LITURGICAL MINISTRY: SO WHAT?

Saturday, September 21 | 9:00 am - Noon

You are invited to spend a morning with guest speaker Emily Strand to learn what it truly means to be a Liturgical Minister, and to understand the significance of this role.

Emily is author of Mass 101: Liturgy and Life, Your Baby's Baptism and numerous articles on pastoral liturgy. She served as Campus Minister and Director of Liturgy at the University of Dayton from 2004-2011 and has taught religion and liturgy on the collegiate level for over 15 years. She speaks at parishes, conferences and festivals about liturgy, sacraments, and the theology of popular entertainment. Emily serves her home diocese of Columbus, Ohio, as a Master Catechist and her parish as a lector, music minister and parish council member.

DIOCESAN RED MASS

Monday, October 7 | 5:30 PM

All attorneys and their spouses are invited to a Mass with Bishop Doherty, followed by dinner and a presentation by U.S. District Judge and St. Alphonsus parishioner, James Patrick Hanlon.

The Red Mass is a tradition in the Catholic Church which dates back to the 13th century. The first Red Mass is believed to have been celebrated in the Cathedral of Paris in 1245, and thereafter the tradition spread throughout Europe.

The word "red" was originally used to describe the Mass in 1310, because the justices of the English Supreme Court wore scarlet robes. Over time the "Red" Mass came to have a deeper theological meaning, with red symbolizing the "tongues of fire" that descended upon the Apostles at Pentecost bestowing the gifts of the Spirit.

LITURGY AND LIFE

by Tim McManus, Pastoral Associate of Worship

Anyone driving the roads around the Indianapolis area this summer have experienced unseemly unprecedented road construction. Every other week, one section of interstate closes as another reopens. And then the cycle repeats. Getting lost is now much easier when encountering the detours. Don't get me wrong; for as much driving as I do, new road surfaces are much welcomed. I am grateful for the "map apps" on my mobile phone that continually search for the best way to my destination.

The Gospel today has three parables that Jesus tells the Pharisees and scribes. They complain that Jesus welcomes and eats with sinners. Each one is about someone searching for something precious that has been lost. The shepherd searching for the lost sheep, the widow searching for the lost coin, and the Prodigal Son searching for his lost way back to his father.

Parables are stories with many possible meanings. The early Christians would have understood that the Prodigal Son represents the Gentiles, and the older brother, the observant Jews. The father represents God the Father who shows abundant mercy to his wayward son and empathy to his faithful, albeit angry, son.

Faith is a precious gift from God that we sometimes lose in our pilgrimage through life. Perhaps there are those who were never taught the commandments that are searching for faith. Maybe some of us turned away from faith in God, lured by the ways of the world. Regardless, we have to do the searching to find our faith which shows us the way to the Father. And once faith is found, we hold onto it tightly by practicing our Catholic faith.

Last Sunday, the process we call the Rites of Christian Initiation resumed at Saint Alphonsus with a total of eight people in search of faith in God within the Catholic Church. These ancient rites celebrate key milestones in the faith journey of our newly found brothers and sisters. But they do not travel alone. All of us, the entire parish, walk with them. Not only will they learn from us, but we will learn from them as we journey together.

The "map app" God gives us is his Word and Sacrament. It is this grace that guides our navigation through life, searching to find our final destination - the New Jerusalem.

What if you could give your kids all three options in one?
