Father Francis Xavier Seelos was born in 1819 in modern-day Germany. His parents instilled in him and his 11 siblings a deep faith and a desire to serve the Lord. He joined the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, known as the Redemptorists, in 1842, and was ordained to the priesthood two years later.

In 1849, Fr. Seelos volunteered to go to the United States, where the Redemptorists had established a mission. He arrived in New York City and was struck by the poverty he saw in the slums. He decided to dedicate his life to the service of the poor and spent years ministering to the Redemptorists communities around the United States.

Fr. Seelos became known for his gentle nature, deep spirituality, and dedication to the needy. He was also known for his powerful preaching and charisma. One of his most important contributions to the Church was his work among the black communities. At a time when racial prejudice was rampant, he made a special effort to minister to his black neighbors, often putting himself at risk.

In 1867, Fr. Seelos contracted yellow fever while ministering to the sick in New Orleans. He died just a few days later at the age of 48. His death was mourned by people across the USA. He was beatified by Pope John Paul II on April 9, 2000.

Some responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Create and sustain a program to connect parishioners to volunteer and engagement opportunities.
- Create an annual Stewardship Report to the parish.
- Create and sustain strong relationships with our donors.
- Conduct and manage an annual campaign designed to increase volunteer participation and giving.

The ideal candidate has at least 3-5 years of experience with donor relations, capital campaigns, and a grasp of the stewardship fundamentals for parish life.

Candidates should submit a resume via email to sderocher@zionsvillecatholic.com.

"Hope is always possible. To those who care for the sick, the scene of the Cross provides a way of understanding that even when it seems there is nothing more to do there remains much to do, because 'remaining' by the side of the sick is a sign of love and of the hope that it contains. Healed by Jesus, we become men and women called to proclaim his healing power and provide care for our neighbors, until the very end."

Palliative Care and Hospice."

UNITING IN HEART | WHERE THE WIND BLOWS

REFLECTION FROM IAN SIMKINS, PASTOR AT THE BRIDGE CHURCH

I had a professor who started every semester with an experiment that I thought was brilliant. If you're willing, I'd love for you to give it a try.

He'd start by saying, "Class, without getting out of your seat, take 15 seconds and notice everything in the room that is red."

He would then have us close our eyes and say, "Okay, now I want you to list everything in the room that is blue."

At this point, the whole class, year after year, would let out a frustrated groan. Every time. If you're playing along at home, you might be doing the same.

But his point was one I've never forgotten:

He'd say something like:

"Some of you are so convinced that God only works in RED that you're missing all the ways He's moving in BLUE."

(To read the entirety of this reflection, visit bit.ly/3QbqeyL.)

MEET THE CANDIDATES AND CATECHUMENS!

Until they enter the Church, we will feature candidates and catechumens who are in discernment and participating in the RCIA process. Please pray for them, their sponsors, and their families!

Amy Duarte was born in a Muslim country to a Buddhist family (on her grandfather's side) and a Protestant mother. She attended a Hindu school growing up. In the midst of interfaith experiences, Amy felt the most at home with the Catholic faith and has been a part of SAL for the past eight years. She feels God's presence the most at SAL and wants to develop a closer relationship with him.

If you are a candidate or a catechumen and would like to submit your story to be featured, email Christina Steele at adultformation@zionsvillecatholic.com.
