Consideration of Our Christian Commitment: Ordinary Time Preparation

As we celebrate this Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear in the Scriptures, "Be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy. Our love and holiness will never match the love and holiness of our good God, but it is a goal to grow toward, and this is one of our goals as we prepare to enter into a good and graced Lenten Season. The bulletin today lists many opportunities available to us this Lent.

Just a reminder about our Parish Mission which will be held the First Week of Lent, March 2-4 at 7:00 p.m.

Fr. Albert Haase, O.F.M. is a Franciscan missionary who has given missions in our Diocese before and has been very well received. He will be present next weekend to give the homily at all liturgies. The theme for our mission this first week of Lent is Signed and Sealed with the Cross. Please don't hesitate to invite friends, family and neighbors.

Fasting during Lent: Throughout the Scriptures, we are admonished to fast and pray. Fasting does not assure us of that which we want, and it is not a means of manipulating God for our benefit. The primary reason for fasting is that we separate ourselves from those things which capture our attention so that we might be less distracted by them and more united to (focused on) God. Fasting has as its end goal the deepening of our relationship with God, recognizing our need of the Lord. While fasting is generally considered to be abstinence from food, it may also involve abstinence from those things which separate us from God and minimize our ability to seek him. It might be that the fast you need to enter may not be simply from food, but from noise, television, hobbies, or other things that keep us from hearing our deepest needs. Of course, fasting should not injure your health. If you are ill or other circumstances require you to eat regularly, do that which will be best for your total health – spiritual and physical. Remember that fasting has changed the lives of many for the better through the centuries.

Fasting as a Community – This is very important and much can be said of the benefits of fasting together, doing a penance as a community. The Bishops of the United States, recognizing this good, have issued the following Lenten regulations:

- In the Diocese of Baton Rouge, as in the rest of the Church in the United States, Catholics aged 18 through 59 are bound by a grave obligation to observe a solemn fast on both Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Catholics aged 14 and up are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday as well. These norms have been established by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops in accord with the norms of canons 1249-1253 in the revised Code of Canon Law of 1983.

- To fast means to consume only one full meal a day at most, although taking of other, smaller quantities of food at the other customary mealtimes is permitted. Food and drink "between meals" (excepting only water and medicine) is not permitted on fast days.
- To abstain from meat means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork, or poultry at least, although not necessarily meat broths or condiments made from animal fat. The consumption of fish, shellfish, and reptiles is permitted if desired.
- In his or her own way, every Christian is bound to do penance by virtue of divine law. Only ill health or some similar situation of urgency excuses. During the Lenten season, Christ Jesus' own challenges to "prayer, fasting and almsgiving" are paramount (see the Gospel reading for Ash Wednesday, Mt 6:1-6, 16-18). We seek ongoing forgiveness for sin (especially in the Sacrament of Penance) and come to appreciate ever more the great sufferings and sacrifice which Our Savior experienced for the sake of our salvation.
- All diocesan priests and deacons and those religious priests who have active ministry within the Diocese of Baton Rouge have been delegated the power to dispense the faithful of the diocese, in individual cases and for a just reason, from the obligation to observe a particular day of penance, or to commute some or all of its obligations to other pious works. Included in this is the faculty to dispense from the Lenten obligations to fast and abstain from meat. Yet the obligation to do some kind of penance remains a serious one and is not taken lightly by a good Catholic.

I look forward to beginning this Lenten Season with you and wish you and your loved ones a good and graced Lent. Let us keep one another in prayer. Love,

RCIA
Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults/Children

During the season of Lent, we are called to a profound conversion of life. We are called to let God change our hearts, have a greater place in our daily lives, and to remember all that the Lord has done for us. Each Sunday, we have among us a sign of conversion to which the Lord calls us. That sign is our Elect.

Next Sunday at the 9:00 a.m. Mass, we celebrate with 65 men, women and children their call to conversion and their entrance into a period of intense spiritual preparation during the season of Lent before their participation in the Easter mysteries of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist, entering into full communion with our Catholic community.

Upcoming Events

Stump the Deacon!

*Lent starts next Wednesday.
How can I make this the best Lent ever for me?*

Start off with this Lenten prayer:

"God of goodness and mercy, hear my prayer as I begin this Lenten journey with you. Let me be honest with myself as I look into my heart and soul, noticing the times I turn away from you. Guide me as I humbly seek to repent and return to your love. May humility guide my efforts to be reconciled with you and live forever in your abundant grace. Transform me this Lent, heavenly Father. Give me the strength to commit myself to grow closer to you each day. Amen"

In addition to following the Church's rules for fasting and abstinence from meat during Lent, consider Pope Francis' suggestions for Lent:

- Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
- Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
- Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
- Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
- Fast from worries and have trust in God.
- Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy.
- Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.
