Parish Family Vocations Chalice Program

Sponsored by The Knights of Columbus Council 12322

Thank you to this week's family,

The Searcy Family

You or your family may sign up please call the Parish Office.

Included with the Chalice is a notebook with suggested prayers and a place to write about personal experiences during the week the Chalice is in your home. Over the next weeks we would like to share some of those comments:

Having the blessed Chalice and Paten gracing our home this past week was a beautiful experience. Reciting the daily prayers to guide and strengthen all seminarians focused our attention on the church's great need for new priests, deacons, religious brothers and sisters. We were happy to join our prayers with the rest of the church.

Please Pray for Vocations

Father, you call each one of us by name and ask us to follow you. Bless your Church by raising up dedicated leaders from our families and friends in the Diocese of Palm Beach, who will generously serve your people as sisters, brothers, deacons, and priests. Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord. Amen

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
FEELING BLESSED

Congratulations! Welcome to the Kingdom! Rejoice and leap for joy! Sounds a little like Easter, doesn't it? Well, in a very real way, it is. This Sunday, the scriptures remind us that we are blessed and beloved, especially when we have difficulties and don't feel especially blessed. Jesus reminds us that God blesses us in our trials, so we should trust in the saving power of God. We are "raised from the dead," as it were, each time we arise from our hardships. The ultimate proof of all of this is our new life in Christ, who died so that we could be free of sin, and was raised from the dead so that we might all have new life. Wouldn't that be something? A new life, in which poverty is riches and sadness is transformed into lightness of spirit? It's a topsy-turvy world, isn't it? Do you feel blessed today?

LOOKING THROUGH STAINED GLASS

A Column by Fr. Tom

Laudato Si' #5 – Chapter 2: The Gospel of Creation – Part 2

In our last column, we began our exploration of how our faith influences our "Care for our Common Home". We began by exploring our relationships with God, neighbor, and Creation, as depicted in the early Scriptures of Genesis. Let us begin this column by returning to the moment of Creation.

What we understand from our faith is that "'By the word of the Lord the heavens were made.' (Ps 33:6) This tells us that the world came about as the result of a decision, not from chaos or chance, and this exalts it all the more. The creating word expresses a free choice. The universe did not emerge as the result of arbitrary omnipotence, a show of force or a desire for self-assertion. Creation is of the order of love. God's love is the fundamental moving force in all created things…" [LS, 77] "The entire material universe speaks of God's love, his boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God." [LS, 84]

It is because of God's love that He "wishes to work with us and […] counts on our cooperation…" [LS, 80] In fact, Pope Francis goes on to remind us of our unique role in the realm of Creation: "Human beings, endowed with intelligence and love, and drawn by the fullness of Christ, are called to lead all creatures back to their Creator." [LS, 83] Further, we "understand better the importance and meaning of each creature if we contemplate it within the entirety of God's plan. […No] creature is self-sufficient. Creatures exist only in dependence on each other, to complete each other, in the service of each other." [LS, 86; cf. CCC 340]

As we consider our communion with all of creation, Pope Francis encourages us to remember that it is with the rest of humanity (our neighbors) that our greatest communion should exist. "A sense of deep communion with the rest of nature cannot be real if our hearts lack tenderness, compassion and concern for our fellow human beings. […] Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love for our fellow human beings and an unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society." [LS, 91] This is especially true for our brothers and sisters who are most vulnerable. "Hence every ecological approach needs to incorporate a social perspective which takes into account the fundamental rights of the poor and the underprivileged." [LS, 93]

Finally, as Christians, Pope Francis reminds us that Jesus is the epitome of communion with the created world. After all, He was present (with the Father and the Holy Spirit) at the Creation of this world, and then became one with us through the Incarnation. "In the Christian understanding of the world, the destiny of all creation is bound up with the mystery of Christ, present from the beginning: 'All things have been created through him and for him.' (Col 1:16) […] From the beginning of the world, but particularly through the incarnation, the mystery of Christ is at work in a hidden manner in the natural world as a whole, without thereby impinging on its autonomy." [LS, 99]

In our next column, we will continue our exploration of Laudato Si' with Chapter 3: The Human Roots of the Ecological Crisis.

February 12, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, February 19th and 20th, the Diocese of Palm Beach will have a second collection to support our local priests who have retired. Many of our retired priests, because of age or infirmity, are no longer able to publicly assist at Mass, yet are nonetheless integral parts of our diocesan family. In addition to supporting them financially, we also ask that you pray for our retired priests during this same weekend.

The money raised from this collection helps support the nearly 40 retired priests within our five counties. These priests, who have blessed us with their joyful service to the Lord, are valued members of our diocese now and always. Your support of our retired priests, through your prayers and generosity, is greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for allowing them to continue to be faithful stewards of God's mysteries.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito

Bishop of Palm Beach

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.

SMILE
Smile at friends, Smile at strangers.
It could be the one bright spot in their day.
And it will brighten your day too.
