ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

A PASTORATE OF THE DIOCESE OF LAFAYETTE-IN-INDIANA

SUNDAY, JANUARY 17, 2021

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher— "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

Incense and Rosary Before Mass

Sunday, Jan. 17 @ 8:00 am | Sunday, Jan. 24 @ 10:30 am

NEXT WEEKEND...

Blessing of Readers

During all Masses on the weekend of January 23/24, there will be a blessing of all liturgical readers.

“When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel. Therefore, the readings from the Word of God are to be listened to reverently by everyone, for they are an element of the greatest importance in the Liturgy.”

—GIRM, no 29

Learn Why We Do What We Do

Attendance at the Mass in Slow Motion covers your Sunday obligation. Please join us to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Rose Procession

Sunday, January 24 | 10:30 am

This annual event honors the children whose lives have been taken as well as the men and women who have suffered from the effects of abortion over the last 47 years.

One person represents each year between 1973 and 2021 by placing a small white cross and a rose on the altar during Mass. It is a very touching ceremony.

Sign up to participate at bit.ly/SALRoseProcession2021.

COMING UP...

Blessing of Candles

Tuesday, February 2 | 9:00 am Mass

You are invited to bring your candles from home to be blessed by the priest.

Blessing of Throats

Wednesday, February 3 | 6:00 pm Mass

This is the ONLY Mass that will include the blessing, so please mark your calendar accordingly.

In Charity to Our Neighbors

During this pandemic, we ask that you please refrain from receiving the Eucharist on the tongue. If you feel you must receive on the tongue, please line up at the end of the communion line in the center, main aisle to be the last to receive the sacrament from the Eucharistic Minister.

Thank you for this consideration.

OUTREACH

Thank You!

Dear Saint Alphonsus Liguori
Catholic Church and Community,

Thank you for your generous donation of new clothing, gifts, and FUN PAKS. This made a difference for 161 teens in Boone County.

Parents were very grateful for the great selection and shared with us their gratitude to the Community.

Many things bring people to the Caring Center. Some donate, others volunteer, and many come in need of services. Every day is different, and we never know what is next.

We are excited that our food pantry has more storage capabilities with our new layout. This allows us to serve our neighbors better than ever. We could not reach the community like we do without you. We, and those we serve, thank you again for your generosity!

Sincerely,

Theresa Hanners
Executive Director

BEFORE EACH MASS & 10 TO 4

ITEMS REQUESTED:

APPLE JUICE	PINEAPPLE
APPLE SAUCE	SPINACH
CHILI BEANS	OIL
TOMATO JUICE
SALTINE CRACKERS
DISINFECTING WIPES

Many Hands Make Light Work

Even during these times, we are blessed! Please share your time and bless others by spending an hour or two helping out at our next food drive. Better yet, sign up with your family or ask a friend to join you.

Help us help others! Sign up at: www.SALMonthlyFoodDrive.

Blood Drive Update

“We had a nearly packed appointment schedule - some volunteers canceled and others stepped up to fill the void. A few people stopped by without an appointment to see if they could help out, too. It's refreshing to see how many people are willing to lend a helping hand if given the opportunity.” — Ed Endejean, Blood Drive Coordinator

Uniting in Heart

“Chipping Away” by Fr. Sean Pogue from the Dec. 13th edition of The Catholic Moment

I am a new missionary pastor. While I spent a year as a parochial administrator in one of my previous assignments, I think this is different. The diocese is undergoing a process of conversion and change, in order for each pastorate - and each individual - to be led into a deeper experience of Christ and his saving mission, and to share the Gospel with others.

The word “evangelization” is still foreign to many Catholics, and the very word itself conjures up images of knocking on unsuspecting peoples’ doors, trying to convince them to “join us.” While there is some truth to this image, as I am sure many of us have experienced the “knock,” this is not what we are talking about in Uniting in Heart.

The vision of Uniting in Heart is to share the Good News, the Gospel, the saving work of Jesus Christ, with the world, and we do that one person at a time, one relationship at a time, one conversation about God at a time. Many people think that evangelization and Church-growth are one and the same. They are not. While we want to see the Church grow in numbers, we need to see the Church grow in depth of spirituality. When we speak of evangelization, we need to evangelize ourselves first. We cannot give what we do not have. Ultimately, our hope is that as people hear the Good News, they will find its fulfillment with us in the Catholic Church.

It takes a while to change a culture, and we have to chip away at it as if we were digging a tunnel. I am confident that with patience and time we will all see the fruit of our labors if we use the right tools and we tunnel in the correct direction. We need to use the saving message of Jesus Christ to chip away at the indifference and cynicism in our hearts. Eventually we’ll reach the other side to eternal life with Christ.
