Thank you for your generosity!

Our spiritual book club is up and running. In fact, we had a nice discussion last week about our first and short book by Fr. Ronald Rohlheiser. Our next book is Spiritual Practices for the Brain by Anne Kertz-Kernion. Our next book club discussion has been set for Thursday, December 1, 7-8:30 pm. Even if you can't or don't choose to come to the book discussion, reading a good book is participation in adult formation, which we should all be about. Learn and grow your faith! Flyers about our current book are available in the narthex on the glass table and on the table in front of the parish office.

Our twenty and thirty-something Young Adults will have a fall gathering on Tuesday, November 15, 6:30 to 8:30 pm, at the Back Nine Ranch right outside of Canyon. Childcare will be available at the parish. Food will be served. BYOB. Games and fun will ensue. Mark your calendars and please RSVP BEFORE November 10 at parish@stannsofcanyon.org and indicate if you need childcare and for how many. Space is limited. The first fifty RSVPs are guaranteed a spot!

Fallback Ideas:

People can be very creative when we're driven by mission and purpose. The Fallback Festival needs your participation: buying and selling tickets, advertising (don't forget to put it on your social media accounts), volunteering to work the event, and making live and silent auction donations as well as monetary donations. Some nifty silent auction item ideas that you and/or your family and friends can put together are as follows:

- Wine basket and other liquor
- Car care basket
- collection baskets: bourbon, tequila,
- margarita makings, beer, vodka, etc.
- Gift certificate to a nice restaurant
- Shotgun
- Hunting package
- Home improvement basket
- Home decor basket
- Tools
- Coffee lover's basket
- Health & Wellness basket
- Cornhole boards
- Cookout basket
- Lottery ticket basket
- Gift card variety basket
- Camping and or lake outing basket
- Family fun basket
- Etc, etc., etc.

When folks go in together, the baskets are filled to the brim, inclusive of various people, and desirable to bid on. Help us please and remember that 100% of the profits from the Fallback Festival goes to our Building Fund/Light on a Hill Campaign. Please contact Becky Lopez at becky.r.lopez@xcelenergy.com or parish@stannsofcanyon.org

Holy Land Trip, etc. (Reprinted from last week)

Almost a year ago I was scheduled to travel with a group from around the country, including a number of St. Ann's parishioners, to the Holy Land. Alas, the travails of the COVID pandemic and restrictions in Israel led to a postponement of the trip. I can't believe the rescheduled trip is almost upon us. This Sunday afternoon I will depart Canyon for the long-awaited journey to the land where Jesus of Nazareth changed the world. I will be gone from the parish October 9-23. Msgr. Joe Bixenman will cover Confessions and Masses next weekend as well as attend to any emergency sacramental situations that arise. Please contact the parish staff to help you with any needs. They're here to serve you. Pray also for the safety of the pilgrims that make this journey of a lifetime. I assure you that you and your intentions will be close to my heart in every place we visit and at every liturgy where I preside. I know how fortunate I am to make such a trip and thank you for your patience.

Fr. Scott
