Where Do You Find Your Peace?

One of the things that pleasantly surprised me on our pilgrimage to Italy this past October was to see our pilgrims gravitate toward the chapels with Eucharistic Adoration in these magnificent churches. It said to me “Being with Jesus is a real priority for these people.” To travel basically an entire day over the ocean and then choose to seek out Jesus wherever He could be found was a sign of profound understanding of what truly matters. I’m not saying we never went to the gift shop as well! But first things first.

There is a peace that I feel when I make Adoration a priority and pray before the Blessed Sacrament. I think we all are wired that way if we really understand what is happening, that we are in the presence of the Prince of Peace.

Deacon Tim Perry

We need Him, especially during this time of year when there is so much commotion and noise around us and probably in our minds.

I will have the privilege to experience this peace with our young people, grades 5-12, this Sunday night. I didn’t grow up with Adoration, and so I can only imagine what peace my young friends will experience, and by extension, how my days at their age would have been more peaceful, more orderly around Jesus.

Please join me in praying for our young people and all who are involved in shaping their understanding of peace, true peace, lasting peace, the undefeated Prince of Peace.

St. Juan Diego (1474-1548)

Feast Day: December 9

How well Mary’s own words describe Juan Diego: “God has cast down the mighty from their thrones and lifted up the lowly” (Luke 1:52). Through him, for the diverse peoples of the Americas, indigenous and immigrant, the Mother of God became known as their Mother too.

Cuauhtlatzin, his given name, means “One Who Speaks Like An Eagle,” and Juan Diego faithfully delivered the Virgin’s request that a church be built at Tepeyac where she had appeared to him.

To the skeptical bishop’s request for a sign, Our Lady showed Juan Diego roses blooming through stony ground, despite winter’s cold. When he unfolded his tilma to present them to the bishop, imprinted there was Mary’s image! Her blue sash and the flower over her womb were traditional Aztec symbols of pregnancy and new life. But her features were those of a mestiza, indicating mixed Aztec-European heritage. Thus to peoples too easily prone to a “clash of cultures,” Our Lady of Guadalupe remains the enduring icon of unity-in-diversity, the fruit of our one baptism into Jesus, her Son.

Hope and Healing

1st Weekend of the Month

Our Prayer Ministry Team offers compassion and peace through prayer. This is not a sacrament or priestly blessing but a uniting of Christians in prayer.

Available on the first weekend of every month:

- Sunday after 10:30 am Mass

Look for members wearing red lanyards by the baptismal font at the back of the nave. Prayers are confidential.

Stewardship Reflection

On this Second Sunday of Advent, our second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans encourages us to focus our Advent preparations in this way: "Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God." And how does Christ welcome us? With unconditional love.

This is the essence of Christian hospitality, a vital aspect of stewardship living. Fully embraced, it has the power to transform our lives and the lives of those who experience it through us.

The practice of Christian hospitality is also a way for us stewards to answer the call of John the Baptist, in our Gospel passage from Matthew. His words apply just as much to us today as they did to the people awaiting the Savior's arrival. John says, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" And he recalls the words of the prophet Isaiah, "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths." There is a definite connection between repentance and effective hospitality.

So how can we make repentance a regular part of our everyday lives? We can make an "examination of conscience" a daily part of our prayers, thanking God for the times we said "yes" to Him, and asking forgiveness for the times we chose our own will. We can (and should!) go to confession this Advent. We can reach out to a family member or friend where there is distance or discord and make peace.

As we "straighten the paths" of our own hearts and minds, we become more hospitable people, better stewards of God's grace and mercy, and far more open and ready to invite others into our lives, homes, and parish. This is preparation fitting for our merciful Savior.

Parish News & Announcements

HOPE | PEACE | JOY | LOVE

Advent Challenge

Begins Sunday, November 30, 2025

Advent is the time to slow down and prepare your heart for the coming of Christ. Slow down this Advent Season and grow closer to Jesus through prayer, reconciliation, and adoration. He is waiting for you!

Read each passage slowly throughout the week.

Rest in it...reflect on it...savor it.

Week 1: Hope

Read Jeremiah 29: 11 - 14 and hear the words "I know the plans I have for you." Can you surrender your worries about the future and regrets from the past?

Week 2: Peace

Read Mark 10: 46 - 52 and hear Jesus say to the blind man: "What do you want me to do for you?" Now hear him say it to YOU. What is your heartfelt response?

Week 3: Joy

Read Psalm 33:20 - 22 and consider: What am I waiting for? How is my heart filled with gladness?

Week 4: Love

Read Psalm 139: 1- 18. Note the talents God has given you...and your weaknesses. Remember God loves you as you are - not your sins but as His beloved child.

DEC 8 (ENG.) @7:00 PM
OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

Joseph and Monique Gonzalez will present on the beautiful history of the native Mesoamerican people prior to Our Lady of Guadalupe's appearances in 1531.

Her apparitions and the image that she left on St. Juan Diego's tilma opened the hearts and minds of the native people to conversion in a way that the Franciscan friars would likely never have been able to do.
