Notes from Father Joseph -

Stewardship renewal: This weekend we are beginning our annual stewardship renewal. As we approach 2021, Blessed Trinity needs your support. We ask that you make a commitment to all that Blessed Trinity is and does for our community. Your incredible generosity has made our parish an awesome place. It is a house of God for all peoples seeking to know, to love, and to serve Jesus Christ. Through monumental efforts by the staff, our school is overflowing with joy-filled students. Religious education is on to a new year with new endeavors. What love our parish family has shown for God and for our neighbor!

Mary's Retirement: Mary Gamer, our parish secretary for over 25 years, will be retiring and her last day with us will be Thursday, November 12th. We wish Mary and her husband Rick all the best. Not one to draw attention to herself, Mary politely asked that nothing big be done by the parish. Instead, given her longtime of service as St. Patrick Cemetery's sexton, I gifted her two plots at the cemetery on behalf of the parish. Unless you know Mary that might seem a little morbid, but it's exactly what she wanted! Besides that, I urge you to send Mary a card of gratitude and congratulations to the parish office. Even if they arrive after her last day, we'll make sure she gets them.

New Parish Secretary: I am happy to announce that Teri Hellenbrand has been hired as the new parish secretary. She officially started work on Monday, November 2nd, and will be able to shadow Mary for the next two weeks. Thanks to all the candidates who applied and, as the pastor, we welcome Teri to the parish staff. I appreciate your patience with Teri as she navigates and learns the in's and out's of her new position.

Capital Campaign Support: In December, 2020 we will wrap up the active phase of our United Together in Faith: Rejoice and Renew campaign. To date, almost 400 people have made gifts or commitments to this special campaign. Yet, in order to realize our true potential, we need the support of all our members. So I'm writing again to simply ask, "Can we add your name to our already great and growing list of campaign contributors?"

As someone who is myself new to the parish, seeing all the good that has been done, I have decided personally to contribute $1,000 toward this campaign. By making a gift, we'll be able to add your name to our planned donor recognition at the end of the campaign in which we plan to list all of our donors. Please help continue the mission of Blessed Trinity. All gifts must be received by December 31, 2020 to be included in our donor recognition. Thank you in advance!

Praying for the Dead: The entire month of November is dedicated to praying for the dead. We have a Book of the Dead in each church throughout the month. While the names of those parishioners who have passed away over the last year are already inscribed, you can inscribe the names of other deceased loved ones for us to keep in our prayers.

In the peace of Christ,

Fr. Joseph Baker
