THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 14, 2020

The bread that we break,
is it not a participation
in the body of Christ?
Because the loaf
of bread is one,
we, though many,
are one body,
for we all partake
of the one loaf.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
FOOD FROM HEAVEN

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them—twice—that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus too speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ.

LOOKING THROUGH STAINED GLASS

A Column by Fr. Tom

…And Lead Us Not Into Temptation…

As we mentioned at the beginning of our study of the Our Father, this prayer, given to us by Jesus, has been called "the perfect prayer." There are many reasons for this designation, and one of them is that each petition of this prayer builds on what has preceded it. This quality is definitely true for the petition we examine this week, "And lead us not into temptation."

The Catechism states, "This petition goes to the root of the preceding one, for our sins result from our consenting to temptation; we therefore ask our Father not to 'lead' us into temptation." [CCC 2846] The word "lead" seems to be a point of confusion or even dissention among some Christians. So much so, that even our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has endeavored to change this word to something less meaningful. According to the Catechism, the word "lead" comes from a Greek word, that is so robust, that is yields at least two definitions. "It is difficult to translate the Greek verb used by a single English word: the Greek means both 'do not allow us to enter into temptation' and 'do not let us yield to temptation.'" [Ibid.]

Let's take a deeper look at each of these implications. First, we are asking God not to "allow us to enter into temptation." The Catechism continues the above quote by saying, "We ask him not to allow us to take the way that leads to sin." [Ibid.] In other words, we are aware of the weakness of our own humanity, and we are aware that the Evil One wants to play on our weaknesses. We are asking God in this petition to help us stay away from those temptations which we find hardest to resist. These moments have traditionally been called, "near occasions of sin." Each one of us falls into sin more easily by different temptations. One might be more tempted by lust and another by gluttony or greed. In this petition of the Our Father, we are asking that God keep us from those "near occasions of sin" that our fortitude cannot resist.

On the other hand, the second definition above, "do not let us yield to temptation," brings us to the second stage of temptation. In this definition, we are asking that God increase our fortitude should we find ourselves in a place of temptation. What we realize is that every time we resist a temptation, we strengthen our commitment to God, as we choose good over evil and God over the world. "God does not want to impose the good, but wants free beings…. There is a certain usefulness to temptation. No one but God knows what our soul has received from him, not even we ourselves. But temptation reveals it in order to teach us to know ourselves, and in this way we discover our evil inclinations and are obliged to give thanks for the goods that temptation has revealed to us." [CCC 2847] God has given us free will that we might choose Him, demonstrating our love for Him as primary. When we resist temptations, we build on our love for God. When we succumb to them, we diminish that love. "'Lead us not into temptation' implies a decision of the heart: 'For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also…'" [CCC 2848]

Next week, we explore the culmination of this prayer, and its ultimate implication, as we examine, "But deliver us from evil."

I Can Help

At this time, we are not gathering to make sandwiches; however, we still need the sandwiches. Please make sandwiches (bologna and cheese, individually wrapped) at home and bring them to the Parish Office on Monday or Tuesday, between 9 AM and 5 PM. THANK YOU!

Will you join us as we set out to write notes to those parishioners who are alone or who are feeling lonely, may be feeling anxious and afraid, or just need to hear from someone during this time? You may address your letter - Dear Friend, or you may call the Parish Office beginning Monday, for names to personalize your note. Please write as many letters or cards as is possible for you, and mail, email or drop them off at the Parish Office and we will deliver them! THANK YOU!

Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call. We pray!

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

In light of current events reminding us that racism persists in our Country, over the next several weeks this space will be devoted to quotes from the USCCB Document: "Open Wide Our Hearts; the enduring call to love" (A Pastoral Letter against racism. 2018)

" What is Racism? Racism arises when--either consciously or unconsciously--a person holds that his or her own race or ethnicity is superior, and therefore judges persons of other races or ethnicities as inferior and unworthy of equal regard. When this conviction or attitude leads individuals or groups to exclude, ridicule, mistreat, or unjustly discriminate against persons on the basis of their race or ethnicity, it is sinful. Racist acts are sinful because they violate justice. They reveal a failure to acknowledge the human dignity of the persons offended, to recognize them as the neighbors Christ calls us to love."
(Pg. 3, Open Wide Our Hearts)

Challenge Question: Reflecting on the above quote, how can I explore if I have any conscious or unconscious ideas about race? There are several good resources on the internet to ascertain whether or not we hold what are called, "implicit biases". Do I have the courage to begin exploring messages or attitudes I may have absorbed over the course of my lifetime? Let us all bring our desire to love all people, regardless of race, before the Blessed Sacrament today, in hope of healing our divisions.

Diocesan Prayer for God's Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic

Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen.

attributed to St. Alphonsus Liguori

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind, and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge.

We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Beverly Angel, Christopher Eldridge, Jane Osborn, Jose Perez, and Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
