O Lord,
How amazing is your love, A love that overcomes, endures and redeems.
How astounding is your life, A life that sustains, heals and creates.
How awesome is your hope, A hope that promises, restores and inspires.
How absorbing is your truth, A truth that releases, changes and rebuilds.
How we worship you, as we remember the moment when your love conquered.

When out of the cave of sorrow Jesus arose to release forgiveness to the world.
And each time we encounter this resurrection day
we are again lifted to an eternal place.
Our sin, brokenness and darkness fall away and your light and peace flood our lives.
How we thank you for this incredible celebration we call Easter.

Amen.

A BLESSED EASTER

Stewards of the Month – April

Thank you for sharing your time and talents with our parish community!

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

SEEKING

Easter Sunday is a day all about seeking. The early Christian communities gathered around the Apostles, seeking more about the life and ministry of the Lord Jesus. Saint Paul told the baptized Colossians to "seek what is above." Mary of Magdala went to the tomb, seeking to find the Lord's body so that she could anoint it. We come to church on Easter Sunday seeking many things. For some of us, this is a once a year journey, when we seek connection with the foundations of the Christian faith. For others, this day is the culmination of a long journey of Lenten repentance. For the newly baptized, this is the first day of a new life filled with promise and expectation. Whatever it is that we seek, let us be inspired by the disciple whom Jesus loved who, when he saw the wrappings of cloth inside the empty tomb, "saw and believed."

TREASURE FROM OUR TRADITIONS

What does the Resurrection mean in my life here and now? Can I show in my words and actions that Jesus has changed my life? Can I love and serve his "least ones"? This is what Pope Francis is really asking, and through his own extraordinary acts of love, he leads the way. To echo him, "Go out to the streets and announce that Jesus Christ has changed your life. And then rejoice that it is so!"

Activity: Announcing the News
With your family, write and present a TV or radio news announcement. Your report may include interviews with the disciples at the tomb and a commentary by an anchorperson. You might also include an appropriate sponsor for the gospel news program.
