Recognizing God in Ordinary Moments

YOU DON'T HAVE WHAT IT TAKES - BUT YOU WILL

God doesn't call the equipped. He equips the called.

We all know that sort of queasy feeling we get in the pit of our stomachs when it becomes clear what we're supposed to do, in any situation. It's that feeling of: Oh, no. Not me. Not now. I can't.

We've got our lists of reasons why not, don't we? From big life problems to small everyday choices. I'm not going to invite my neighbor to church because I don't want to come across as pushy. I'm not going to make amends with my cousin because she'll walk all over me again. I'm not going to say a Rosary tonight because I'm tired.

However, even if we put our lists of "reasons why we can't" together, I don't think any of us have reasons quite as valid as the apostles. Their job was to convert the nations - and here they are, a bunch of fishermen who haven't been out of Judea, who speak only their own language. Were they supposed to preach the Gospel via a particularly compelling game of charades?

But even that big, giant, stop-you-dead-in-your tracks "reason why we can't" was nothing, because God had a plan. He didn't call a bunch of equipped men. He called them, and He equipped them.

God doesn't call us to do His will because we have what it takes. He calls us because He's ready to give us what it takes. Being a good steward is to answer the call of Christ knowing he will provide.

St. Meinrad Parish Survey

For the past few years we have been one of 14 parishes participating in Saint Meinrad's Young Adult Initiative. Most of our work has been behind the scenes while we benefited from their funding and association, but now it is time to reflect and report on our efforts to Saint Meinrad.

All parishioners, from our youngest to our oldest, from the newest to our longest tenured, are asked to visit surveymonkey.com/r/YAIParish, and complete the short survey.

Altar Server Training

Calling all 5th graders and up!

Father Travis would like your help at Mass. It's an opportunity for leadership that will build confidence and help you grow closer to God.

One-hour training sessions are scheduled in June; choose from five different dates.

RSVP at ZionsvilleCatholic.com/altar-servers.
