Don Antonio's Dispatch...

Monday we celebrate one of my favorite saints: St. Ignatius of Antioch. He was the first bishop of Antioch after St. Peter founded that church. He was arrested, and taken to Rome for execution. While on the way, he wrote letters to the local churches and to his fellow bishop, St. Polycarp. They talked about how the Eucharist is truly the Body and Blood of Christ; how the Church is arranged hierarchically by bishops, priests, and deacons; how marriage should be celebrated before a sacred minister; and other theological principles that we take for granted now. He is also one of the few martyrs we are sure died in the Colosseum. St. Ignatius of Antioch: pray for us!

Tuesday we also honor St. Luke, who was a physician. It's a great reminder to pray for the doctors, nurses, technicians, and hospital/health care employees in our parishes. They do great work, and are often under-appreciated. God bless you for all you do to cooperate with God's healing!!

Saturday is Bishop Mengeling's 92nd birthday!!! He has been such a blessing to our diocese, and is the bishop who allowed me to begin formation as a seminarian (so you can blame him). I encourage you to offer a prayer for him as he celebrates another birthday. If you want to send him a card, you can send it to: Bishop Carl F. Mengeling, c/o Diocese of Lansing, 228 N. Walnut Street, Lansing, MI 48933.

Last, but not least, make sure to mark your calendars for the Blue Mass honoring our first responders. It will be Saturday, 29 October at 11 a.m. at St. Matthew (the change in venue is due to the construction on Austins Parkway). A light luncheon will be served afterwards in the hall. Everyone is welcome, but please RSVP by Tuesday, 18 October. Please spread the word among any first responders (law enforcement officers, firefighters, EMTs, and dispatchers) whom you know.

Here's our Catechism paragraph for the week:

"Pray constantly...always and for everything giving thanks in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father (1 Thes. 5:17; Eph. 5:20)." St. Paul adds, "Pray at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alerts with all perseverance making supplication for all the saints (Eph. 6:18)." For "we have not been commanded to work, to keep watch and to fast constantly, but it has been laid down that we are to pray without ceasing (Evagrius Ponticus)." This tireless fervor can come only from love. Against our dullness and laziness, the battle of prayer is that of humble, trusting, and persevering love. This love opens our hearts to three enlightening and life-giving facts of faith about prayer." (n. 2742)

Sunday Catechesis for Children at St. Pius X every Sunday (unless noted)! Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is offered for children ages Pre-K through 3rd grade. We also have special, topic-driven faith sessions with hands-on activities for 4th - 6th grade students. If you have any questions, please email Janet Cassidy at: janetcassidy@flintcatholic.org or call the parish office for more information at St. Pius X (810) 235-8574, ext. 319 or St. Matthew (810) 232-0880. Classes run through May 7, 2023.

Faith Formation at St. Pius X

Stop what you are doing, right now. What are you thinking about? What is on your mind? Jot it down and hold onto it for a minute.

I heard recently that it has been said that Bishop Fulton Sheen (a well-known Catholic teacher, now venerated) spent 40 hours preparing for his one-hour, weekly television show, which was watched by some 30 million people.

I don't know if that's true, but apparently, one of the reasons he was so successful is because he would start with a topic that was relevant to his listening audience. He would eventually arrive at his message, but to grab his audience's interest, he would start with a topic of interest to them.

I had you stop and consider what you are thinking about, and write it down, because I want to know what is on your mind. Whatever you thought, be it simple like "what's for dinner?" Or deep like "what happens after I die?" Or current like "how can I find anyone to vote for in this election?". I would like you to share it with me, please. You don't have to leave your name if you don't want to.

Email me at janetcassidy@flintcatholic.org or just leave me a message on my answering machine in the office (810) 235-8574, Ext. 319).

You see, recently I sent out a survey on Flocknote asking if you would be interested in particular studies or classes that the Evangelization Team was thinking about offering in 2023.

I'm not sure if we are in tune with you, so, if you would take a minute and tell us, "what are you most worried about? What are you most interested in? What occupies your thoughts?" That would really help.

Won't you take just a minute to let us know?

Thank you in advance!

Janet Cassidy
