Known and Loved

When I first meet people and try to get to know them, I like to ask where they grew up. It helps paint a picture of what experiences they may have had, and aspects of growing up there, such as what sports teams they might have cheered for. Then, I tend to remember more about them... I mean who doesn't know that Pope Leo is a Chicago White Sox fan?!

Getting to know people helps us learn to love them. And in this 4th week of Advent we are called to focus on the virtue of Love. We are also invited in our Advent Challenge to meditate on Psalm 139. This Psalm is very special for me as my wife chose a section of it to be read at her funeral. Verse 4 says "Even before a word is on my tongue, Lord, you know it all."

I believe this verse helped my wife to know she was known and loved by our Lord. I hope we all feel that way.

We as Catholic Christians are called to get to know Jesus and to love him in return, more and more. We are about to meet Him when God who so loved the world gave His only Son to us, born of the Virgin Mary. We may know all of this and know who Jesus is. Would we say we know Him enough to say that we love this Jesus, who grew up in Nazareth?

Deacon Tim Perry

Let us use the few remaining hours we have before the great feast of the Nativity of Our Lord to contemplate, in prayer, scripture and Eucharistic Adoration, this marvelous gift for all mankind. To truly know Him is to truly love Him.

Don't forget to tell me where you grew up!

St. John of Kanty (1390 - 1473)

Feast Day: December 23

Also known as St. John Cantius, perhaps not many have heard of this saint. A native of Poland, as a young man John proved himself to be a bright student at the University of Krakow. He then went on to become a priest and professor but was later prevented from teaching by rivals and became a parish priest instead. Yet, difficulties found him there as well, in the form of personal fear and opposition by parishioners.

Those who took the time to get to know him were eventually won over by his humility and kindness. John eventually returned to Krakow to teach Scripture but led a sacrificial and austere life, keeping only the bare essentials and donating the rest to those in need. He slept little, ate little, and gave much.

St. John Kanty's life is a great example of focusing on the essential - Jesus - and pruning out the unnecessary. Lord, grant us the grace to be more humble, selfless, and kind.

Saint John of Kanty, pray for us!

—Tami Urcia

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known
that anyone who fled to thy protection,
implored thy help,
or sought thy intercession,
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence
I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To thee do I come,
before thee I stand,
sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

"He will save His people." - Matthew 1:21

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

Stewardship Reflection

As our Advent preparations end and Christmas fast approaches, it is fitting that today's readings demonstrate the intensity of the Father's perfect and passionate love for each of us, culminating in the gift of His own Son, Jesus Christ, on Christmas Day.

In response to such an overwhelming gift, what can we do except offer our lives as gift in return, embracing a stewardship way of life with all the love and strength we have to give?

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, we find an unparalleled example of one who embraced this way of life in St. Joseph, as he obeys God's call to him through the message of an angel.

We never hear St. Joseph speak, but the Scriptures tell us he was always listening, attentive to the leading of the Holy Spirit for his family. It was Joseph who found the stable where the baby Jesus would be born. No doubt it was Joseph who cleaned it up and prepared it for Mary and Jesus since we know that Mary was about to give birth. Joseph protected the family, guarded them, and tended to their safety, their comfort, and their well-being at the expense of his own plans and preferences. Though we do not hear any words from St. Joseph his actions clearly show that he offered himself, his whole life, as a gift to his family through his strong guidance, protection, and service.

Let us imitate St. Joseph, then, as good stewards, giving our very lives to those around us in love and gratitude to God, who has given us everything we have, especially His own Son, Jesus Christ.

Parish News & Announcements

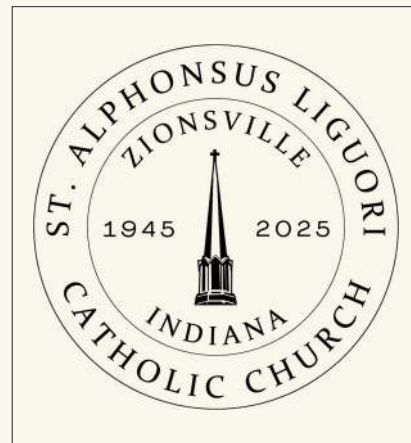

A Moment to Remember

Congratulations to parishioners and newlyweds Alec and Marissa Martinez, who had the once-in-a-lifetime thrill of meeting Pope Leo! They said he was wonderfully kind, very soft-spoken, and—according to Alec—has incredibly soft hands! The encounter was a whirlwind, but they did manage to squeeze in that they're fellow Chicago natives and that the young adults of our parish sent a big hello!

The couple presented the pope with a beautiful, engraved pen, to which he reacted with surprise and classic papal humility.

Winter Weather Closures

When the sheriff of Boone County or the Police Chief of the City of Zionsville declares a "Snow Emergency," weekend Masses at St. Alphonsus Liguori Catholic Church are cancelled, as are ALL other parochial events that weekend.

On the occasion of weather-related events that close schools and/or roads, the episcopal policy is the guide for the following:

A. Offices are closed when the civil government (Sheriff) announces emergency measures and road closures in the county. All employees, including custodial/ministry positions, will not report to work until the civil emergency is lifted. All activities sponsored by the parish will be cancelled.

The respective professional ministers have the responsibility to inform attendees of the closure; do not take anything for granted - use due diligence.

B. When Zionsville Community Schools are closed, our offices remain open for ordinary business. As travel home for some may become difficult and driving experience differs, individual ministers will determine whether they should remain. Hourly employees will clock out.
