1850-1917

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini was born in Sant'Angelo Lodigiano, Italy, and dreamed of being a missionary. After being educated by the Daughters of the Sacred Heart, she was denied entry to the order due to poor health. She became a teacher and administrator at an orphanage run by the Sisters of Providence, where she made her vows and took the name Xavier in honor of St. Francis Xavier in 1877.

When the orphanage closed in 1880, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In 1887, she sought permission from Pope Leo XIII to go to China, but he directed her to the U.S. instead. In 1889, she and six sisters arrived in New York to serve Italian immigrants. Despite facing anti-Italian and anti-immigrant sentiment, even within the Church, she stayed and provided education and healthcare to the Italian Catholic community.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini served Italian immigrants across the U.S., becoming a citizen in 1909. She later expanded her work to Central and South America and Europe, founding hospitals, orphanages, and 67 schools. Known for her deep spirituality, she often entered a trancelike state during the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini died at her Columbus Hospital in Chicago and was canonized in 1946 by Pope Pius XII, becoming the first U.S. citizen to be canonized. She is the Universal Patron of Immigrants.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, pray for us!

HEART OF A PARISH

"Why did St. Francis of Assisi tell jokes to a flock of birds?"

"They were blue birds and he wanted to cheer them up."

St. Francis of Assisi is a beloved saint, known for his devotion to Jesus, his reform of the Church, founding the Franciscan order, and also his love of animals.

Is the Catholic Mass the Same Worldwide?

Yes and no. The essential structure of the Roman Rite Mass is consistent globally, following the Roman Missal. However, local customs, such as liturgical colors, regional saints' feasts, or processions, can vary. Even in the U.S., for example, the Solemnity of the Ascension is celebrated on different days depending on the diocese. These variations, while preserving the core of the rite, reflect the cultural richness envisioned by the Second Vatican Council.

How can a priest counsel married couples if he's never been married?

A counselor's effectiveness isn't solely based on personal experience. For example, we don't expect an oncologist to have had cancer to treat it. Priests, through their training, experience, and exposure to various relationships, are well-equipped to counsel couples. They help couples explore relationship dynamics and, with the support of married couples and trained counselors, most parishes provide excellent marriage preparation.

Everyday Stewardship— An Increase in Love

People can spend their entire lives looking for their most suitable partner. Some have an unattainable ideal in their minds that makes the search impossible. Others may choose a different partner over and over again without any real discernment, leading to a long series of breakups and heartache. Perhaps the greatest obstacle for people lies in their assumption that the most important criteria for choosing a partner is that the person they choose to love needs to be devoted to them and be faithful to them above all others. The truth is that if you want to have a suitable partner whom you find yourself drawing ever closer to as the years go by, then the focus of both people involved needs to be on a much more important being than the two of you.

When I was a teenager, I remember seeing a triangle used as a visual aid in explaining how true love works. God is the top point and the two lovers, friends, or family members involved are the bottom points. If the two involved in the relationship love God more than each other, than in time, it will be their love for the Divine that will bring them ever closer, like how a triangle narrows at the top point.

The more I give of myself to my God, the greater I find my love is for my wife, my children, and my friends. A stewardship way of life will eventually strengthen all our relationships, for a surrender to the One who is love means an increase in the love we have to give to others. For those who continue to search for the "one," pause, pay attention, and see the One who has always loved you and will do so forevermore.

UPCOMING EVENTS & PROGRAMS

Love Life Challenge : Week 3

Here are suggestions to inspire you to show love in a new way.

- Smile and offer a compliment
- Help a neighbor with groceries
- Volunteer at a shelter or nonprofit
- Cook a meal for a family with a new baby or for someone who is sick or out of work
- Learn the name of a person who is on death row and pray for them
- Pray about becoming a foster family
- Talk to a stranger in public
- Take home the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe and pray for the sanctity of life

Once you've completed your act of love, place a red heart in the chalice in the narthex for each act of love you complete! Together, may we unite our efforts with Jesus' sacrifice and pour out grace on the world!

GATHERING

All Women Welcome!
Tuesday, Oct 29th
7-9 PM

In the church

St. Alphonsus of Liguori Catholic Church
1870 W. Oak St. Zionsville, IN 46077

I am a mom of ten. My oldest son is a priest. I should have it all together, right? Not even close. I have struggled for most of my life comparing my flaws to the perfection of other women. These women had matching shoes and purses while I felt excited just to find my shoes. Other women were immaculately dressed while I couldn't seem to leave the house without toddler boogers or baby spit up on my shoulder. I once spent an entire day thinking I was looking pretty good, to only later realize my pants were covered in Nutella. I literally looked like I was covered in poop. Poop, snot, and baby vomit seemed to be my identifying characteristics. The evil one told me I needed to work harder to be like these other women. They are perfect and glamorous, and I need to become them. But the harder I worked the more exhausted, lonely, and sadder I became. I allowed the evil one to steal my peace and joy because I listened to him telling me to despise my design.

