Clergy Corner

We're coming to the end of the liturgical year of 2025. Thanksgiving Day is in view and the Advent season will soon begin. We might look back on this year and reflect on it through the lens of Jesus as King of the Universe.

WHERE WERE WE MINDFUL OF JESUS BEING OUR LORD, KING OF THE UNIVERSE IN OUR LIVES?

HOW MIGHT WE MAKE HIM MORE OF A KING OF OUR LIVES, A CENTRAL POINT FROM WHICH OUR WORDS AND ACTIONS RADIATE?

I recently heard a Catholic commentator point out how significant Mary is to God when he said, "The first thing God did was pick out a mother." Mary certainly will be a central figure during the Advent season. We will begin praying The Memorare at the end of Mass - a beautiful prayer for us to learn wherein we ask deeply for the assistance of Mary. I personally pray this prayer as soon as I wake up every day.

Mary was the first person to encounter Jesus, the Word Incarnate, when his humanity was conceived in her womb through the power of the Holy Spirit. She was with him all the way through his Crucifixion and beyond, remaining with Him at the foot of the Cross. Mary probably heard the dialogue between her son, our Savior, and the good thief, and likely heard those beautiful words "Today you will be with me in Paradise".

Clearly, Christ was the king of Mary's life. She is an exemplary model for us to follow, and a source of assistance. May our lives be centered on the King of the Universe, and may we hear those same beautiful words that she and the good thief heard when we go home to our King.

Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro (1891-1927)

Feast Day: November 23

Graham Greene's classic The Power and the Glory immortalized Mexico's persecuted Church of the 1920s.

Photographs of Father Pro - arms outstretched to image Christ Crucified, kneeling in prayer before the firing squad, crumpled dead on the ground, visually reminds us that not long ago, not far away, the faith we take for granted cost everything!

Born to a mining family, Miguel became a Jesuit and was sent to study Catholic labor movements in Belgium in preparation for evangelizing Mexico's workers. But he returned to find a Mexico determined to annihilate Catholicism, and, like priests before him during Roman persecutions, England's Reformation, and in China today, ministered secretly to an "underground Church" until apprehended and sentenced to the firing squad.

In his final moments, Father Pro blessed his executioners, forgave his enemies, and shouted: "Viva el Cristo Rey! -Long Live Christ the King!" - his defiant, dying proclamation of ultimate, transcendent loyalty.

Father Pro's martyrdom reinvigorated that beleaguered Church, whose countless faithful, never again afraid, would throng

John Paul II when he visited Pro's beloved Mexico fifty-two years later.

—Peter Scagnelli

Prayer & Worship

Starting Next Week...

We will pray the Memorare at the conclusion of Mass, rather than the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel. If you would like to learn the prayer with your family, please take a prayer card on your way out of church this weekend.

Sacraments of Initiation

This Sunday at 5:00 pm Mass, we welcome Ashlee, Brian, and Larry into the Catholic Church.

Please pray for them as they prepare for their Sacraments of Initiation—Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation.

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW)

Pre-K—2nd Grade

November 23, During 10:30 am Mass

We welcome and encourage children to learn and participate with their families during Mass.

CLOW is geared towards children ages 4 through 2nd grade and meets regularly during 10:30 AM Mass from September through May. It offers an age-appropriate Liturgy of the Word, and is led by adult volunteers.

If you can help—even just once in a while—by assisting with supervision, guiding little ones to participate, and keeping things running smoothly, please scan the QR code to sign up or visit bit.ly/3WCXLWj.

Your presence makes a difference!

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice that fills this nation.

We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities.

*We thank you for our work and our rest,
for one another, and for our homes.*

*We thank you, Lord:
accept our thanksgiving on this day.
We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.*

Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

On this Feast of Christ the King, our readings show us that we serve the greatest of Kings, who is at the same time the humblest of Kings. Christ is the perfect model of servant leadership. And what an indescribable privilege that He has called us to be servant leaders — stewards in the work of advancing His Kingdom.

In our second reading, from St. Paul's letter to the Colossians, Paul describes the great power and dignity that characterize Christ the King. "All things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together." It makes you want to stand up and cheer. That's our King!

Yet, what a contrasting description of the same King we find in our Gospel passage, from Luke. Now we see our King nailed to the Cross. Everyone from rulers to soldiers, to the criminals on either side of Christ is mocking, sneering, and reviling him. They tauntingly urge him to prove His kingship by coming down from the Cross to end his suffering with a great show of power. "if you are the King of the Jews, save yourself." But He does not.

Amazingly, it is in this moment of seeming weakness and humiliation, when all appears hopeless and lost, that the full breadth of his greatness as king is displayed. Though all things were created through and for Him, Christ chooses to live entirely for others - for us!

What does this mean for us as his followers and stewards of His kingdom? Precisely that our lives are not about us. They are about Christ and others. And we will advance his kingdom to the extent that we embrace this mindset: my life is not about me; it is about serving the King of kings.

Haiti Ministry Update

One of our Haiti Ministry members recently received a letter from a nursing student at our twin parish, St. Anthony of Padua in Croix Fer, Haiti...

Good evening, Sir.

I hope this message finds you, your family, and the entire Saint Alphonsus community in good health.

The photo shows me in the operating room, suturing the surgical wound following an intervention on the left ankle (bimalleolar fracture), performed by my supervisor, the orthopedic surgeon, whom I was assisting.

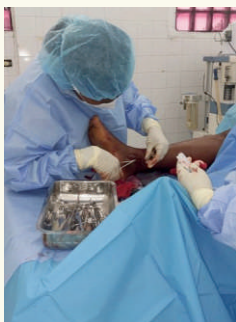

I truly value every moment spent in the operating room, for bringing relief, healing, support, and renewed hope and smiles to patients, their families, and loved ones is something that deeply moves me.

I give thanks to God, and I sincerely thank you, the parishes, and my family for all these moments and for the opportunity to pursue my dream: to help those in need, to heal, and to bring comfort.

I completed my orthopedics rotation yesterday and began my community health rotation today.

I wanted to keep you informed of my progress during the internship and express once again my heartfelt gratitude.

*Warm regards.
Milourie*

Presentation on Our Lady of Guadalupe

DEC 7 (SP.) @4:00 PM
DEC 8 (ENG.) @7:00 PM
OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

Joseph and Monique Gonzalez will present on the beautiful history of the native Mesoamerican people prior to Our Lady of Guadalupe's appearances in 1531.

Both the words Our Lady used and the visual details of the apparitions 'spoke' to the native people in their own language and cultural symbolism that had been developing for thousands of years. And, in doing so, her apparitions - and the image that she left on St. Juan Diego's tilma - opened the hearts and minds of the native people to conversion in a way that the Franciscan friars would likely never have been able to do.
