St. Ignatius of Antioch was a bishop of Antioch in the first century which, at the time, was the capital of Syria. One of the earliest bishops, he was a disciple of the apostle John and was a prolific writer and teacher of the early faith.

He emphasized the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, calling it the "medicine of immortality" and "the flesh of our Savior." In his seven epistles, he passionately affirmed the Eucharist's role in uniting believers with Christ and urged the faithful to uphold apostolic teachings and sacraments.

During the reign of Roman Emperor Trajan, St. Ignatius was arrested for his faith and condemned to be taken to Rome for execution. While in chains making the long journey with Roman soldiers from Syria to Rome, St. Ignatius was allowed to meet with many of the faithful and to write letters to neighboring Christian congregations. His seven epistles from this time and his conviction in the face of martyrdom served as an inspiration to many. His writings live on today as important teachings of the early Church, shedding a light into early Christian theology.

St. Ignatius was martyred in Rome's Colosseum when he was thrown to the lions and devoured. He's remembered as the patron saint of Church unity, and the Eucharist.

St. Ignatius of Antioch, pray for us!

HEART OF A PARISH

"What's a shoulder's favorite sacramental?"

"The Scapular!"

"Scapular" actually means "shoulder" in Latin. Scapulars have changed through history, now they are small pieces of wool worn between the shoulders, reminders of devotion to God.

Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

Everyday Stewardship— Eyes On Your Own Paper

"Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place."

Looking at these words, I have to wonder. Am I reading the Bible or today's newspaper headline?

It's never easier to despair than when you glance up and take a good look at what's going on in the world: disasters, natural and contrived, wars, resentments, rivalries, and divisions. It is almost too much sometimes, isn't it? The twenty-four-hour news cycle doesn't help. Add social media and it's enough to push anyone into a nervous breakdown.

When you find yourself in this place of despair, remember Paul's admonishment in his letter to the Thessalonians. Work quietly and eat your own food.

It's not so different from the old "keep-your-eyes-on-your-own-paper" rule of the classroom. Poking our noses into other people's business, we may think we are getting a shortcut to the right answer, but we're really just getting distracted. When we become too preoccupied with events that we cannot control — whether they are happening in our neighborhood or half-a-world away — we are tempted to leave off the very specific work God has given us in our own lives. We are easily lured into anger, bitterness, and anxiety.

What is the work that God has called you to? Is it your career? Your family? Your community? What is your food — what nourishes you, sustains you, connects you to something real, powerful, and life-giving? This is what you should be concerned with. This is where your thoughts and your efforts should be.

Work quietly and eat your own food

UPCOMING EVENTS & PROGRAMS

Love Life Challenge : Week 4

Here are suggestions to inspire you to show love in a new way.

- Leave a generous tip
- Offer to babysit for a young couple
- Tell family members that you love and appreciate them
- Listen to a person who is having a hard day and don't interrupt with your problems
- Learn more about someone's disability so you can be more understanding and know how to talk to them and help if needed
- Donate to the Isaiah 117 House and/or spiritually adopt a child in foster care

* Place a red heart in the chalice in the narthex for each act of love you complete!

GATHERING

A KB Gathering can best be described as a time of receiving. It begins with a Teaching that is raw, real, and relevant to any woman's life. It concludes with Eucharist Adoration laced with music and silence. Kingdom Builders invites all women to claim their peace and joy as a beloved daughter of the King! All Women Welcome and Invited! Come and rest in the gaze of our Eucharistic Lord!

Farewell and Best Wishes to Tara Sheringer

We would like to share that Tara Sheringer is leaving our parish staff on October 11. Tara has accepted an exciting new position with the Diocese of Charleston, where she will be working in the Tribunal Office.

While we will miss Tara's warmth, dedication, and contributions to our parish, we are thrilled for her and this new chapter in her life. Please join us in wishing Tara and her husband all the best as they embark on this journey!
