Clergy Corner

The Memorare

During the season of Advent we began praying the Memorare at the end of Mass. This is a powerful prayer of intercession that I hope parishioners will come to appreciate as we pray and learn it over the next couple of months. It is my hope to introduce parishioners to traditional prayers of the Church by interchanging various prayers throughout the year at the end of Mass.

The Memorare originated in the 15th Century and was popularized in France by Fr. Claude Bernard in the 17th Century. Francis de Sales credits this prayer with saving him from despair while ministering in Calvinist strongholds of France and Switzerland.

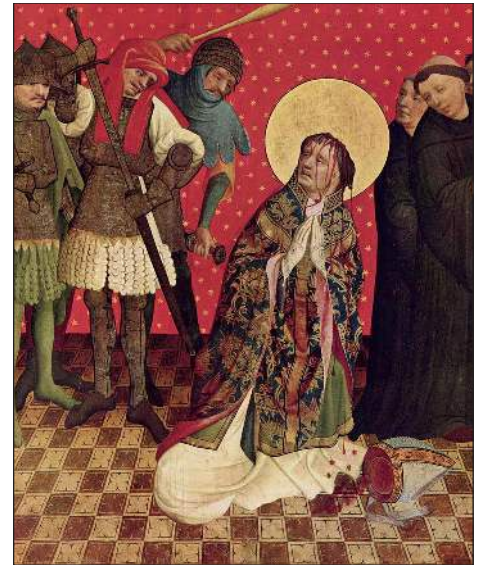

In 1846, Pope Pius IX imparted a partial indulgence to the praying of the Memorare.

When I was at Saint Maria Goretti, a priest gave a parish mission and relayed powerful and miraculous events that he experienced while praying the Memorare with Saint Teresa of Calcutta. She advised that, in an emergency, one ought to devoutly pray the Memorare nine times. Once the prayer is granted, she advised praying the Memorare nine times in gratitude. This is sometimes called the Flying Novena. This devotion is one that I have adopted in my own spiritual life. May this beautiful prayer draw us all more deeply into confidence in God's mercy and love.

St. Thomas Becket (1118 - 1170)

Feast Day: December 29

To anyone who imagines conflict between religion and politics to be a modern phenomenon, history witnesses otherwise. Martyred under Henry VIII in 1535, Thomas More declared, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first!" Thomas Becket could have said the same four centuries earlier.

As Henry II's closest friend and trusted chancellor, Becket, the King presumed, could be counted on, if made Archbishop, to deliver the Church to royal control. But Becket experienced a profound conversion, confirmed by the ordination liturgy's rich symbolism of the bishop as Good Shepherd and the Church as Bride of Christ. Renouncing secular responsibilities, distributing his wealth to the poor, Thomas became the Church's uncompromising champion.

Faced with this "new" Becket, the King's previous friendship turned into a ferocious, almost irrational hatred. Becket was slain before the altar of Canterbury Cathedral by royal agents, neither the first nor last good shepherd to lay down his life as the price of freedom for Christ's Church and justice for Christ's sheep.

SAL Prayer Ministry

Hope and Healing

1st Weekend of the Month

Our Prayer Ministry Team offers compassion and peace through prayer. This is not a sacrament or priestly blessing but a uniting of Christians in prayer.

Available on the first weekend of every month:

- Saturday after 4:30 pm Mass
- Sunday after 10:30 am Mass

Look for members wearing red lanyards by the baptismal font at the back of the nave. Prayers are confidential.

To join the Prayer Ministry,
email Christina Steele at csteele@zionsvillecatholic.com or call 317.873.2885

Stewardship Reflection: 12/28/2025

As we continue our celebration of the Christmas season, the feast of the Holy Family invites us to reflect on the gift and calling of family life. The Church calls the family the “domestic church,” the place where our faith takes root — and where the stewardship virtue of hospitality begins.

Why is hospitality vital to family life? Because our homes should be a place of love, welcome, and restoration. We can’t expect to grow in prayer, service, or faith if our home atmosphere is disconnected or tense. Though no family is perfect, we must intentionally create homes where everyone feels loved and valued.

Our readings offer practical wisdom. In the Book of Sirach, we hear about the blessings that come when children respect their parents — and when adult children lovingly care for their aging parents. Respect and tenderness build a home filled with unity and peace.

St. Paul’s Letter to the Colossians offers even more insight. He reminds us that each family member is “God’s chosen one,” and urges us to “put on” compassion, kindness, humility, and patience — even when we may not feel like it. These small, daily acts of love foster true hospitality at home, which then extends to the wider community.

The Holy Family, too, knew hardship. As the Gospel reminds us, they faced danger, displacement, and uncertainty. Yet Mary and Joseph remained faithful, trusting in God’s plan. They are powerful intercessors for our own families today.

On this feast, may we recommit to making our homes places of love and welcome. Let’s honor God through the way we treat each other at home — with patience, forgiveness, and care.

Happy Feast of the Holy Family to all!

Parish News & Announcements

Young Adult Christmas Party Recap

Thirty-three young adults gathered for a festive Christmas party filled with laughter, great food, and plenty of fun. Christmas attire was enthusiastically embraced, and highlights included an entertaining white elephant gift exchange, a crazy saran wrap ball game, and a surprise visit from a Christmas gorilla (bananas included!). St. Nicholas even made a quiet appearance, leaving treats in everyone's shoes before the end of the night.

Alec and Marissa Martinez provided a delicious main meal and homemade mac and cheese, complemented by an overflowing pitch-in of sides and desserts. The evening also included praying to the Holy Spirit and drawing patron saints for the new year. Above all, the night was marked by friendship, thoughtful conversation, and gratitude for a community that continues to grow deeper in faith and fellowship.

Grief, Grace, and Coming Home to the Church

In the latest episode of Holy Banter, Matt and Colleen Deryckere share the heartbreaking story of their firstborn son Ryan, whose short life changed everything. From an emergency delivery and time in the NICU at Riley, to planning a funeral no parent imagines, they talk honestly about anger, sorrow, and the slow work of healing. Along the way, they share how Ryan's baptism, a late-night visit from a priest, and the love of their community opened the door to Colleen's conversion, renewed faith, and a family mission of remembrance and hope.
