1828-1898

St. Charbel was born Joseph Zaroun Maklout in the Lebanese mountain village of Beka-Kafra, the youngest of five children. When he was only three years old, his father died. As a child, he took care of the family cow and spent much of his time in the countryside in quiet contemplation. In fact, he was so pious the villagers called him "the saint."

Against the wishes of his mother and uncle, he left home in 1851 and traveled to the Maronite Monastery of Our Lady of Mayfouk to join the monks there. He chose the name Charbel (or Sharbel) in honor of a second century martyr.

In 1853, Charbel joined the Monastery of St. Maron at Annaya where he professed his final vows and was ordained in 1859.

He lived and worked at the monastery until 1875 when he requested to live as a hermit like his maternal uncles. Initially denied the request, he was granted permission after the lamp in his cell miraculously burned for hours without oil. In his life as a hermit, Charbel practiced severe bodily mortifications, eating and sleeping little, wearing a hair shirt, and sleeping on the hard ground. He performed many miraculous works in his lifetime, was renowned for healing, casting out demons, and levitating during prayer.

Charbel had a deep personal love of God's Eucharistic presence, and it was while he was saying Mass at the age of 70, as he held up the host, that he suffered a stroke and died several days later. Pope Paul VI beatified Charbel in 1965 and canonized him 12 years later.

He is the patron of Lebanon.

St. Charbel Maklout, pray for us!

HEART OF A PARISH

Stewardship Prayer

Generous and loving God you call us to be disciples of your Son Jesus and good stewards of all your many gifts.

Open our minds and hearts to a greater awareness and deeper appreciation of your countless blessings.

Transform us through the power of your Spirit

to nurture a Stewardship way of life
marked by faith-filled prayer, service to our neighbor,
and generous sharing.

Teach us to be faithful servants of your gifts.

With Mary's help, may we return tenfold

the gifts entrusted to us.

We pray through Christ,
our Lord. Amen.

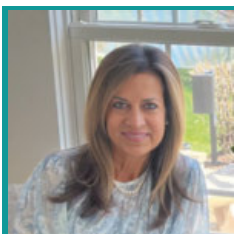

Everyday Stewardship

We can easily feel obligated to attend a party, wedding, or other event that we find ourselves invited to as a guest. If we want to go, then we get dressed up and rush off with anticipation of fun and good times with friends. If we dread going, we get ourselves together slowly and arrive late, hoping that the event will not be so long and we can then get on with the rest of our day. The difference in our feelings may have to do with many aspects: the host, the attendees, the reason for celebration, or even the venue. Either way, the invitation has been given to us because someone feels that our presence would make a positive difference. Our response is entirely our own. We decide how we will answer the invitation.

Every Sunday, every day in fact, you and I have received an invitation to a banquet more celebratory and grander than any wedding or birthday party. The host is actually Jesus Christ himself, and he has prepared a feast that promises to satisfy. He has prepared for this event by giving all he has to give. No host has ever been more gracious. His hope is that you will be happy to attend for your presence does make a tremendous difference. Would he invite you if attending made no difference at all? Will you RSVP with a sense of joy and anticipation? If this is just another invite that obligates you and you approach the event with indifference, the host wonders if you really comprehend what he went through to make this meal possible. He also wonders if you really understand what is truly being celebrated. --Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS @LPI

UPCOMING EVENTS & PROGRAMS

MENTAL WELLNESS CONSULTATIONS Sept. 13

Dr. Aura Deschamps is a licensed psychologist with over 30 years of clinical experience. Dr. Aura is a parishioner at St. Alphonsus Liguori, and as a faithful Catholic, integrates her faith into the treatment of her patients, seeking the wisdom of the Holy Spirit to guide her work of healing mind and soul.

Please scan in the QR code to book your consultation with Dr. Deschamps. (Limited slots available).

Please note that these are consultations only, and not therapy sessions which would require additional paperwork and consent forms.

SAL PRAYER MINISTRY

St. Alphonsus Liguori Parish now has a dedicated Prayer Ministry Team who will offer hope and healing to those in need. This is NOT a priestly blessing or a sacrament but Christians coming together in prayer.

The team will be available the 1st weekend of every month at the following times:

Saturday, after 4:30p Mass

Sunday, after 10:30a Mass

Members of the team will wear red lanyards identifying them as the "Prayer Team." You will find them by the baptismal font.

Feel free to approach them, tell them you are in need of prayer, and they will find a private location to pray.

Your prayers are confidential.

If you would like to belong to the SAL Prayer Ministry Team, contact Christina for training & discernment:
