THE PLACE OF MUSIC IN OUR WORSHIP

This column the past two weeks has been a bit "heavy", so I thought I'd reflect on something a bit lighter that has always been important to me and that came to mind last Sunday when I presided at the 10a.m. Mass for the second week in a row.

We are so fortunate to have an amazing choir that provides us with beautiful music each week. We are also fortunate to have a parish community which sings with such enthusiasm each week—except at the 10a.m. Mass! So, while our wonderful choir is a great blessing, it also creates a challenge for all of us when it comes to participating rather than just listening and marveling at the beautiful sound we hear. Lately, the 10a.m. folks have been so appreciative of the choir that there has been applause at the end of Mass. While I'm sure that gratitude has been appreciated by our music-makers, it can imply that the choir is there to entertain us rather than to support us in our own singing.

The U.S. Bishops' document, Music in Catholic Worship, says this about the musical part played by each of us in the liturgy:

> "In liturgical celebrations each one, minister or layperson, who has an office to perform, should do all of, but only, those parts which pertain to that office by the nature of the rite and the principles of the liturgy. Special musical concern must be given to the role of the congregation, the cantor, the choir and the instrumentalists."

If we boil all that down to everyday language, it simply means that we all have a part to play, no one should steal anyone else's part, and in the end, we're all in this together.

Some of us grew up in a church that might be called "musically imbalanced." By that I mean that, unless we sang in a choir, there wasn't much for us to do musically as a "congregation" or "assembly" as we name ourselves today. When I was a kid, I remember enjoying Benediction, Holy Hours or novenas as much as Mass primarily because we got to sing. I may not have known what I was singing—usually in Latin—but I felt so much more a part of the whole experience. I was equally happy to have been chosen to sing in the children's funeral choir when I was in fifth grade—but the bonus there included getting out of class for over an hour! And after Vatican II, I remember how excited I was the first time I was at a Mass that began with an "Entrance Song" that we all could sing together. Unfortunately in those days, after my voice changed, I became basically tone-deaf, so I don't know how much anyone around me enjoyed the experience.

In the decades since Vatican II, the place of music in worship has continued to evolve to the understanding expressed in the above quote, namely, that we all have a part to play but no one does it all.

From Our Pastor

Yes, we are blessed with a wonderful choir; but they are not there to entertain us. Sometimes, of course, there will be a choir piece before Mass, during the Preparation of the Table & Gifts, or after Communion, and then we're free to simply listen with admiration and gratitude. But most of the time, the choir is there to support us in our musical worship, and it's our responsibility to join in, as best we can, even if we might think we're tone-deaf!

The Cantor or Leader of Song has a role similar to the choir's, primarily during the hymns and acclamations. But at other times, particularly during the responsorial psalm, the gospel acclamation and some versions of the Glory to God, we take on an "antiphonal" relationship with the Cantor, an alternating form of song: the Cantor sings the verse and we sing only the refrain. No one else should usurp the Cantor's part at those times—neither the priest nor anyone else in the assembly—no matter how much we might like to sing. The priest also has a musical role, particularly in introducing the acclamations and in chanting the Preface to the Eucharistic Prayer.

"Music is of preeminent importance.....an integral part of the solemn liturgy." That additional statement from Music in Catholic Worship should be a powerful challenge for every Catholic to do our musical part in every Mass—even choir masses—to give praise and thanks to our loving God.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 22, 2017

GOSPEL READING
Matthew 22:15-21
The Pharisees send their disciples to test Jesus with a question about taxes.

FAMILY CONNECTION
Payment of taxes is unlikely to be a disputed issue in your family. Yet families can still learn something from this Gospel reading. Jesus' answer to the Herodians and Pharisees redirects their question to focus on the issue of greatest importance: loving and honoring God. Taking this perspective can help us make good judgments about the competing issues of importance in our lives.

As your family gathers, make a list of the activities that your family spends time doing together, such as household tasks, jobs, academics, and recreational activities. Talk about the importance of each of these activities. Ask what would happen if there were an imbalance in our attention to these activities and we spent too much time on one activity at the expense of another.

In today's Gospel Jesus reminds us of the necessity of giving things their proper importance. Read Matthew 22:15-21. The Herodians and Pharisees were giving too much importance to the issue of the payment of taxes. Jesus reminds them that loving and honoring God is of greater importance. In family life we do many important things, but we remember that God is of the greatest importance in our lives. Pray together that your family will learn to keep things in proper perspective, remembering to keep God first in your lives. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 96.

THE MASS OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

on Saturday, October 28, 2017 at 5:15 P.M.

