RCIA: Pray with Us

for an increase in candidates and catechumens

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of faith and for the Catholic Church.

We pray for those You are calling to Yourself. May all in our community open their hearts to the fullness of Your love. May they seek out a greater understanding of You through us. May our parish of St. Alphonsus Liguori be a light to others and become a spiritual home for all.

O blessed apostle, St. Paul, greatest of all converts, who labored unceasingly for the conversion of other souls, inspire us with the ardor of your zeal that we may pray and work for the conversion of our brethren, redeemed in the blood of Christ but not as yet blessed with the full light of his truth.

Please send to us, according to your divine will, O Lord, souls whom you have called, and send your Holy Spirit to work through us to set all of our hearts afire for Your Kingdom.

We ask this through Your Son Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life for all. Amen.

First Friday Adoration

July 5, 9:30 AM - July 6, 7:30 AM

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, had an apparition of Jesus who told her, "I have a burning thirst to be honored by men in the Blessed Sacrament."

You can do this in the Day Chapel on the First Friday of every month. Jesus wants to be with you and gaze lovingly upon you. All you have to do is show up!

WORSHIP

Liturgy and Life

by Tim McManus, Pastoral Associate of Worship

I have an app on my laptop and mobile device that manages my list of tasks to accomplish daily, weekly, monthly, and yearly. It's very handy. It syncs all my devices so that I'm always on top of my game. There is only one problem: I have difficulty distinguishing which tasks are more important than others. If I'm not mindful, all tasks have the same importance and are executed in the order received. Much like a person with color blindness who can't distinguish colors, I can't distinguish priority. Call it priority blindness.

The three people that Jesus encountered in today's Gospel suffered from priority blindness. They each told Jesus they had more important things to do before they could follow him. As a result, they missed their chance to follow the Savior and perhaps risked their own salvation. Jesus offers all his disciples eternal life, but we have to offer ourselves and our will unconditionally to him.

How do we compensate for priority blindness? We have to keep recalling the Christian Vision Statement. And we have to absorb it until it's imbued in our souls - that vision of heaven. We have to carry that heavenly vision of paradise and the never-ending love of the Triune God. When we have this vision, then we can begin to place the proper priority on all the tasks we do. Prayer, sacraments, and worship are certainly at the top of the list.

The opening prayer for Mass, which we call the Collect "collects" all the prayers each of us brings with us to worship. In the Collect assigned to the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we pray for God's help to overcome blindness.

O God, who through the grace of adoption choose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

What is the highest priority daily task to have on the cool app from now on? God, what do you want me to do? Help me see the path that you want me to follow.

SGLs for the WIN!

In Youth Ministry, our Big Win is to see youth dare to engage their faith and stand as witnesses. To accomplish this Big Win takes more than just a youth minister.

In a world where personal relationships are key, we need a whole team of adults willing to be Small Group Leaders (SGLs) and, over time, invest in the lives of a few to cultivate the fruit of this Big Win.

Here is a witness from one such SGL:

"I have been involved in youth ministry off and on for the past 15 years. This coming year will be my third consistent year. I, like most volunteers, became involved as my children were involved. My children are grown and graduated from youth ministry but I continue to volunteer. Why you might ask? I realize that the youth of St. Alphonsus are the future of our Church, and it is such a rewarding experience to be involved. You do not need a master's degree in theology, to volunteer; all that is required is a desire to share your faith, a love of young people and a love of Jesus.

I challenge each of you to pray and see if youth ministry may be what Jesus is calling you to do. Please answer that call and become involved - you will touch many lives.

~ Kathy Gibson

Please email Billy Thompson if you are interested: wthompson@zionsvillecatholic.com.

We only need 6 more players to put a game on the calendar.

We're looking for a group of volunteers (men or women) to learn how to put up and take down the Easter bunting.

We're looking for people to help teach or promote Natural Family Planning (NFP) in our area. Learning to teach or promote NFP is easier than you might think!

Consider helping to spread the Good News about NFP. For more information contact Susan Hoefer, Diocesan NFP Coordinator, 765-421-1998 or shoefer@dol-in.org.
