From the Pastor

Our gospel reading this weekend has two important themes: humility and charity. We all know that arrogant proud people are not as easy to get along with as are humble people. It is a virtue worth cultivating. In fact Jesus turns contemporary thinking upside down, saying: humble yourself and you will be exalted.

God rewards humility. Inviting guests who can’t pay back the invitation, or giving to those who can’t pay back will be rewarded by God at the resurrection of the dead. Reminding us of the recent theme to store up treasure that will last in heaven. None of us wants to go to God empty handed, when we go to God we bring our faith, and how we lived it, as well as all our good works, corporal and spiritual. These are the treasures we built up in heaven. Every Holy Communion we receive elevates our “spiritual” status because it increases Christ in us, especially if we are open to the working of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

September is upon us, hard to believe. I find the months fly by like weeks, and weeks like days. There is no shortage of things to pray about in our troubled world, so let us get to work!

The “Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary” over evil will come about when enough of us pray, especially powerful are the Holy Mass and the rosary, with these our Lady says we can bring peace to our world. Perhaps our prayers will open the gates for the hundreds of trucks waiting to bring food, water and medicine to the starving Palestinian people in Gaza. The oldest catholic parish in the world is located there, a small community with several religious sisters also serving it. They have also been targeted.

Peace is possible, there is hope, what is needed is a love of truth, and an end to prejudice and greed. Real and true Christianity is the solution to the world’s problems. Jesus came that we might have life and have it to the full. In the end, Jesus and Mary will triumph and evil will be overcome. We must never underestimate the power of our prayers, especially the Holy Mass, where heaven touches down on earth and we receive the living God, Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth and the Life. The hope of the world. +
