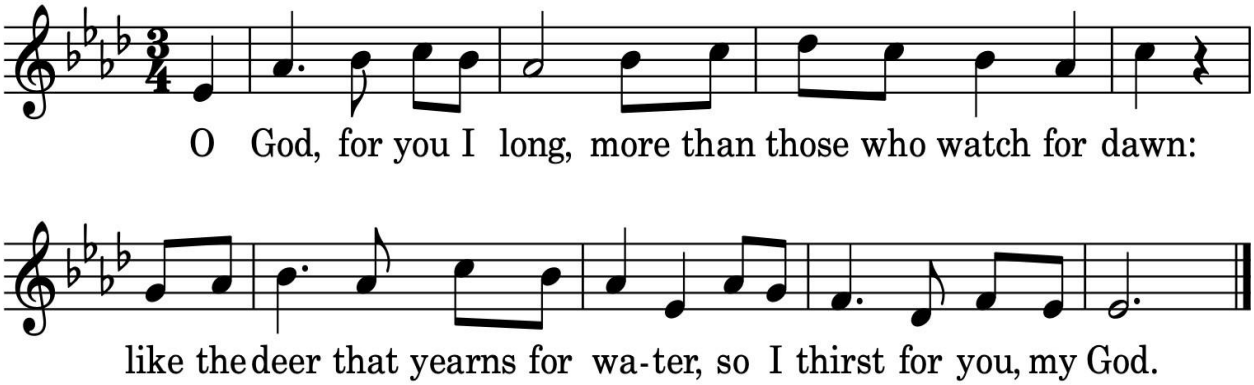
Psalm 42: O God, For You I Long



Verses

1. Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so I long for you, my God, as my spirit longs to behold, the God of my life.

2. By day you bring me comfort in the shelter of your love.
   By night I will sing and praise
   the God of my life.

3. All these things will I remember as I pour out my soul, how I would lead the rejoicing crowd to the house of our God.
