He answered them, “Strive to enter through the

MBS- Children's Choir Needs You! Many parishioners have told me over the years how much they enjoy hearing the Children's Choir sing on Sundays, on Christmas Eve and other special events. It's true there's nothing sweeter than the sound of children's voices singing the praises of God! Perhaps you know a child in Grades 2-8 who like to sing (your own children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews or neighbors). We sing on Sunday mornings at 8:30 am and do a quick practice session right after Mass. I encourage you to contact me about joining the choir. Thanks so much and feel free to give me a call at 671-479-4107 or 617-481-9153 or email etimcoe@yahoo.com

We are reminded in Scripture this week that we must, “Strive to enter through the narrow gate.” This narrow gate can be difficult to find, as we increasingly live in a society and in a world that tells us to follow the crowd, and to not seek difficulty or hardship. The words of Christ remind us especially that not all will be saved, and those who have power and prestige in this world are not guaranteed a place in the heavenly kingdom. Christ came for the poor, the down trodden, and the marginalized in His society. So too today, we must strive to be more like Christ in the work we do for the poor and in our service to each other. The narrow gate challenges us to step outside of our comfort zone, to go out into the world and proclaim the Gospel for all to hear. We pray especially this week for all those who feel inadequate, who feel unworthy of Christ; that they may be shown the love of God through the personal witness of each of our lives. May God continue to bless you! - Brian Kirby
