3rd Sunday of Advent

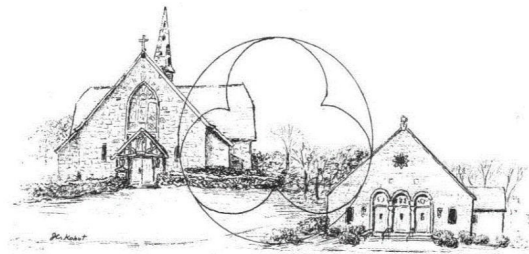

John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." Lk 3:16

Sales of our January money calendar have started, they are available at the back of the church thru December. They make a great stocking stuffer for $10.00
and you could win everyday in January.
We give $2200.00 away.

The flower offering envelopes are now available,
■ please be sure to fill your's out and drop in the collection plate.

Thanks to all who took ornaments that represent gifts for our neighbors in need!

Please return them wrapped with the tag on the outside, to the church this weekend as we will be organizing them and discerning what we still need to obtain.

Thank You !

Do you know someone who is homebound and would like Holy Communion brought to them? Please let us know by calling the office. 617-479-9200

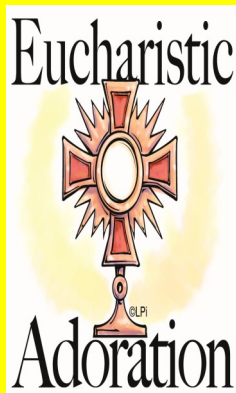

Thanks to everyone who were able to participate in the clean-up weekends. It is greatly appreciated!

Note from the Pastor:

I am once again very grateful to those who helped with the cleaning of the churches. Keeping up with all the cleaning and maintenance is very challenging, impossible without the help of volunteers. I also must thank Lou Mazzini and Aspinwall Baystate plumbing and heating who have been so very generous helping us on many occasions with different heating issues. Holy Trinity parish is very blessed to have such generous individuals who keep our parish functioning and moving forward. Deacon Bill Maloney continues to work countless hours in so many different ministries in our parish. After Christmas I am having a staff / volunteer appreciation dinner as a way to thank all our volunteers and to enjoy some festive time together. If you are a volunteer and didn't receive an email or invite, our apologies as we continue to work on our data base, please let us at the office know if you would like to come.

The parish is the people, our facilities serve you the people. We are truly blessed to have two beautiful Churches and halls. Maintaining the facilities for future generations is a high priority of mine. A word of thanks to everyone who helps make that possible. As our "Disciples in Mission" initiative continues to move forward, I have every reason to trust that God will bless our work and increase our parish, His flock. Advent is truly a season of hopeful expectation. A time when we prepare our hearts and minds, (and homes), to celebrate the birth of the Lord. The world need not fear, a savior has been born. Let us always keep Christ in Christmas, and Christ in our hearts, every day of the year. One of my favorite Christmas customs, is to watch at least one or two of the classic "A Christmas Carol" movies. There are many great ones. Even Mr. Magoo made a great one for kids. Let us celebrate Him through whom all things were made, the child of Bethlehem. A blessed Advent to all – Fr. Martin

Thank you to those who ordered:

My Grandma's of NE Coffee Cakes

In support of the Mission Trip, They can be picked up on December 15th 10am—12 noon at St. Thomas Aquinas Hall. Please call Donna or Jack McCourt @ 617-471-7563 with any questions.
