I AM THE VINE YOU ARE THE BRANCHES

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER LIVING BRANCHES

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God's own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: "And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another" (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ's life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul's fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord's Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

LOOKING THROUGH STAINED GLASS

A Column by Fr. Tom

“Lord, Teach Us to Pray”

As I mentioned in a previous column, we are called by Jesus to be His disciples. We also learned that the meaning of the word disciple comes from the Latin root, discere, which means “to learn.” Of all the things that Jesus taught His disciples during His earthly ministry, there is only one thing that they asked Him to teach them. “[Jesus] was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, ‘Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples.’” [LK 11:1]

During Jesus’ ministry, he taught most lessons by example, and this is true of prayer too, to an extent. First, the disciples would have known from their own tradition that prayer is important. In addition, they could tell from the actions of Jesus that prayer was a constant part of his life. However, He often prayed by Himself: “Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.” [MK 1:35]

So, Jesus was teaching them to pray, but He hadn’t taught them how to pray. So they asked Him how to pray. Over the next few weeks, I would like to focus this column on the answer to that question. There are many great ways to pray, and the best way depends on each individual person. However, no matter what way or ways you choose to pray, the most important part of prayer is that we do it.

So my first lesson in prayer is be like Jesus, find – no, make – the time to pray. If we wait until we have the time, we never will. I know that sometimes during my life I have tried to “fit prayer in whenever I can,” During those times, I often found myself going to bed without spending any time in prayer, and then my only prayer was, “Good night, Lord, we’ll try again tomorrow.” We have to make time. If you are the kind of person who keeps a calendar or planner, schedule an appointment with Jesus. His calendar is wide open for you. Whenever you’re available, He will be available too. If you have a daily routine, perhaps you can find a time that will work for you every day. For example, maybe you can get up a little early and “have a cup of coffee with Jesus.” Or maybe, you can take Jesus on your morning commute. Just turn off the radio, and spend some time in prayer with the Lord. Morning talk shows will make you mad and morning news will make you sad, but morning prayer will make you glad.

Your assignment for this week is to find a good time for you to spend some good time with God. It doesn’t have to be a long time, even 5-10 minutes a day is a good start. Just start – TODAY!!

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
