- Lily Campbell,
- Andy & Ruby Kender
- Andy Kender, Jr.
- Alex & Flo Oravec
- In gratitude for blessings received.

Candlemas

Candlemas Day is another name for the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple for the rites of purification and dedication as prescribed by the Torah. According to the Book of Leviticus (12:1-4), when a woman bore a male child, she was considered “unclean” for seven days. On the eighth day, the boy was circumcised. The mother continued to stay at home for 33 days for her blood to be purified. After the 40 days, the mother and the father came to the temple for the rite of purification, which included the offering of a sacrifice — a lamb for a holocaust (burnt offering) and a pigeon or turtledove for a sin offering, or for a poor couple who could not afford a lamb, two pigeons or two turtledoves. Note Joseph and Mary made the offering of the poor (Lk 2:24).

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

Wednesday, February 2

Holy Mass 6:30 a.m.

9:00 a.m.*

7:30 p.m. (Español)

* Procession and blessing of candles will begin at the school Commons at 8:45 a.m.

Also, Joseph and Mary were obliged by the Torah to “redeem” their first born son: “The Lord spoke to Moses and said, ‘Consecrate to me every first-born that opens the womb among the Israelites, both of man and beast, for it belongs to me’” (Ex 13:1). The price for such a redemption was five shekels, which the parents paid to the priest.

This “redemption” was a kind of payment for the Passover sacrifice, by which the Jews had been freed from slavery.

However, St. Luke in the Gospel does not mention this redemption, but rather the presentation of Our Lord: “When the day came to purify them according to the law of Moses, the couple brought Him up to Jerusalem, so that He could be presented to the Lord, for it is written in the law of the Lord, ‘Every first-born male shall be consecrated to the Lord’” (Lk 2:22-23).

So the focus is on Jesus’ consecration to God. The verb “to present” (paristanai) also means to “offer,” which evokes Jesus being presented as the priest who will offer Himself as the perfect sacrifice to free us from the slavery of sin, seal the new and eternal covenant with His blood, and open the gates to the true promised land of heaven.

Simeon, a just and pious man, who awaited the Messiah and looked for the consolation of Israel, was inspired to come to the temple. He held baby Jesus in his arms and blessed God, saying, "Now, Master, you can dismiss your servant in peace; you have fulfilled your word. For my eyes have witnessed your saving deed, displayed for all the peoples to see: A revealing light to the Gentiles, the glory of your people Israel" (Lk 2:29-32). Simeon, thereby, announced that the Messiah has come not just for the Jew but the gentile; not just the righteous, but the sinner.

He then blessed the Holy Family, and said in turn to Mary: "This child is destined to be the downfall and the rise of many in Israel, a sign that will be opposed—and you yourself shall be pierced with a sword — so that the thoughts of many hearts may be laid bare" (Lk 2:34-35).

So the Presentation is a proclamation of Christ — Messiah and Priest, Lord and Savior. He is the light who came into this world to dispel sin and darkness. For this reason, traditionally at least since the seventh century, candles have been blessed at Mass this day that will be used throughout the year, hence coining the term "Candlemas."

As we consider the feast of the Presentation, we remember that our parents presented us at church for our baptism. We were dedicated to God, and given the name, "Christian." We, too, received a lit candle from the paschal candle, at which the priest said, "You have been enlightened by Christ. Walk always as a child of the light and keep the flame of faith alive in your heart. When the Lord comes, may you go out to meet Him with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom" (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

Therefore, as a light, each of us must bear witness to Our Lord. We must be the beacon that guides others to Christ. Also, we must realize that we, too, will be "a sign that will be opposed," especially on issues of the sanctity of human life, marriage and the family.

Two other interesting tidbits highlight this day: First, in many Eastern European countries, the feast of the Presentation officially closes the celebration of Christmas. For this reason, Blessed John Paul II began the custom of keeping the Nativity scene in St. Peter's square until Feb. 2.

Candles will be blessed at the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Wednesday, February 2. The blessing will take place at the school commons at 8:45 a.m. and will be followed by a procession with the school children to the Church for the celebration of the Mass.

Some parishioners have reported receiving text or e-mail messages from the parish clergy or staff, asking for gift cards or other forms of financial assistance. These are scams! Be Alert!

No one from the parish will ever send you a message asking for money. If in doubt, contact the clergy or staff directly by phone. The parish office number is 281-463-7878.

The bulletin is published seasonally. All submissions must be submitted in an MSWord document, using Century Gothic font, size nine. Please do not add any formatting to the document (bold, italics, text boxes, etc.) . All submissions are subject to editing.

The next edition of the bulletin will be the Lent and Holy Week edition. Submissions are due by February 7. The current plan for publication is:

- Lent and Holy Week (Feb. 27)
- Easter (April 10)
- Summer (June 5)

Pasos básicos para confesarse

Antes de nuestra confesión, examinemos nuestra consciencia, pidiendo por la ayuda de Dios para conocer y arrepentir de nuestros pecados.

Penitente: Ave María Purísima.

Sacerdote: Sin pecado concebida.

Penitente: Bendígame padre porque he pecado. Hace ... de mi última confesión.
Mis pecados son...

Confiesa todos los pecados desde tu última confesión.

No es necesario ilustrar detalles de lo ocurrido.

Por ejemplo: "Ofendí gravemente a mis padres de palabra" en vez de: "Íbamos en el carro y papa sacó una vieja conversación.... me habló de una novia... reaccioné....entonces..."

Confiesa tus propios pecados y no los ajenos. El confesionario no es para desahogarse contando lo que nos han hecho otros.

Sacerdote ofrece algún consejo e imparte la penitencia.

Penitente reza el Acto de Contrición, por ejemplo:

Pésame Dios mío y me arrepiento
de todo corazón de haberte ofendido.
Pésame por el infierno que merecí
y por el cielo que perdí;
pero mucho mas me pesa porque
pecando ofendí un Dios tan bueno
y tan grande como vos;
antes querría haber muerto
que haberle ofendido,
y propongo firmemente ayudado
por tu divina gracia,
no pecar mas y evitar
las ocasiones próximas de pecado. Amen

Sacerdote imparte la absolución con estas palabras: "Dios, Padre de misericordia..." y despide al penitente en paz.

How to go to Confession

Before confession we examine our conscience, asking God's help to know our sins and to be truly sorry for them.

Rite of Reconciliation

Priest: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.
Bless me, Father, for I have sinned.
It has been (say how long) since
my last confession.
My sins are (confess your sins).

When you are done, the priest will give you spiritual advice and assign a penance. He will then ask you to pray an Act of Contrition, for example:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

- or -

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell; but most of all because they have offended Thee, my God, Who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

The Priest then says the Prayer of Absolution while the penitent listens. At the conclusion of the prayer, make the sign of the Cross and say, "Amen."

Priest: Go in peace
Penitent: Thanks be to God

Complete your penance as soon as possible. If you were given prayers to say, try to pray them in church before departing.
