PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD PASSION

The contrast between the processional reading in today's liturgy and the proclamation of the Passion is striking. We are given a glimpse of how profoundly the word of God is fulfilled in Jesus.

First he must be hailed as the Messiah, the One who is to come. He must be acknowledged by all, though they do not know what they are saying. They think he is the promised king, a worldly king of the Jews who will free them from the Roman occupation.

They do not yet understand, even the disciples, exactly where this triumphal procession is leading. In our lives, we too do not know where we are going. It is in faith that we can follow Christ wherever he may lead us, trusting that death is not the end, nor evil the victor. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

To prepare for the Readings of Mar. 31/April 1

First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness:
The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).

Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).

(1) Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4) or
(2) Second Reading — Christ our Passover is sacrificed; therefore let us celebrate (1 Corinthians 5:6b-8).

Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9) or Mark 16:1-7 (or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35).

The Christian High Holy Days

Beginning this weekend, we celebrate the holiest days of our year, Holy Week. While they are not coincident with the Jewish High Holy Days, our Holy Week reflects one similar theme as these days for our Jewish brethren – a time of new beginnings. Our days do not reflect the beginning of a new year, but the beginning of a new life through Christ's salvific Passion, Death and Resurrection.

We begin our Holy Week this weekend with Palm Sunday. On this day, we celebrate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. However, already we have an eye toward the endgame, which is His Crucifixion. This Mass is the only Mass that includes two Gospels: one from Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, which we read at the beginning of Mass as we re-enact this episode with our own palm waving; and one that retells Jesus' Passion, which comes from Mark's Gospel this year.

The next three days of Holy Week are the last three days of Lent and serve as preparation for the three holiest days of the year, the Triduum: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Participating in the liturgies of the Triduum helps to prepare our hearts for the new beginning and new life in Christ that comes with Easter.

Holy Thursday traditionally has two liturgies: The Chrism Mass and The Mass of the Lord's Supper. Many dioceses, including our own, transfer the Chrism Mass to a day earlier in Holy Week for pastoral reasons. In the Diocese of Palm Beach, the Chrism Mass is held on Holy Tuesday. The highlight and main purpose of the Chrism Mass is the Bishop blessing the Holy Oils for use throughout the year, including the Oil of the Sick, Oil of Catechumens, and the Sacred Chrism (hence the name of the Mass). These oils will be used by the clergy of the Diocese to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Anointing of the Sick and Ordination. In this Mass, we see the renewal of our Sacramental life, which is part of our life in Christ.

The Mass of the Lord's Supper places special emphasis on another Sacrament – the Eucharist. Jesus gave us this Sacrament to remind us of His enduring love for us through this special gift of Himself. A special moment is also included when the priest washes the feet of several representatives of the parish, re-enacting the model of service that Jesus displayed when He washed the feet of His Apostles, another outward sign of his great love. [JN 13:15]

The liturgy of Good Friday of the Lord's Passion completes the gift of Jesus that he began at the Last Supper. On Thursday, he gave Himself – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity – to us in the Eucharist. On Friday, he gave his life for us on the Cross to pay the debt of our sins. We are washed clean by the Blood of Jesus. We are saved by his free gift of Himself. We are freed by His subjection to punishment. We are made whole by his being broken.

The culmination of the Triduum comes in the Mass of the Lord's Resurrection on Holy Saturday evening – the Easter Vigil. While many people forego this Mass because it is longer than most, it is one of the most beautiful celebrations of our entire year. It is packed with great meaning and celebration. The Mass begins with the blessing of new fire and water, symbols of Christ bringing us new life. It moves through a wonderful retelling of the story of salvation with several readings. While this Mass is filled with many highlights, one of the more emotional and joyous moments is the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) for our RCIA Candidates and Catechumen. With the celebration of this Mass, Holy Week and the Triduum end and the renewal of Easter begins!

If at all possible, please plan to take advantage of our various liturgies for Holy Week, so that you may enter more fully into the beauty and wonder of our faith as found in these Christian High Holy Days! [You will find our Holy Week Schedule in this bulletin.]

Magnificat - A Ministry to Catholic Women

The Christ Our Light Chapter of Magnificat invites all women of the diocese to join us for our next breakfast Sat., April 7 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Hilton P.B. Airport 150 Australian Ave. WPB

Please join us as we share a meal, enjoy fellowship, give praise and encourage one another in our faith journey. Judy Warren is a cradle Catholic who will share how her relationship with Christ has grown and been sustained over the years. Judy has taught in Palm Beach County for 27 years and now works as a school counselor. She worships at St. Rita in Wellington where she has served in religious education and as a lector and Eucharistic minister for many years. It been said that God draws straight with crooked lines. From Judy's challenges with alcohol addiction to her life-changing experience of Cursillo, God has used the low points, the high points, and everything in between to draw Judy closer to Himself. You will be inspired by her story of how God is working in her life.

Registration Deadline: March 30 Email: csheldon@bellsouth.net Please send check payable to "Magnificat" to Cindy Sheldon 3038 30th Court, Jupiter, FL 33477 $25.00 if payment is postmarked by deadline or $30.00 at the door

rites of

The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper and Christ's Passion and approaching Crucifixion. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the Cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ's triumphant Resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment. Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Our Church is not limited only to our parish, our diocese or even our nation. We are a worldwide family of faith that embraces diverse cultures, races and nations. Next week as we gather on the Passion of the Lord, we will participate in the special Good Friday Collection. In doing so, we answer Pope Francis' call to support Christians in the Holy Land. The Church in the Holy Land represents in a real way our elder brothers and sisters in the faith, for they were the first to embrace Christ and His Gospel.

The Pontifical Good Friday Collection is taken up in every Catholic Church around the world. It sustains Christianity in the Holy Land. With your help the Church ministers in parish communities, provides formation and education, builds homes and feeds the hungry. In addition, the sacred shrines in the Holy Land are maintained so pilgrims can walk in the footsteps of Jesus.

The Christians of the Holy Land have endured much hardship and uncertainty in recent history. Civil wars and unrest have made life, combined with the refugee and humanitarian crisis, precarious in the land we call holy. Your participation in the Good Friday collection is a symbolic way of walking the Way of the Cross that many of our elder brothers and sisters in the Holy Land daily struggle to complete.

During this holy season of Lent, may God fill you with every joy, strength and gift of grace and may our Blessed Mother always intercede for you.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito Bishop of Palm Beach

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
