St. Basil the Great shares his feast day with his lifelong friend St. Gregory of Nazianzen. These accomplished men fought against heresies that threatened the foundations of the early Church.

Basil was born at Caesarea of Cappadocia to a family already deeply rooted in Christianity, going back to the time of widespread persecution in the 1st and 2nd Centuries. Following in the footsteps of his father, Basil studied in Caesarea as well as Constantinople and Athens, training in the law and rhetoric. However, his sister persuaded him to give up academia for monastic life. Before inviting Gregory to start an order with him, Basil traveled through Egypt, Palestine and Syria, visiting monasteries, learning everything he could and formulating his own ideas about monastic rule.

His time in the monastery was only five years before he was called to play a greater role in the Church. Ordained as a priest around 370 he was made bishop of Caesaria. He was passionate about caring for the poor and sick, pastoral care, and fighting against institutionalized prostitution. He would preach twice a day to large crowds, and opened a complex with a hospital, orphanage, and shelter for the poor. In addition to influential monastic rules, sermons, and doctrinal treatises, more than 300 of his letters still exist.

St. Basil the Great, pray for us!

Everyday Stewardship— Sparking Holiness

As the seasons change, a lot of us like to clean out our homes and unload some of the junk we've acquired over the summer. One trendy approach to decluttering is the Marie Kondo method, named after the author who popularized it. Overly simplified, it's a process that compels you to go through your closets, your garage, your basement — all the places you collect the dreaded "stuff." As you do so, you hold up the items and ask yourself: "Does it spark joy?"

It's a question that is bold in its simplicity. In answering, you're supposed to go with your gut. If it's a quick "Yes, it sparks joy," the item should be kept. If the answer is no, it gets tossed.

There are people in life who will support our efforts to do God's will.

There are those who will, as Paul says, "convince, reprimand, (and) encourage," unafraid of the reaction we give them.

There are those who will shore up our defenses when the battle goes longer than we thought. The same goes for hobbies and pastimes. There are those that will ennoble our minds and bring us closer to God. And there are also those that will drain our funds and our free time, with nothing to show for it. During these autumn months, don't just declutter your basement in preparation for the hauling out of the Christmas ornaments. Take stock of the people and pursuits that make up your life.

With each one, ask yourself: "Does it spark holiness?"

If the answer is yes, thank God that our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. If the answer is no, maybe it's time to declutter.

Intercessory Prayer

- How Can I Pray For You? Campaign with a focus on training to be able to pray with and for people in the moment.
- They wear shirts "How can I pray for you?" and wear them around the parish and in the community.
- The focus on intercessory prayer has had a profound impact on the community, increased their focus on one another's needs, and creating a spiritually connected parish even more significantly than before.

Impactful Liturgies

- Hiring of a full time music director and organist, increased interest in lay volunteers becoming liturgical ministers, and a liturgy committee that includes worship environment representation have strengthened our weekend Mass experience.

- Adoration hours have expanded over the past year from 15 hours a week to 65. Parishioners touched by the message of the National Eucharistic Revival and spiritual efforts of the parish continue to expand these hours by committing to being adorers.
- Founder's Day for their Patroness – Mother Seton. Large scale Mass with clergy from the past and tenured parishioners included. Dessert reception followed.

Silver Linings

- A ministry for those who are 55 and older – engaging in a whole variety of topics and ways.
- Some events: game day, pilgrimage, SoulCore, Euchre, Funeral Planning Sessions, Power of Prayer.
- A seminar/sessions to help people learn how to take their stories (especially faith) down on paper so they aren't lost.
