OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE CHRIST, THE KING

The selection from the book of Daniel presented in today's first reading was part of an attempt to weave a vision of ultimate success for the Jews under persecution. Exactly whom the author had in mind when he refers to "one like a Son of Man" is hotly disputed by scholars today. The fact is, we simply do not know if the author meant anyone in particular or if this is a collective, figurative image of Israel's triumph. What we do know is that the early Christian community seized upon this passage and recognized it as a messianic prophecy, a foretelling of the ultimate triumph of Jesus as the Christ of God. The Lectionary's juxtaposition of this text with today's Gospel narrative of Jesus before Pilate is a wonderful example of how the liturgy "layers" passages with new meaning by inserting them in a particular context.

The celebration of Christ the King allows us to hear these passages with a new depth of meaning in light of our contemporary understanding of how, in Jesus and his resurrection and ascension, we have seen the fulfillment of Daniel's vision of ultimate deliverance. The veiled admission of Jesus before Pilate that he did indeed have a kingdom "not here" takes on new meaning against the cosmic vision of Daniel, who allows us to glimpse the "Ancient One" on his heavenly throne. To prepare for the Readings of November 27/28
First Sunday of Advent

First Reading — The days are coming when the LORD will fulfill the promise made to Israel and Judah (Jeremiah 33:14-16).

Psalm — To you, O Lord, I lift my soul (Psalm 25).

Second Reading — May the Lord make you increase and abound in love that you may be blameless in holiness; conduct yourselves so as to please God (1 Thessalonians 3:12 — 4:2).

Gospel — There will be signs and you will see the Son of Man coming with power and great glory. Be vigilant (Luke 21:25-28, 34-36).

LOOKING THROUGH STAINED GLASS

A Column by Fr. Tom

Thank God for the Gift of Family

Over the last four months in this column, we have been focusing on the two special “years” decreed by Pope Francis – the Year of St. Joseph and the Year of Amoris Laetitia Family. There is a theme that is shared by both of these years and their accompanying documents – the family.

This week, we will celebrate perhaps the most family-centered holiday of our secular calendar – Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is a time when we gather with the ones we love to do two things – enjoy their company and thank God for it.

Last year, there were many families who could not gather in person because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Many families had at least one person in the family who had one of the health issues that put them at greater risk. Travel was difficult for others. And some were just plain scared. Sadly, so many families had to resign themselves to “visit” via video chat.

As we look forward to Thanksgiving this year, many more families are planning to meet in person. As we mentioned above, this holiday gives us a chance to thank God for the family we have – maybe this year more than others.

We thank God for the hugs and kisses that we will receive from the relatives we haven’t seen in WAY TOO LONG. We thank God for the joy that we will feel that brings tears to our eyes. We thank God for the stories we will share with one another. We thank God for the memories that come flooding back with just one line.

We thank God for the old familiar smells of turkey and apple pie that will fill the house. We thank God for the old family recipes that we’ll get to enjoy again, like Aunt Josie’s famous sweet potato casserole (more mini marshmallows anyone?) or Cousin Bill’s infamous bean dip (infamous for so many reasons).

We thank God for the gift of being able to gather around one table. We thank God for the love we have for the ones whose chairs are empty this year. We thank God for the blessings we will share as we hold hands and pray grace.

We thank God for the chance to gather around the television watching parades and football. We thank God for Grandpa’s passion as he yells at those “stupid referees,” and for the moment the yelling stops as he falls asleep. We thank God for this year’s edition of the UF/FSU/UM debate.

As we pack up our leftovers and have that last hug goodbye, we thank God for the hope we have for the next time we will gather.

Whether your family looks like a Norman Rockwell painting or is more like a soap opera family, they’re all yours. Whether your family models the Holy Family or not, God gave us this family to teach us how to love. As we learn these lessons on love, we become more holy ourselves. So with a little love, every family can be a holy family. So, this year and every year, thank God for the gift of family.

Happy Thanksgiving!

PRAYER OF THE WEEK - Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God, the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ with righteous deeds at his coming, so that, gathered at his right hand, they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

ADVENT FAMILY CUSTOM

The empty manger: Each person may have his/her own individual manger, or there may be one manger for the whole family. The idea is that when acts of service, sacrifice, or kindness are done in honor of Baby Jesus as a birthday present, the child receives a piece of straw to put into the manger. Then, on Christmas morning, "Baby Jesus" is placed in the manger. Encourage your children to make Jesus' bed as "comfortable" as possible through their good deeds. In the process, explain Christ's incomparable self-gift at Christmas and Easter that enables us to be part of God's family.

"Feed a Family" Program!

As we thank God for what we have, let us be open to help a family in need.

COMING NEXT WEEKEND

We are excited to announce the new Hardback Missals/Hymnals that will fill our pews for your use beginning the First Sunday of Advent, November 28th.

And it keeps getting better...

You may memorialize, dedicate or offer a special tribute for our new Missals/Hymnals!

What a wonderful way to remember
special loved ones, (living or deceased), or special occasions (anniversaries, special birthdays, etc.), as voices are raised in prayer and song at our liturgies for many years to come.
For each special tribute, dedication, or memorial plate, the donation is $35.

What's the best way to do this? Here are (2) easy options:

- * Fill out this form for each label and drop it off at the Welcome Desk in the vestibule
- * Call the Parish Office at: 561-626-1873 or stop by the office and drop off this form below with your donation.

A specialized Tribute, Dedication or Memorial Plate (label) will be placed in the front cover of the Missal/Hymnal. You can donate as many as you desire (until we run out of books), while supporting your parish in this important project to enhance our liturgies. God bless you for your participation.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
