Notes from Father Joseph -

Parish Picnic: We're still in need of volunteers for our Parish Picnic on July 23rd. We're keeping shifts short, so volunteers will still be able to take part in the fun. If you're able to help out, sign up using the link provided on the parish website.

Grant: The Apostolate for Persons with Disabilities, a ministry of the Diocese of Madison, recently awarded Blessed Trinity a $20,000 grant for the accessibility improvements made to our Dane campus. These improvements included automated door openers, accessible parking spaces, and the addition of an ADA bathroom. Thank you to the Apostolate for making these possible, allowing our parish to better welcome all our parishioners.

Vacation: I will be out-of-town and away from the parish for vacation this week. There will be no daily Masses, Adoration, or Confessions during the week. Should you or a loved one need Anointing of the Sick, please reach out to St. Aloysius in Sauk, St. Thomas in Poynette, St. John the Baptist in Waunakee, or St. Olaf in DeForest.

An excerpt from Bishop Hying's statement: "Today's Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision... offers the Catholic Church in the United States, and all those of good will who stand with us in upholding the sanctity of human life, the opportunity and privilege to redouble our efforts to accompany women and couples facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies, as well as supporting parents in their care for their sons and daughters. We will continue to welcome all those in need of assistance and offer to them the best we have to give, with sensitivity and compassion, so that children born in crisis situations have what they need to truly grow and flourish... A brief list of institutions and programs in the immediate area for individuals or couples struggling with an unexpected or difficult pregnancy, those struggling with caring for their children, as well as those suffering the pain and loss of abortion include: CareNet, Elizabeth House, Our Lady of Hope Clinic, Pregnancy Helpline, Project Rachel, Rachel's Vineyard, Saint Vincent de Paul Societies, Walking with Moms in Need, and the Women's Care Center, as well as many others throughout the diocese and state. In all these ways and more, the Catholic Church witnesses to the sanctity of all human life, from conception to natural death, and works to build a true culture of life in our nation. May a renewed commitment to life overflow into increased protection of unborn children and expanded support for their mothers and families."

God Bless,

Father Joe

Reflection

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" LUKE 10:37
 This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

We welcome into God's family and our parish family, Anna Marie, daughter of Andy & Bridget Schindhelm who was baptized last weekend. God's blessings to Anna and her family on this most holy sacrament.

IRA Rollover

If you (and your spouse) are in your 70's, this may be a great way for you to make a gift to our parish. Through an IRA Rollover you can 1) Avoid taxes on a transfer of up to $100,000 from your IRA directly to the parish; 2) Satisfy your required minimum distribution (RMD) for the year; and 3) Reduce your taxable income, even if you do not itemize deductions. Please contact Chris in the Parish Office if you have any questions or would like more information about making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QDC).

We're hiring:

Blessed Trinity is looking to hire a part-time Administrative Assistant for Religious Education; estimated 8 to 16 hours per week. Hours are flexible, and may decrease during the summer months and increase during the school year. The Administrative Assistant for Religious Education is responsible for assisting the Director(s) of Religious Education and the Pastor in the administration of the religious education programs. Applications or inquiries should be sent to fr.joseph.baker@btcatholic.us.
