friends,

We hope that you have been keeping safe during these challenging days! Many of you have shared your anxieties with us. We feel them too. In response, we have been very busy designing a very special on-line retreat dedicated to bringing you healing and peace.

Last year during Lent 2019, we published Jacqueline's book entitled, "When Monday Comes." It was very well received. To summarize, it is a personal retreat handbook that offers you hope by helping to identify your own uniqueness, including the bumps in your road while providing specific prayers for your healing. We have now recorded the reflections based on several chapters. From April 20th and we will be releasing them to you each Monday, free of charge until the end of May,

Last but not least, Jacqueline has worked especially hard to bring you a "BONUS" set of podcast recordings in our New Series called: Grace That Reigns: The Electric Eel Series! Why is it called the Electric Eel? Read on and find out more! We released our first recording on Thursday April 30. Come Join us! We are all in this together.

God Bless,

Jacqueline Loh and
+ Bishop Ronald Gilmore

"Dear Lord, heal our world and keep us safe; and may the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace." Amen

A Spiritual "Jolt" for these times

The Electric Eel Series:

Wonder begins with a "Jolt."

There you are one day doing the everyday things of life, when all of a sudden something happens to jolt you momentarily. You are fishing on the dock on a drowsy afternoon, absent-mindedly separating your fish into different buckets, half-doing, until suddenly you reach into the bucket and grab an Electric eel!

Shock happens. You jump! Wonder focuses your Attention!

The Electric Eel series was created to "jolt" us out of our mundane lives and to help us to focus on the Wonder of God and the Wonder of the moment.

Our candid interviews with special guests who come from all walks of life will jolt your spiritual life into a state of Wonder! We invite you to join us! www.GracethatReigns.com
