MISSION STATEMENT

Immaculate Conception Church Parish and the Mission of the Sacred Heart is a welcoming community, centered in the Eucharist, rooted in faith, growing in fellowship, and sharing in unity the mission Christ entrusted to us.

Baptisms: We offer our congratulations and prayers to the children who were baptized recently:

Kennedy Grace Devall
Raymond Clay Duhon
Katie Reec Seguin

Condolences: We express our sympathy and prayers to the family and friends of FR. THAN N. VU and KATHRYN A. LADD.

BAPTISM HOSTESSES NEEDED!

How would you like the opportunity to help welcome our newly baptized children? We need volunteers who would like to help assist the priest/deacon during the baptisms on Sundays after the 11 a.m. Mass. We have baptisms on the first, second and fourth Sundays of the month and if we have enough volunteers, you may only need to assist once a month! If you are interested, please call the Church Office at 665-5359.

Liturgical Ministers are needed for Ash Wednesday and the evening Masses during Lent. Sign-up sheets are located in the Sacristy. Thank you for your assistance!

CONSIDERATION OF OUR CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT: MOVING TOWARD LENT

This Sunday's Gospel speaks of many things, but to me one thing that has always stood out is how after being healed by the Lord, Peter's mother-in-law "got up and waited on them." I think that this short statement deserves much more attention then it usually receives in the midst of all else that is going on. She reminds us in a very understated way that loving and serving one another is an act of gratitude for all God has done for us. Down through the ages, God has cared for and provided for us, his children. Unfortunately, we can sometimes get so buried with our own battles and difficulties, we don't take time to let God into the deepest and scariest corner of our lives. Imagine if Jesus, on hearing that Peter's mother-in-law was sick, had said, "Don't bother me with this. That's not why I came here today." Jesus set the example for us. We are to be ready to minister to all, when the opportunity arises.

Mother Teresa of Calcutta did us a tremendous service when she revealed through her writings and reflections that there were many times she had serious doubts about the love of God. She showed us that God does not ask us to be super human beings, but rather simply to be human beings with compassion, care and love for one another. This is how we respond, like Peter's mother-in-law, and show God we are grateful sons and daughters.

As we moved toward Lent, we were privileged to have Deacon Glenn and Linda Harmon with us as they led us in our annual parish mission. It would have been a really good and graced mission at any time, but came at a really good time, as it gave us the opportunity to reflect upon what needed transformation and what opportunities and means were available to us as we moved toward Lent. We keep them and their ministry in our prayers as they keep us also in theirs.

The St. Joseph Altar will be held, celebrated and served the weekend of March 13 and 14. In preparation for the altar, the St. Joseph Altar workers met for a pot-luck supper a few Saturdays ago, and nearly filled the large hall. The comment was made that nineteen years ago it was a small handful of people who gathered to prepare for that first altar. By now many have already begun preparing the cookies and other things that go into the St. Joseph Altar. This year the altar will be dedicated in memory of Sylvia Pulizzano who along with many other ministries assisted with the altar since its beginning, and was coordinator of the Perpetual Adoration Chapel for a number of years.

I would like to share a word with young adults who may be interested in taking part in the Mission Trip to Honduras this June. Later this spring, May 17, the Young Adult Mission to Honduras group from Baton Rouge will be here as they have been in the past. More will be said about this then. I make mention of it now however, in case any young adults from the parish might be interested in exploring the possibility of going with them. Last year some had expressed an interest, but it was too late. To get more information about the June 11-23, 2015 mission trip to Honduras, you can contact Steven Brooksher at 225-773-0374 or stevenbrooksher@gmail.com; Callet Angelle at 225-718-7688 or calletangelle@gmail.com, or Shannon Baldridge, at 225-921-9074 or Shannon.m.baldridge@gmail.com.

Come and See is a very special opportunity for men sixteen years and older. When I was Vocation Director for the Diocese back in the 1990's, it was a program many participated in and found beneficial. It is a Vocations Weekend Retreat put on by the Vocation Directors of Louisiana and seminarians at St. Joseph Seminary near Covington. The weekend is about how to discern God's call in your life. It is of no cost to participants, meals are provided, and you are asked only to bring bed linens, pillow, towels and any personal items you may wish to bring. It will be March 27-29, 2015. To make a reservation or to inquire about what it is like, you can telephone me at 665-5359 or Fr. Matt Dupré, Diocesan Vocation Director at 387-0561.

The French Pilgrimage to learn more about St. Eugene Mazenod this June has been cancelled. It was necessary to have ten reservations February 1 to move forward, and we didn't have the commitments. I will still be going, but it will be vacation days, and my own private retreat. Let us pray for each other as we move toward Lent. Love,

R.C.I.A. Phase Two: The Catechumenate

Upcoming Events:

February 22 . . . Rite of Sending at 9 a.m. Mass. Rite of Election and Rite of the Call to Continuing Conversion at 5:30 p.m. at St. Joseph's Cathedral, Baton Rouge.

What is the R.C.I.A. Rite of Election? This Rite marks a key moment. The catechumens travel to the Cathedral where the community, with godparents representing the parish, will wholeheartedly acclaim the participants' readiness. It is appropriate for the bishop to recognize them because he is the sign of unity of the particular Church, and it is the parish community's responsibility to bring those in R.C.I.A. into the fullness of the life of the Church. The godparents' role is very significant; they represent the community and are asked during this Rite to make serious statements about the catechumens. The decision of an R.C.I.A. participant to go through this Rite means that the judgment and decision-making about whether to enter the Catholic Church has ended. From this point on, they are called the "Elect." They have been chosen to enter into the final period of preparation for initiation, and called by the bishop to the holy mysteries to be celebrated at Easter.

Woman—Image of God

Calling all women to a day to work on yourselves. February 28, 2015 we will be having a retreat just for women called Woman: Image of God. This retreat will look at the lives of five women from the Bible and what we can learn from them right here, right now where we are. There will be some quiet time, some discussion and some fellowship. This retreat is from 9AM-3:30PM in the Faith Formation Center. The cost is $20.00 which includes lunch and all supplies. Tickets are available in the parish office and after all Masses the weekend of February 14th and 15th.

Women's Retreat: Saturday, February 28, 2015

If you would like to commit to an hour, call Allison Renfrow at 978-1892.

The 12 noon hour on Fridays (not silent) is for priests, religious, seminarians and The Unborn. All are welcome!

A Vocation View: February 8, 2015
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus created much excitement in His day through His preaching, teaching, and healing. Today the Church communicates that same wonder and grace by those active in priesthood, religious life, and lay ministries. If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, call or email Father Matt Dupré at 225.336.8778, mdupre@diobr.org, or visit, www.diobr.org/vocations.

Traveling Chalice For Vocations will be received by the Foye family (Dale and Peggy) for the week of February 8, 2015 at the 7 a.m. Mass and by the Bencaz family (Lloyd and Vilma) for the week of February 15, 2015 at the 9 a.m. Mass (MSH). If your family is interested in receiving the Traveling Chalice, call Mary Womack at 665-3505.
