

ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

Fortified by the Eucharist, we live and share the truth in charity and gratitude.

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." - Mt 10:6-8

Venerable Mother Mary Angeline, originally named Brigid Teresa McCrory, was born in Northern Ireland. When she was 19 years old, she started her novitiate in France with the Little Sisters of the Poor and took the name Sister Angeline de St. Agatha. She was sent to the United States after her final vows in 1915.

In 1926, she was appointed as Mother Superior to a home of the Little Sisters of the Poor in New York. During this time, she felt a call to expand ministry to serve the elderly. With the blessing of Cardinal Patrick Hayes, the Archbishop of New York, she and six others were granted permission by the Vatican to start a new congregation.

Established in 1929, the Carmelite Sisters for the Aged was the first American Community of sisters founded to care for the elderly; it was formally affiliated with the Carmelites in 1931. The order created homes where people could be cared for and live, both assisted and independently, in community instead of aging alone.

Mother Angeline was known for her kindness and service to the elderly. She never missed an opportunity to clasp the hand of an aged person to stress the importance of human touch.

She died on her 91st birthday in January, 1984. Her cause for sainthood was introduced in the Diocese of Albany in 1989, and Pope Benedict XVI formally acknowledged that she led a life of heroic virtue, declaring her Venerable.

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOR JUNE 18, 2023: THE 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

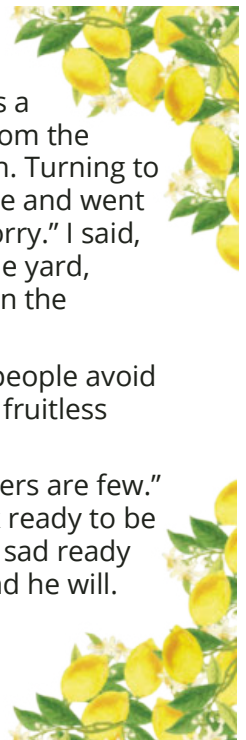

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree that produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring, I needed some lemons for dinner. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging on every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob, who was sitting on the couch, I said, "Could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and went into the backyard. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think the culture is spiraling, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. Let's ask the Lord to send laborers to work. And he will. He might send you and me.
