Thank you to the many people who have sent in donations to keep us going at this difficult time !

God bless you all!

My prayers are with you all, especially those who are struggling during these challenging times. I can be reached at the rectory: 617-479-9200 ext 304 —Fr. Martin

I thank you for your patience and cooperation with all the new Regulations that are now in place. We are doing our best to provide the safest space possible. No amount of precautions are 100% effective so we recommend those who are most vulnerable to use prudence to stay safe.

A word of thanks to everyone who continues to support the parish at this difficult time. Peace and Blessing to all—Fr. Martin

From the Pastor

Easter season is upon us, how quickly the seasons come and go. Our Lord appeared to his disciples for 40 days after the resurrection. On Ascension Thursday He ascended to the Father and ten days later He sent the promised Advocate, the Holy Spirit upon the Church. At this time of year we reflect upon the appearances of Jesus after the resurrection. Today's gospel tells us of how Jesus opened their minds to the scriptures, all the Hebrew texts that predicted what would happen. How Jesus fulfills the sacred scriptures by his suffering and death, for the forgiveness of sins. By His Holy Cross, He has redeemed the world.

We have much to celebrate!

Sadly much of the "world" seems to be moving away from the faith and the truths of salvation. Much of mankind is turning its back on God. Secular humanism would like to see government replace God, as the solution to humanity's problems.

Voices are being silenced, and many are left wondering what to believe.

There is much uncertainty in the world. Much fear mongering. As Christians, we know we have nothing to fear, except offending God. Our faith will get us through whatever challenges come our way.

In these uncertain times, it is wise to hope for the best and plan for the worst. I am a firm believer in keeping our pantries well stocked in case we should find ourselves in a time of shortages once again.

Our dependence should be on God, not on government. Wisdom and prudence are two virtues that will serve us well in these challenging unprecedented times. Our challenge, is to be like the early church- lights in the darkness- a resurrection people of hope and joy, even amidst terrible challenges. Saints keep the joy of the gospel in their hearts, even when put to the test. God has a plan, and it is for the good of the world and salvation of souls.

Our eyes should be fixed on heaven, and helping others to get there.

There is joy in serving the Lord, and in loving our neighbor, we can all be a beacon of hope, light, peace and even joy, when we are in right relationship with the Lord. If we are not, confession is the remedy. We know the way, Jesus Christ.—the way the truth and the life. +

New “Accessibility” Project

A lot of progress is being made on our accessibility improvements at both churches. A word of thanks to all who have supported the project.

Also a word of thanks to those who have responded generously to this new project!

Special COLLECTIONS

Catholic Appeal

Each year there is a campaign in every parish in support of central ministries which are vital to life of every parish and the Archdiocese as a whole.

I am very grateful to all those who have contributed to this worthy cause. Every parish is assessed a percentage of their offertory to support central ministries. Every year we have reached our goal.

At this point, we have collected over $13,467 in pledges towards are goal of $22,000 (59%). If you have not yet given to the Appeal, please consider supporting our church in this important fund drive.
Envelopes are available at the back of the churches
and donations can also be made online:

Formed

A great new resource for our parish!

During this time of social distancing, it is difficult to have programs of faith formation in our parish. This great resource makes many great Catholic videos available to you online at no cost to you! As a parish we have a subscription for our entire parish.

Please take advantage of this resource. There are many great movies and documentaries, as well as books to listen to.

To sign up and log in it is very simple:

1. Visit FORMED.org
2. Click Sign Up (or “sign in” after you
sign up
3. Select “I Belong to a Parish or Organization”
4. Find Holy Trinity Parish by entering name, address, or zip code
5. Enter your email - and you’re in!

I would like to recommend watching the series on the Eucharist called: “Presence”

We started watching this series as a community when the pandemic broke out. Now you can watch the complete series on your computer or smart tv.

Prayer to St. Joseph

(During Year of St. Joseph -by Pope Leo XIII 1889)

To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation,
and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse,
we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God
and through the paternal love
with which you embraced the Child Jesus,
we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance
which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;

O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;

O our most mighty protector, be kind to us
and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril,
so now protect God's Holy Church
from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;
shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness,
and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen.
