Don Antonio's Dispatch...

Merry Christmas! On behalf of the entire staff of St. Pius X and St. Matthew parishes, we wish you and your loved ones a blessed Christmas. May Christ, the Prince of Peace and Divine Physician, grant us his calm in our hearts and the blessing of good health this Christmas season and in the new year!!

Our parish offices will be closed on Friday, 31 December. Michelle and I will also be moving our offices to St. Matthew during this week, so please be patient with us during the transition. Starting in January, if you need Michelle or I, please contact St. Matthew at 810-232-0880. We will still take food orders at St. Pius X, and I will meet at St. Pius X when necessary.

Please see the below schedule for Masses/confessions/adoration for this week in the Octave of Christmas. Please note that 1 January, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, is not a Holyday of Obligation this year, because it falls on a Saturday:

Monday, 27 December: 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Pius X
12:10 p.m. Mass at St. Matthew
12:40 p.m. Adoration at St. Matthew
5:30 p.m. Confessions at St. Matthew
7:00 p.m. Benediction and Reposition at St. Matthew

Tuesday, 28 December: 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Pius X
12:10 p.m. Mass at St. Matthew

Wednesday, 29 December: 12:10 p.m. Mass at St. Matthew
Thursday, 30 December: 12:10 p.m. Mass at St. Matthew
Friday, 31 December: 12:10 p.m. Mass at St. Matthew
4:30 p.m. Mass at St. Pius X

Saturday, 1 January: 10:00 a.m. Mass at St. Matthew (Extraordinary Form)
3:00 p.m. Confessions at St. Pius X
4:30 p.m. Mass at St. Pius X

Here's our Catechism paragraph for the week:

The finding of Jesus in the temple is the only event that breaks the silence of the Gospels about the hidden years of Jesus. Here Jesus lets us catch a glimpse of the mystery of his total consecration to a mission that flows from his divine sonship: "Did you not know that I must be about my Father's work?" (Lk. 2:49) Mary and Joseph did not understand these words, but they accepted them in faith. Mary "kept all these things in her heart" during the years Jesus remained hidden in the silence of an ordinary life. (n. 534)

Holiday Office Hours: The parish offices at St. Pius X and St. Matthew will be closed on Friday, December 31st for the New Year.

Faith Formation at St. Pius X

In the 62nd chapter of the Book of Isaiah, Word went out to the people that was both an announcement and a promise:

"No more shall people call you "Forsaken,"
or your land "Desolate,"
but you shall be called "My Delight,"
and your land "Espoused."
For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse."

This is great news, and the declaration that the Lord delights in us and that the land where we serve him is one with him, never goes out of date!

God the Father sent Jesus, opening up eternal life for us, giving us the remedy for sin. If we follow Jesus from his nativity into his adulthood, through his human suffering and his divine sacrifice on the cross, we can be assured that this life is not all there is.

We are loved. This isn't just something we believe, this is a truth beyond all imagining. God has "stationed sentinels" to watch over us day and night until he re-establishes us in his name.

Let all the earth proclaim his holy name! All Glory to God! These are the declarations that you and I can—and should—make today! Our world needs this Good News and God has left us to deliver it.

As we begin this beautiful Christmas Season today, keep your lights twinkling and the joy in your heart great! Keep your eyes on Christ and your focus on faith! Merry Christmas!

"And sing the love amazing..."

On the Feast of the Holy Family, we sing the hymn, "Once in Royal David's City." In verse 3, we sing one of the most unique verses in all of hymnody.

And through all His wondrous childhood
He would honour and obey,

Love and watch the lowly maiden,
in whose gentle arms He lay:

Christian children all must be mild, obedient, good as He.
