ON THE 14TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"Come to me all you who are burdened and labored; I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

~ Matthew 11: 28-30

During Ordinary Time, we often find ourselves weary, worn-out, and sometimes sleep-deprived. We try to do everything by ourselves. No wonder dark circles surround our eyes. Where is the joy in this kind of living?

Jesus gives us the freedom of joy through the Body of Christ here at Mass. Jesus is present to us in the sacrifice of the Mass, in the presider, and in the Scripture's proclamation. Look to the left and the right in the church and we can see Jesus present in the assembly. Through communal prayer and song, we join with the angels, saints, and heavenly hosts who have gone before us. Our burdens become lighter when we receive the Sacrament of Eucharist.

It may not happen instantly, but thank God that we are living in His time and not ours. Thank God that in His divine wisdom, he gave us the gifts of community and Eucharist to make our lives complete.

Jesus shares the burdens with us. What a wonderful and awesome love he has for us, a love that will live "forever and ever. Amen."

~ Tim McManus

Pastoral Associate of Worship

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Pulling weeds for a whole day all by oneself is a wearisome thing. But working side-by-side with a good friend considerably lessens the weariness. Life lays on us many burdens, which our own selfish tendencies make doubly hard. Jesus Christ wants to bear them with us, soften them with his wise humility, walking by our side as the best of friends.

~The Better Part, A Flash of Joy

YOU CAN UNDERSTAND THE BIBLE

If you want a better understanding of our faith and a deeper relationship with God, then you should join us for The Bible Timeline Study, beginning in August. By joining this study, you will not only benefit personally, but you will also help bring about a profound renewal in our parish as we all grow closer to Christ.

The Bible Timeline is a Catholic Bible study that can help anyone make sense of the Bible and experience the life-changing power of God's Word. The study takes you on a journey through the entire Bible and brings you deep into each period of salvation history so that you can discover the amazing story woven throughout all of Scripture.

The study will include a series of 24 videos presented by Jeff Cavins. Each video will be preceded by a lively discussion. Everyone who participates will purchase The Bible Timeline Study Kit.

You may choose between Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings. The first classes are August 22 at 7 p.m. and August 23 at 9:45 a.m.