"Consider the wildflowers, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; but I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these." Luke 12:27

I was praying with this scripture verse and the word that stood out to me was wildflowers. Why? What would God want to tell me about wildflowers. He must know that I love roses. I love their perfection, their beauty, and even how the thorns surrounding them seem to heighten their glamour. Roses are my thing. If I was a flower, I would want to be a rose. I kept praying with this verse and I had this mental image of this garden in the middle of a field. This garden was filled with beautiful flowers of every kind mixed with weeds. It was stunning and a little messy and it was exactly how God desired it. He formed each one and He loved each one. Then God showed me this wild droopy purple flower within that garden, and I knew that was me. I was not meant to be a rose. I was meant to be a beautiful wildflower. His design of me was perfect . . . perfectly messy.

God created each of us unique and beautiful. Kingdom Builders is an apostolate that was born out of the desire for all women to know their beauty, worth, and authority as a beloved daughter of the King. That knowledge only comes from a deep encounter with Jesus Christ.

Kingdom Builders raises up seven women in a Catholic Parish to host a monthly Eucharistic event. At this event (called a Gathering), we begin with a Teaching that incorporates the Sunday Scriptures. It includes laughter, learning, and real-life application for any woman's life. We conclude with Eucharistic Adoration laced with silence and music. This gives our mothers, sisters, and daughters time in the gaze of our Lord . . . to know how beloved they are to Him.

My sisters ~ God created us for communion and community. Come join us at St. Alphonsus on Tuesday, October 29th from 7-9 PM to experience the power of women coming together in worship. All women are welcome and invited. Come and see what the Holy Spirit desires for you and the women of your parish!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear St Als-Catholic Charities,

Thank you for your Grant donation of $7,500.00 for Holiday Food. I am so thankful to be a part of this wonderful organization! Working with such kind people, and to live in a community that cares is such a blessing. With your help, we provide food, clothing, and assistance with additional services to individuals who need a little extra help in Boone County.

We are very excited to share with you what we did in 2023 and the impact that it had on people's lives.

- Distributed 52 tons of donated food plus purchased food of $21,000.00.
- An average of 240 families served monthly on-site.
- 200 families served at the drive-through pantry.
- 206 families participated in the Holiday food distribution.
- Over 450 coats have been distributed.
- 124 teens received Christmas gifts and 98 family FUNPAKS distributed at Christmas.

Wow, we could not do this without you. The Caring Center is very thankful for this partnership.

Sincerely,
Theresa Hammers

Fruits & Blessings to be shared with the Diocese

Vocations Committee

- The pastorate prays the Serran Prayer for Vocations together before all weekend liturgies.
- A Summer Vocations Series was held over four evenings. A total of 8 speakers were invited to highlight vocations as married, single, consecrated virgin, diocesan priest, deacon, brother, religious sister, and lay apostolate. Fifty to sixty people came each evening.
- The Traveling Crucifix is given to a different parishioner each week to take home with a booklet of prayers. The family learns about a different vocation each evening and prays together for vocations.
- Seminarians were asked to complete the statement "I expected God was calling me to the priesthood when..." Their answers along with their picture was posted at each church and highlighted in the bulletin."
- The pastorate is beginning the 31 Club this Spring.

Adult Faith Formation Opportunities

- OCIA is advertised as adult faith formation, and all members of the pastorate are invited to attend the sessions. Many people come to the sessions to learn about and deepen their faith.

- A 3 Minute Catechesis is offered before Mass each weekend. The catechesis focuses on the Mass and the Eucharist. It is delivered by the celebrant in the 5 minutes before Mass. The talks are recorded and may be viewed by parishioners via the pastorate YouTube channel.
- Fr. O'Keeffe hosts a Catholic Heritage series four or five times during the year. Adults are invited to bring their own meal, come together for fellowship, and learn about a particular aspect of faith.
- The Women and the Word is a bible study on Wednesday mornings and evenings. The group reads and reflects on scripture.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

- The pastorate created dedicated space for CGS at the St. Ann's campus. It houses Level 1, 2, and 3 atriums.
- The pastorate found space for a separate Middle School room at St. Mary. Giving the young people their own area has strengthened the middle school program by engaging children.
