A Message from Fr. Martin

Tempest fugit, time flies. Hard to believe that the Christmas season has ended and now we return to what is called “ordinary time” with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The time from Jesus’ birth, until his baptism by John, we call “the hidden years,” we know little about them except for the birth narratives and the finding of Jesus in the Temple at age twelve. These thirty years were spent in the ordinary things of life, scripture says, Jesus was obedient to Joseph and Mary, a good son. However, today’s feast marks the end of the “hidden years” and the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. At age 30, Jesus can be a teacher, a Rabbi. His status in the community shifts from devout Jew, to Messiah, teacher, healer, and savior. Jesus worked many signs and wonders that point to who He truly is: The Son of God.

Jesus is baptized by John to fulfill all righteousness, and to give us an example to follow. Later he would institute a new baptism, one that he would require his followers to undergo in order to be his disciples. I was blessed to be at the spot where Jesus was baptized by John, in the river Jordan, the border between Israel and Jordan and the same place where Elijah crossed the Jordan in the 9th century BC, still a deserted place in many ways.

As we recall Jesus’ baptism it is an appropriate time to reflect on our own baptism and our journey with the Lord, beginning in the waters of baptism and ending with eternal life in heaven, if we choose to follow the Lord, who has shown us the way, and the way is Jesus himself. Increasingly rejected by the world, but for those who have faith, he gives meaning and hope during times of darkness.

May His light shine brightly in your hearts during this “ordinary time” we are entering into, a time far from ordinary, between the end of the Christmas season, and the beginning of Lent, which this year is on March 2, Ash Wednesday. Christ is with us, in all the ordinary and not so ordinary events of life, present in His Word and Sacraments and in all the baptized.

Blessings to all – Fr. Martin +

Saint of the Week

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

GOSPEL &

When you were baptized, a priest sprinkled holy water over your head. He said, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." God said, "This is my child in whom I am well pleased." Tell God you are glad you are his child. Tell him you will obey his laws. Tell him that you love him with your whole heart, soul, body, and mind.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, I want to be a good child of God.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will talk to God when I first wake up each morning.
