5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

5º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Al atardecer, cuando el sol se ponía, le llevaron a todos los enfermos y poseídos del demonio, y todo el pueblo se apiñó junto a la puerta. Curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó a muchos demonios, pero no dejó que los demonios hablaran, porque sabían quién era él. - Mc 1:32-34

I am excited to share with you the six names we are considering for our new parish, made up of the 4 churches and 2 schools in Pastorate 18. All of these possibilities are strong names with excellent connections to discipleship, mission, and proclaiming the good news of the gospel. We would welcome your feedback through Sunday, February 11. You can vote by scanning the QR code on this page or by filling out the form below. Paper forms can be dropped in the collection basket or turned in to the parish office. This will give me a few days to review the feedback and decide which three names I will submit to the Bishop at the start of Lent.

- Fr. Joe

St. Dominic Savio

St. Dominic Savio was a modern saint (1842 - 1857) who died at the age of 14. His spiritual life flourished in his youth, as he was formed and taught by St. John Bosco. At the time of his First Communion, he drew up his plan of life: "1. I will go to Confession frequently and receive Communion as often as my confessor allows me. 2. I want to sanctify Sundays and feast days. 3. My friends shall be Jesus and Mary. 4. Death rather than sin." Foreshadowing the Second Vatican Council's affirmation of the Universal Call to Holiness, Dominic firmly believed that it is God's will that we all become saints, that it is easy to become a saint, and that there are great rewards in heaven for saints. His was the way of the ordinary: cheerfulness, fidelity in little things, and helping others. As Dominic once said, "I can't do big things, but I want everything to be for the glory of God."

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Elizabeth Ann Seton (1774-1821) was a wife, mom, convert to Catholicism, and the first American born canonized saint. Widowed at 29 with five young children, Elizabeth was drawn to Catholicism and entered the Church. To support herself and her young children, she founded an academy for young ladies. That academy and her growing Catholic faith provided the inspiration for her founding of the first religious order for women in the United States and starting the first Catholic school. She was especially devoted to creating opportunities for youth in poverty. At her beatification, Pope John XXIII spoke of Elizabeth Ann Seton's legacy, "In a house that was very small, but with ample space for charity, she sowed a seed in America which by Divine Grace grew into a large tree."

St. Pope John Paul II

Karol Wojtyla (1920 - 2005), grew up in a small town near Krakow and was raised by devout Catholics. While enduring the Nazis occupation of his hometown, he felt called to the priesthood. Ordained a priest in 1946, the Lord grew in him a love for family life, children, marriage, and deepening his study of metaphysics. Chosen as the first non-Italian pope in more than 400 years, Karol became Pope John Paul II on October 22, 1978. As the Holy Father, he contributed to the fall of Communism, gifted the Church with a prolific set of teachings on the human person (Theology of the Body), canonized 482 saints, and visited 129 countries. As pope, he was vigilant in prayer and known for being incredibly present to the individual in front of him. St. John Paul II's encouragement to "be not afraid" and give everything to Jesus through Mary are timeless messages that could inspire our new parish for generations to come.

St. Maximilian Kolbe

Maximilian Kolbe was a Catholic priest and Franciscan friar who lived between 1894 and 1941. When he was 12, Mary appeared to him in prayer and asked him which great path he wanted to follow Jesus on - that of purity (not getting married) or martyrdom (dying for love of Jesus and his faith); he wanted to choose both paths. Throughout his life and in his priesthood, inspired by his deep prayer life, he worked very hard to lead others to love Jesus Christ through the Blessed Virgin Mary. At the beginning of World War II, while serving as a priest in his home country of Poland, Maximilian was captured, imprisoned, and eventually taken to Auschwitz, a concentration camp. While in the camp, Maximilian continued to serve people as a priest, encouraging them in the faith, and died after volunteering to take the place of a dad called for execution. St. Maximilian Kolbe would be an inspiration to all in our new parish to adhere to the truth, as a model of sacrificial love, and to remain passionate about the faith.

St. Monica

St. Monica was a faithful and persistent mom who lived in the 4th century. St. Monica was born in northern Africa. Early in her life, she was married to a Roman pagan named Patricius. Eventually, through St. Monica's witness to prayer and giving her heart to God, her husband was baptized the year before he died. Among her children, Augustine troubled her most, as he was not living as a Christian. She remained steadfast in prayer and fasting on behalf of her son for nearly 20 years, that he would come to know and love God. When Augustine came to the faith and was baptized, St. Monica told him, "What I want here further, and why I am here, I know not, now that my hopes in this world are satisfied." St. Monica's example of tireless prayer and fasting, especially for our loved ones away from the faith, for our new parish as we embrace more fully the call to evangelization and proclaiming the life changing, good news of the gospel.

Stella Maris (Mary, Star of the Sea)

If this name was presented to Bishop Hying, we would ask for the name Stella Maris, as we already have a church named St. Mary of the Lake.

St. Bernard of Clairvaux, a doctor of the Church with great Marian devotion, wrote: "If the winds of temptation arise; if you are driven upon the rocks of tribulation look to the star, call on Mary. If you are tossed upon the waves of pride, of ambition, of envy, of rivalry, look to the star, call on Mary. Should anger, or avarice, or fleshly desire violently assail the frail vessel of your soul, look at the star, call upon Mary." Stella Maris, an ancient title for Mary, Mother of God, can be seen as allegorical of Mary's role as "guiding star" on the way to Christ. At the heart of the Church's mission is to help people know, love, and serve God, and Mary can be our guiding star in our new parish to help to put people not only in touch with, but in communion, in intimacy with her son Jesus Christ.

John encourages you to reflect on what practices you will commit to this Lent and how they will help you to journey through the events of the paschal mystery to the glory of the resurrection. Although not an easy path, the Lord will give us the graces to endure the suffering as Christ did and grow ever closer to the father.
Will you join him on this pilgrimage?*

Monday and Wednesday at 7:00pm in the Saint John the Baptist Old Church, the rosary is said and everyone is welcome to come. We say the rosary of the day, the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy and finish with Mother of Perpetual Help devotions.

"When the rosary is said in a group, it is far more formidable to the devil, because in this public prayer it is an army that is attacking him. He can often overcome the prayer of an individual, but if it is joined to that of others, the devil has much more trouble in getting the best of us."

The pursuit of holiness encompasses the whole Christian life; but these four holy habits are foundational building blocks:

- (A) Reclaiming Sunday--making time for God (Holy Mass), family, and community;
- (B) Daily Prayer--at least 15 minutes;
- (C) Regular Personal Self Sacrifice—Friday abstinence;
- (D) Frequent Confession--at least once a month.

Collecting Old Palm Branches

As we approach the beginning of Lent, we will have baskets available throughout the churches in Pastorate 18 where you can deposit palm branches you have received or collected over the years. As the palm branches are blessed, they are set apart and dedicated for a sacred purpose. Because they have been set apart, blessed items must be disposed of in a special way - most often by burning and burying. Our priests will make sure this happens correctly!

Tuck this little piece of information away, so you know what to do with the new palm branches you receive next month when Holy Week begins.

If you have questions about the proper disposal of other blessed objects that have worn out or are broken, reach out to one of the priests!

St. John's Piecemakers Quilt Club

The members were busy making 70 quilts this past year. They were donated to Elizabeth House, Waunakee Neighborhood Connection, Women's Care Center, Goodman Center and some sold with proceeds given to the Waunakee Food Pantry. Thank you to the Rotary Club and Knights of Columbus for the financial support to make this possible.

Serving our community through the comfort of quilts.
