GOALS

- To know God in Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit
- To understand how the Sacraments help us practice the faith
- To come closer to Christ through devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- To reinforce the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and the teachings of the Church
- To better understand the different states/vocations in life from the witness of others
- To prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation and a life of faithful witness to Christ and his Church

The Pflaum Gifted with the Spirit Confirmation series begin with the call to prayer, cover Catholic tradition clearly and in depth, include a Scripture search to strengthen biblical connections, and offer lively activities to keep young minds engaged. A Called to Serve feature suggests works of mercy or justice the young people can perform to serve others outside of their class sessions. A recall to prayer provides a reflective closure.

Lesson Elements

Each of the following lessons of Gifted with the Spirit begins and ends with prayer. Each lesson includes hands-on Bible activities to help the young people develop greater familiarity and comfort with Scripture. Lessons also include a Catholic Literacy feature, definition of faith words, journaling opportunities, individual and group activities that invite the young people to consider ways to put their faith into action, and suggestions for service.
