"THE PROPER OF TIME" – is a phrase I find haunting. In the Roman Missal, these words are found on an otherwise blank page that opens the entire Church Year. How is Time to be properly understood and on what basis is time to be properly received, spent, shared?

BACK TO THE FUTURE – Starting today and for the next two Sundays, we will be presented with readings and prayers directing our attention to the end of time and the Second Coming of Christ. Our liturgical celebrations will take us "back to the Future" or as the Irish phrase it to "the back of Beyond".

"TIME'S UP" - that is, Time itself is up for reflection, for review, for consideration and examination. Paraphrasing the psalmist who writes "In your light, O God, we see light" (Psalm 36:9) we might say, "in contemplating eternity, O God, we see time." I don't know who discovered water, but I'm pretty sure it wasn't a fish. How can we stand apart from that within which we are immersed, such as: Light? Oxygen? Culture? Time? One way is to pause and to take a "Time Out" from time.

TELLING TIME - We need not be only passive recipients of time; we need not only "go with the flow" or be carried along by time. To some degree we have the power to step out of, to stand apart from, to shape, to "tell" time. We can do this by naming time.

NAMING – We can name or shape time according to our purposes (eg. the school year; the fiscal year; baseball season); according to nature (eg. the lunar year; the solar year; winter; blueberry season). We may arrange time according to our particular stories (eg. my year of living dangerously; the year our dog died; the year we lived through Covid-19). That said, we may also seek for a Story into which we can insert and integrate all our individual and collective stories (eg. the Year 5781 for Jews; the Year 2021 A.D. for Christians).

CHURCH YEAR – Having named Christ as the center of time, our Tradition arranges our prayer life so as to allow us year by year by year to become more integrated into Him in whom "we live, and move, and have our being" (Acts 17:28), and to become more incorporated into the action of his once-for-all living, dying and rising (2 Corinthians 4:10-11). We call this the Church Year, or Liturgical Year, or Year of Prayer or....

"THE YEAR OF GRACE" - This is my favorite way of naming time. We need not simply skim the surface of the years allotted to us. Guided by grace, led by liturgical celebrations over time and through time, we need not merely "go in circles". By incorporating our experience into the liturgical life of the Church, we will be led to spiral or bore down into a deeper awareness of God and into a closer conformation with Christ. In Hebrew the name Ann means Grace, and the motto of Saint Ann Parish is "To Grow in Grace through Jesus Christ", which expresses succinctly what we as a community are aiming at. This is our aim, our purpose, our goal, our end--- which is a timely reflection as we come to the end of another Church Year: the Year of Grace 2020.

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR – Today we Catholics are celebrating the fourth World Day of Prayer for the Poor with the theme "Stretch forth your hand to the poor" (Sirach 7:32). Toward the end of St. Matthew's Gospel (in fact next Sunday's Gospel), Jesus tells us that in the end we will be judged on how we treated Him when we met Him in those who were hungry, homeless, strangers, sick, ill-clothed and in prison. How blessed we are in Phoenixville to have so many ways to encounter Jesus in disguise, welcome Him and wash His feet in humble service.

Laudato Si' Year - To mark the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis' 2015 encyclical Laudato Si': On Care for our Common Home, we are now celebrating a Laudato Si' Year. Since the publication of Pope Francis's encyclical on the environment, it's very difficult to pretend that climate change is merely a scientific—or political—matter. In Laudato Si' Pope Francis makes clear that climate change is a MORAL issue, one which the people of the world MUST attend to immediately. For suggestions on how you can respond to the pope's moral call to the world, Google: "What to Do? The Pope's Practical Tips."

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

Gifts made to the Catholic Charities Appeal will provide support needed to tens of thousands of people through countless organizations, programs and ministries throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The beneficiaries are grouped into five key areas: Education, Social Services, Evangelization, Parish and Spiritual Life.

UPCOMING EVENTS

THANKSGIVING IN A TIME OF COVID – On Thursday November 26 we will have our normal Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9:00 AM in Chapel. Also, as normal, all

Thank you for your generous response to our request for Sunday donations to help reduce our budget deficit. During this pandemic with all its stresses and challenges, we are so grateful to continue receiving your offering gifts which help us fulfill the mission and work of the parish.

We have reduced our staff and administrative costs to offset the impact of reduced Sunday collections, but the needs of our ministries, families and community still remain. In addition, although our church is quieter than normal, the maintenance, utilities and insurance costs for 12 buildings and two cemeteries do not go away and now include increased costs for covid related cleaning as well as the live streaming of mass for those who do not yet feel safe to attend in person. Thank you for your support which helps us meet these needs.

Please visit our donation page at <https://churchofsaintann.org/donations> to learn more about this important service. You may also continue to mail your gifts to the parish office: St Ann Parish, 502 Main Street, Phoenixville PA 19460

Please pray for the sick, disabled, homebound members of our Parish Family.
