LITURGY AND WORSHIP

New Mass Time

Starting with the first weekend of Advent, November 29/30, the Saturday evening vigil Mass will move from 5:30 pm to 4:30 pm. This new time will remain in place moving forward.

Additionally, Saturday Confessions will move back to 3:30 pm.

This change comes about in response to the parishioner survey that was completed earlier this year.

It means our elderly parishioners will no longer have to drive home from Mass in the dark, and families with children will have more time to prepare and serve dinner.

Wednesday Evening Adoration

For one hour following 6:00 pm Mass on Wednesday, you are invited to spend time in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Incense at Mass & Rosary Before Mass

Sunday, November 15 @ 5 pm | Sunday, November 22 @ 8 am

Confession Times

Wednesdays @ 6:30 pm | Saturdays @ 4:30 pm || By appointment

When Attending Mass...

- Please keep in mind that masks must be worn at all Masses.
- Social distancing remains in place at the Saturday vigil Mass.
- The Saturday vigil Mass is earmarked for the elderly and vulnerable.

"With the end of the election and the holiday season ahead, now is a good time to pray for healing of divisions within families, between neighbors, in our nation, and for the world.

We cannot control the choices that others make, but we can control our own choices and responses. May we choose to be instruments of charity and healing."

- Fr. Travis

All 5th grade students and older are invited to join our team of altar servers!

PARISHIONER UPDATE

A Change of Habit

A couple months ago, the Green Family traveled to extreme northern Michigan to visit St. Alphonsus parishioner Jared Bankert at the Ukrainian Byzantine monastery near Eagle Harbor. As part of the investiture ceremony, Jared received a head shave, the habit of the order, and a new name. He is now Brother Thomas.

"Most of his family traveled up there from Zionsville, so there was a pretty big crowd in that small chapel. It was a beautiful thing to witness," said Ann Green.
