SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER LOVE ONE ANOTHER

In the Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of Easter we are met with an extraordinary challenge: Jesus commands us to “love one another as I love you” (John 15:12). The letter from John echoes this command. Of course, we are to love those in our family, those we work with, those we like. But the scriptures make clear that we are also to love those we never notice, those we purposely avoid, and even those we are tempted to despise.

In this Sunday’s selection from the Acts of the Apostles Peter shows us how far God’s love extends, and how far our love should extend in response. Peter realizes that God no longer “shows partiality” to the Jews, sharing divine love exclusively with them. Christ has revealed that God’s love extends to all people, and so should ours. Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

During the month of May we celebrate World Communications Day, recognizing the important role that social communication plays in the work of evangelization.

In his message for World Communications Day, Pope Francis states “The capacity to twist the truth is symptomatic of our condition, both as individuals and communities. On the other hand, when we are faithful to God’s plan, communication becomes an effective expression of our responsible search for truth and our pursuit of goodness.” As Catholics we have a duty to ensure that the truth of Jesus Christ is preached and transmitted to the ends of the earth. More than ever this Gospel is being relegated to the periphery by a society that rejects the truth found in Sacred Scripture.

On the weekend of May 12 & 13, the diocese will have a special collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Half of the CCC collection will fund the national communication efforts of the U.S. Bishops. The remainder funds our diocesan communications projects like the television Mass, the Florida Catholic newspaper, our diocesan website, electronic newsletters, and various forms of social media.

Our special collection on May 12 & 13 also supports Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., the national university of the Catholic Church. As the only institution of higher education in the U.S. founded by our bishops and chartered by the Vatican, the university educates clergy, religious, and lay faithful from across the nation.

Because of your support of the CCC and Catholic University collections, millions of faithful will have the opportunity to deepen their faith through media resources and Catholic education.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito Bishop of Palm Beach

LOOKING THROUGH STAINED GLASS

A Column by Fr. Tom

Learning to Pray – the Beginnings

How did you first learn to pray? Most people would respond to that question by saying that their mother or father taught them. In addition, most would also say that they learned to pray using what the Church calls “formal” prayers. These are the prayers that someone else composed and that we memorized. For example, when you first learned to pray, perhaps your father knelt beside you at bedtime and began, “Now I lay me down to sleep....” During these formative years, we also learned the prayers of our faith tradition, such as the Hail Mary, Our Father and Doxology [Glory be...].

A more subtle lesson was also learned during these years as well. We learned that we are supposed to pray every day. Every night before we went to bed, as sure as our mothers would remind us to brush our teeth, they would also remind us that we needed to say our prayers. What our parents were trying to teach us was that our spiritual health is just as important as our physical health.

Now that we are older, these prayers should still be an important part of our spiritual life. As we grow, some families choose to pray the Rosary together as a family. Perhaps you remember Fr. Patrick Peyton’s slogan, “The family that prays together, stays together.” In the rosary, we combine some of the traditional prayers of our faith to allow for a longer meditative devotion for Our Blessed Mother’s intercession. Those who were able to attend Fr. Pat’s parish mission in February remember how he told us that the rosary changed his life.

There are other formal prayers of our faith tradition too. Many of the saints have composed prayers that can speak the praises and supplications to God that we can’t seem to put into words. For example, St. Francis gives us the Peace prayer [Lord, make me a channel of your peace...] and St. Ignatius gives us the Suscipe prayer [Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty...]. These are not just songs, they are beautiful prayers. Many people pray the Anima Christi [Soul of Christ, sanctify me...] after Communion or the Act of Contrition as part of their daily examination of conscience.

While these formal prayers may be the first prayers we learn, we do not graduate away from them any more than we throw away basic math when we learn algebra. These prayers are the foundation of our prayer life. In the next columns, we will explore how we can build on them.

Congratulations! Confirmation 2018

Please Pray for All Priests

Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).

May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross.

May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

St. John Vianney, pray for us.

Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Danny Sieff, Edimer Ortiz, Ethel Rodriguez and