All those suffering with illness and affliction are invited to come and receive Holy Anointing.

Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint [him] with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven." James 5:14-15

For Your Information

Can these 4 things reduce your cancer risk?

If someone told you that you could do four things to dramatically lower your risk of developing cancer, would you believe them? While some doubt that lifestyle changes can have a large effect on overall risk, a recent study suggests otherwise. The research published by JAMA Oncology says that 20 percent to 40 percent of cancer cases—and about 50 percent of all deaths from cancer—could be prevented if people did four things, namely exercise regularly, maintain a healthy BMI, not smoke, and drink alcohol only in moderation.

Researchers examined more than 130,000 participants. They divided the participants in two groups: the first, healthier group, was considered "low risk" and the second group was "high risk." Researchers looked at how likely the participants in each group were to develop certain cancers.

They found that the low-risk group was less likely to develop and die from cancers. This group had the following common characteristics:

- They didn't smoke.
- They didn't drink, or drank in moderation.
- They had a healthy weight.
- They exercised regularly – either exercised vigorously for 75 minutes a week or did 150 minutes of moderate-intensity exercise.

"There are some cancer risk factors that are not in our control, such as age, family history or having previous biopsies," says Dr. Heidi Memmel, a breast surgeon at Advocate Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge. "But there are several factors that we can control. For example, being overweight or obese, smoking and alcohol use can increase your risk of breast cancer, while diet and exercise can reduce it."

This is not news! We have heard about the importance of these simple lifestyle choices for years—eat well, exercise, get enough sleep, reduce stress, make time for spiritual practice or meditation. But it really works! Daily choices to nurture our bodies protect us from cancer and many other health issues.

Prayer: Dear God, give us love for our bodies and help us embrace the choices that nourish them. Amen.

Wishing you joy and good health,
Mary Bohlen RN

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As members of the Catholic Church, we are called to renew our commitment as missionary disciples on World Mission Sunday. Like Renew My Church, mission ad gentes, or proclaiming the Gospel to those who do not know Christ, reminds us that we have a responsibility to those outside our parish boundaries, our Archdiocese, and even our nation. When we support our world missions together, we build bonds among each other, sustaining of life in Christ and we are transformed through service and solidarity as Christ's missionary disciples.

The World Mission Sunday collection, held here on October 21-22, and executed by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on behalf of Pope Francis, is a global effort to provide for 1,111 mission dioceses across four different continents. This weekend's collection supports those with the greatest needs and the missionaries who evangelize and accompany them through the Sacraments while providing pastoral care, education, basic health care, and safe housing.

Let this celebration of World Mission Sunday also be a day to honor the many ways we commit to missionary discipleship. God is persistent and generous with the call to go forth. I pray that every parish in the Archdiocese of Chicago uses World Mission Sunday as an opportunity to be renewed in our commitment to prayer, testimony of life, and the sharing of our gifts. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

THE COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2017 AT 7:00 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH CHURCH, 17951 Dixie Highway, Homewood, Il

A special evening Mass will be celebrated on All Souls Day, Thursday, November 2nd at 7:00 p.m. Music for this Mass will include excerpts from the choral Requiem Masses of Maurice Duruflé and Gabriel Fauré. A light reception will follow Mass.

What is All Souls Day? The technical name of the feast is the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed. It is a date on the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar in which the faithful remember all those who have died and now sleep in eternal peace. The day is set aside for us to celebrate and to pray for the repose of souls, most especially those who may still be in purgatory.

HOW TO PRAY THE ROSARY

Using beads to count prayers is an ancient tradition, and not unique to the Catholic faith. The rosary as we know it today has evolved over time from its original loop of fifty beads marked out three times (to account for 150 prayers representing all the psalms) to its present configuration of five decades with some additional prayers. The rosary is begun by reciting the Apostles' Creed while holding the cross that hangs from the loop. The Lord's Prayer is prayed on the first bead on the way up from the cross to the loop joiner. Then three Hail Mary's are prayed on the next three beads (often interpreted as prayers for an increase of faith, hope, and charity), followed by a Glory Be. Another Lord's Prayer opens the first decade, which continues with ten Hail Marys, and concludes with a Glory Be, prayed while holding the chain between the final Hail Mary of the decade and the next bead for the Lord's Prayer. The prayer and meditation of the five decades is directed to one of the mysteries of which there are four sets (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous). There are booklets that offer scriptural meditations for each of the beads as well, providing an opportunity to enrich this traditional prayer with excerpts from the word of God.
