Funeral Planning Workshop

Death is a difficult topic to discuss for many people, but it is something we will all face one day. An intentional act of love for your family might be in the form of pre-planning your own funeral, or helping a loved one plan their funeral in advance. Details for the Vigil Service, Funeral Liturgy, and Rite of Committal, could all be decided ahead of time and written down for when your loved ones need that information. We are offering an opportunity to do just that at our Funeral Planning Workshops. You will be given information to understand all the decisions needing to be made, and our Funeral Planning Team will be there to guide you through the process. There are two different times to choose from: Monday, November 10, 2:00-3:30 p.m. or Tuesday, November 11, 7:00-8:30 p.m. Please pre-register so that we can have materials ready for you at the workshop by calling the Parish Office, (806)655-3302 or sign up in the Barthex. We look forward to seeing you at one of the workshops!

NOVEMBER IS COMING, REMEMBERING OUR DECEASED LOVED ONES

Each November, St. Ann's continues the beautiful custom of remembering our departed loved ones in several special ways:

- Lighting candles and reading names of all whose funerals were celebrated at St. Ann's since last November 1.
- Bringing photos of deceased loved ones to place on our Table of Remembrance near the baptismal font. These will remain there for the first several weekends of November.
- Writing names of loved ones who have died on the special November envelopes, which will be included in all November Masses. (An offering is optional; all proceeds will go to a charity designated by the pastor.)

Please bring pictures of your loved ones to the church the week of October 20-26, and plan to pick them up after Masses November 8-9.

Envelopes are available in the parish public areas and may be placed in the Sunday collection or turned in at the Parish Office before November begins, so your loved ones can be remembered at every Mass throughout the month.

Children's Liturgy of the Word Begins Again

Beginning this weekend, October 25/26, Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) will be available at all Masses the second and fourth weekend of each month.

Children in Pre-K (age 4) through 2nd grade are invited to participate.

We look forward to sharing God's word with your children through this wonderful ministry!
