LOOKING THROUGH STAINED GLASS

A Column by Fr. Tom

Sacramentum Caritatis #5

After exploring some general considerations about the Eucharistic liturgy, Pope Benedict XVI takes us through an exposition of some of the elements of the Mass.

"First of all, there is a need to reflect on the inherent unity of the rite of Mass. [...] The liturgy of the word and the Eucharistic liturgy, with the rites of introduction and conclusion, 'are so closely interconnected that they form but one single act of worship.' There is an intrinsic bond between the word of God and the Eucharist. [...] The word of God, read and proclaimed by the Church in the liturgy, leads to the Eucharist as to its own connatural end." [SC 44]

The first element of the Mass that Pope Benedict explores is the Liturgy of the Word. "Let us never forget that 'when the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his own word, proclaims the Gospel.'" [SC 45] As the homily is part of the Liturgy of the Word, Pope Benedict reminds his ministers that the "homily is 'part of the liturgical action', and is meant to foster a deeper understanding of the word of God, so that it can bear fruit in the lives of the faithful." [SC 46]

"[The presentation of the gifts] is not to be viewed simply as a kind of 'interval' between the liturgy of the word and the liturgy of the Eucharist. To do so would tend to weaken, at the least, the sense of a single rite made up of two interrelated parts. This humble and simple gesture is actually very significant: in the bread and wine that we bring to the altar, all creation is taken up by Christ the Redeemer to be transformed and presented to the Father." [SC 47]

As we continue through the movements of the Mass, Pope Benedict begins to focus on the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and he begins with the most important part of this Liturgy, the Eucharistic Prayer. "The Eucharistic Prayer is 'the center and summit of the entire celebration.' [...] In a particular way, Eucharistic spirituality and theological reflection are enriched if we contemplate in the anaphora [the Eucharistic Prayer] the profound unity between the invocation of the Holy Spirit and the institution narrative [the words of Jesus from the Last Supper]." [SC 48]

As Jesus comes to us in very real way in the Eucharist, Pope Benedict gives some special exhortations about the reception of the Eucharist and our appreciation of this gift. "Make every effort to ensure that this simple act [the reception of the Eucharist] preserves its importance as a personal encounter with the Lord Jesus in the sacrament. [...] Furthermore, the precious time of thanksgiving after communion should not be neglected: besides the singing of an appropriate hymn, it can also be most helpful to remain recollected in silence." [SC 50]

Following the "time of thanksgiving," we are called to translate our worship into mission. "After the blessing, the deacon or the priest dismisses the people with the words: Ite, missa est. [Literally, "Go, it is the dismissal."] These words help us to grasp the relationship between the Mass just celebrated and the mission of Christians in the world." [SC 51]

After reviewing some elements of the Mass, Pope Benedict XVI will next focus on what true "active participation" is, which we will begin to explore with him in our next column.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, February 18th and 19th, the Diocese of Palm Beach will have a second collection to support our local priests who have retired. The money raised from this collection helps support the dozens of retired priests in the five counties of our diocese. These priests, who have blessed us with years of service to the Lord, remain valued members of our diocese, with many continuing to serve the faithful in a variety of ways.

Your support of our retired priests, through your prayers and generosity, is greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for allowing them to continue to be faithful stewards and supporting their needs in retirement. In addition to supporting them financially, we also ask that you pray for our retired priests during this same weekend.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
