EASTER LIFE: WHERE DO YOU FIND IT?

"Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that....we too might live in newness of life."

That magnificent passage from Paul's letter to the Romans proclaimed at the Easter Vigil always sends chills up my spine; it is such an urgent and dramatic call for each of us to reclaim the grace of baptism and live life to the full in the Risen Lord. But how do we do that? For many Christians, it's all about a "personal relationship" with Jesus as Lord and Savior. But for Catholic Christians, that's not nearly enough. We believe that we can only experience the fullness of Jesus' risen life in the community of the Church. If faith is just about "me and Jesus", we're not living the faith of our baptism, we're not finding life where Jesus commanded us to find it.

If today is one of the few days of the year you join us in the community of the Church, we're happy you're here, and we hope to see you here more often. If you're here every week of the year, thank you for your faithfulness. The fullness of life that a Catholic Christian can only find in the Church, is here for all of us every day of the year. Easter blessings!

Fr. Bob

EASTER PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Good and gracious heavenly Father,
we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ.

Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love.

Bless also those who have yet to profess belief in you.

You are God for all.

We ask all this in Christ's name.

Amen.

Christianity, unlike any other religion in the world, begins with catastrophe and defeat. Sunshine religions and psychological inspirations collapse in calamity and wither in adversity. But the Life of the Founder of Christianity, having begun with the Cross, ends with the empty tomb and victory.

— Fulton J. Sheen, Life of Christ

Wishing you joy and good health,

Mary Bohlen RN

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

APRIL 16, 2017

GOSPEL READING

John 20:1-9

Mary of Magdala finds that the stone has been removed from Jesus' tomb.

FAMILY CONNECTION

In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead. That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord. Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciples moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God.

Gather your family members and ask them to share what they know about the events that happened in the days after Jesus' crucifixion. Invite your family to imagine that they are among Jesus' first disciples. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:1-9. Reflect together on the Gospel with questions such as these: If you had been among the first disciples who heard that the stone had been removed from Jesus' tomb and that Jesus' body was no longer there, what would you think? What did Mary of Magdala, Simon Peter, and the disciple whom Jesus loved think had happened? Recall that this experience is the first indication Jesus' disciples have that he is risen. Throughout the Easter season, we will learn more about how the disciples came to believe that Jesus had been raised from the dead.

Pray together using today's psalm, Psalm 118: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."
