Don Antonio's Dispatch...

Thursday the Church celebrates the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. As I preached on Labor Day weekend, we all too easily sanitize the cross and fail to recognize just how horrible it was at the time of Christ. But at the same time, the Cross is the great instrument of our salvation, the altar upon which Christ, the unblemished Lamb of God was sacrificed. And so the cross is our hope, and we can save "Ave crux, spes unica" / "Hail cross, our only hope." May the crosses in our home and the crosses on chains around our neck always remind us of the only One who truly gives us hope, and the means by which that hope was attained.

Next weekend I'll be at my annual Investiture Weekend of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. It will be in Fort Wayne this year. Please pray for peace in the Holy Land, and for all the Knights and Dames who pray for and promote that peace by their service to the Christians in the Holy Land.

Here's our Catechism paragraph for the week:

The fruits of charity are joy, peace, and mercy; charity demands beneficence and fraternal correction; it is benevolence; it fosters reciprocity and remains disinterested and generous; it is friendship and communion:

"Love is itself the fulfillment of all our works. There is the goal; that is why we run: we run toward it, and once we reach it, in it we shall find rest (St. Augustine of Hippo)." (n. 1829)

Q & A w/ Father A, where Fr. Anthony answers questions from the children of the parish. At VBS the children had many questions for Fr. Anthony. Q & A with Father A gives the children an opportunity to ask Fr. Anthony questions.

Q: Can you cast out demons?

Fr. Anthony: Kinda, yes. While major exorcisms are reserved for a priest chosen by the bishop, during each baptism (ordinary and extraordinary forms) I ask God to cast out anything evil in the person.

If your child has a question for Fr. Anthony, write it out and place it in the collection basket at Mass.

"And sing the love amazing..."

Singers are needed for the Latin Mass.

If the propers—Introit, Gradual, Offertory, Communion—are not sung, there cannot be a "missa cantata." We need more singers! At the 3:00 p.m. Latin Mass, we often have, at the most, two to three singers. Jack and Anna—many of you know—have sung at the Latin Mass for over a few years. Faithfully, they come every Sunday to sing praise to God. To do this requires talent, yes! But it also takes courage. God bless them! We also recruit cantor Joe from the 11:00 a.m. Mass who provides strong support. However, we can't expect singers to be here every Sunday. They need a break, too. There will be some Sundays in September where we will be down to one singer—one singer in a church that is one-half football field long. If you have a good voice that can match pitch and blend, you can learn to sing the chants. We practice in the basement at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. Please contact me if you would like to join us. Just as important, pray for the musicians who sing the Mass.

The Bible Timeline Study at St. Matthew starts October 12

Reading the bible should bring us closer to Christ, but understanding it is often difficult. The good news is that you can understand the Bible, and The Bible Timeline, a twenty-three part Bible study, makes it easy.

Presenter, Jeff Cavins, shows you how fourteen of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end and gives you the keys to understand the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. In this revolutionary approach to Bible study, The Bible Timeline divides the Bible into twelve color-coded time periods that make it easier to follow its narrative thread. Using a unique color-coded chart, you will learn the major people, places, and events of the Bible and discover how they all come together to reveal the remarkable story of our faith.

St. Matthew will offer The Bible Timeline beginning on October 12th from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm. Participants will continue to meet on Thursdays to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. A workbook is needed to fully follow along with this program- the cost of the workbook is $40. Please register at www.stmatthewflint.org/bibletimeline.
