

St. Benedict School

We hope you and your families are enjoying your Christmas break and getting ready to ring in the New Year this weekend!

We wanted to let you know that over the next few days we will be launching our new website.

The website (www.stbenedicttholmdel.org) will take you to a page that will look like this:

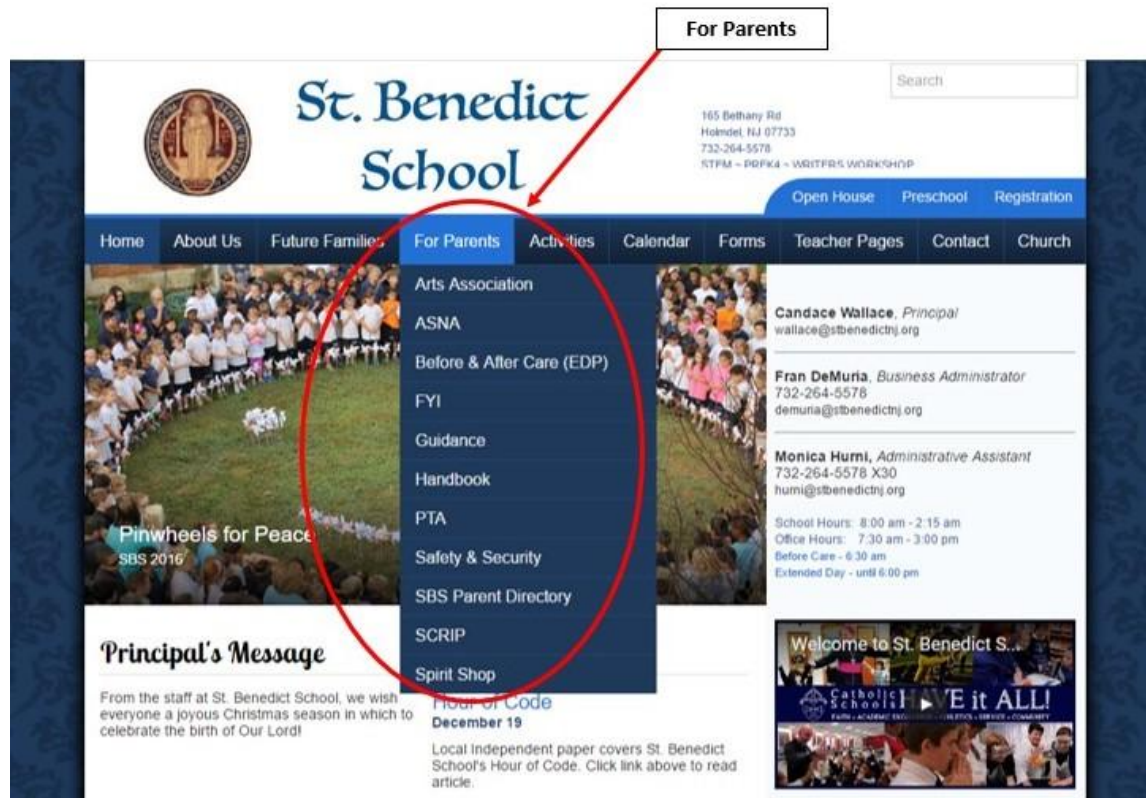

Click on the Catholic School button (shown on right in screenshot above) to access the school website.

SCHOOL WEBSITE - HOME PAGE

Below is a screenshot of the home page of the new school website.

Under the "For Parents" link in the main navigation (circled in red below), you will find important school information listed in alphabetical order, including the "FYI" link which contains the latest Principal's Newsletter, the Principal's Packet, etc.

Other main navigation links to take note of:

Future Families

Links to all pertinent school information for prospective families.

Activities

Links to all Clubs and Sports in the school.

Calendar

Links to the school Google calendar.

Forms

Links to all forms including Registration, Nurse, Before and After Care, SCRIP and Sports forms.

Teacher Pages

Links to all teacher pages; the drop down menu lists the teacher pages by homeroom/teachers from K-8 and specials.

Church

Links to the new Church website.

We hope you find the new website user friendly, easy to use and provides an overall improved user experience.

Looking forward to kicking off the New Year next week. Until then, a happy, safe and blessed New Year to all!
