Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Trial, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or the sword?

For I am certain that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor powers, neither height nor depth nor any other creature, will be able to separate us from the love of God that comes to us in Christ Jesus, our Lord.
-Romans 8

RENEW MY CHURCH – THE SUMMIT

Four weeks ago, several parishioners and staff members accepted my invitation to attend a two-day conference in Rosemont which aimed to help parishioners, pastoral staffs and priests from all over the Archdiocese focus on the essentials of this ongoing process called Renew My Church. We were part of a group of over 2,000 Catholics from most of the parishes of the Archdiocese who spent nearly nine hours each day praying, listening to presentations and at times discussing our response to what we had heard. It was no fun being on the road to Rosemont at 7:30a.m. for the ninety minute rush hour drive, but there were worthwhile thoughts to be taken away from these two days.

The first takeaway was simply seeing so many dedicated and generous parishioners from all over Cook and Lake counties—and even a few from the Joliet diocese—who were eager to learn a bit more about this challenging program that will be going on for at least another three, possibly four, years. I'm made a passing reference to Renew My Church in the past two weeks and this week I want to say a bit more to try to clarify the real focus of this process.

If you read the Chicago Catholic (formerly the New World before it became the Chicago Catholic, then the New World again) you will know about the changes that have taken place in a number of areas in the Archdiocese as designated parish groupings have met and brainstormed during their year-long discussions. In many cases, these discussions have resulted in the consolidation of parish structures, with one pastor and one pastoral staff overseeing multiple parishes—often with a new, common name—but with the churches remaining in place as "worship sites", meaning that Mass will still be celebrated in those churches. In only a few cases will parishes actually be closing or churches sold or torn down. Hopefully these results can put to rest the fear that the primary purpose of Renew My Church was to close churches.

Which brings me to the second important takeaway from the Renew My Church Summit. The message communicated there over and over again was the need to make the parishes of the Archdiocese vital, evangelizing and viable, with more and more parishioners committed to living their baptismal calling and inviting others to join them in a wide variety of ministries—not necessarily within or sponsored by their parishes. If you look closely at the photo from the summit (which you can enlarge on the parish website) you'll see examples of those values which were expressed and discussed during those two days. But that's something that already happens here, with PADS, Catholic Charities and Respond Now being examples of the ways St. Joseph parishioners reach out beyond the parish to live their call to discipleship. The hope and goal are that those sorts of efforts will expand in all the parishes of the Archdiocese in coming years.

From Our Pastor

The final takeaway from the Summit was the need for parishes to work together to accomplish their goals and to inspire their parishioners to live their baptismal calling. To that end, our own Parish Pastoral Council proposed that we take the initiative in bringing together the priests, pastoral staffs and parish leadership from the parishes in our grouping to begin the process of simply getting to know one another. Even though our grouping has yet to be "activated" and we have no idea when that will happen, the Archdiocese has been encouraging parish groupings to promote informal gatherings or to join in common projects so that when we begin our formal discussions we'll have a greater level of comfort in working with one another.

So I've invited parish leadership, pastoral staff members and priests from the other five parishes in our grouping—St. Anne, St. Lawrence O'Toole, St. Emeric and Infant Jesus of Prague—to gather here next month for a relatively informal "get-to-know-you" evening. Our Parish Pastoral Council and possibly a few other parishioners will attend along with the Parish Council of St. Anne and parish leaders from St. Emeric and St. Lawrence O'Toole which don't have parish councils. Unfortunately, the leadership at IJP hasn't replied to my invitation, but hopefully they'll get on board somewhere down the line.

In the meantime, we should all be praying for our sisters and brothers in parishes around the Archdiocese who are currently engaged in these often challenging discussions and decisions. And we need to continue to do our best to challenge one another to live the faith of our baptism, both here in the parish and in our community where the message of the Gospel always needs to be proclaimed.

Fr. Bob

Is Watching TV Making You Less Sympathetic?

Reality television is a popular escape for all ages. These shows have become a part of many peoples' daily lives, but some series with certain themes may be doing more than just entertaining you — they could be affecting parts of your personality.

According to a study out of The London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), the pervasive, materialistic themes in certain reality shows can lead an individual to be less sympathetic when it comes to underprivileged people.

Researchers at the school sought to determine the psychological effects shows focusing on wealth and luxury items have on viewers by studying nearly 500 British adults between the ages of 18-49 years and analyzing their engagement in television and tabloids that glorify wealth, fame and luxury items/lifestyle.

One group of study participants was shown luxury ads, images of celebrities with expensive items and newspaper headlines about "rags to riches" stories. The second group was shown neutral items, including nature images and newspaper headlines about dinosaurs.

After the exposure, they were asked a series of questions about their thoughts on wealth, success, poverty-stricken individuals, government benefits and how often they watched shows such as "Keeping Up With The Kardashians" or read magazines and tabloids like Vogue, Cosmopolitan and Esquire, which typically showcase wealthy celebrities.

The results? Researchers found materialistic messages in media affected how much participants supported welfare policies. In fact, according to the researchers, just a minute of exposure to materialistic media was all it took to increase anti-welfare sentiments. But why?

"If there is more emphasis on materialism as a way to be happy, this makes us more inclined to be selfish and anti-social, and therefore unsympathetic to people less fortunate," stated Dr. Rodolfo Leyva, study author.

How do we combat these potentially negative mental effects?

"Watching fewer reality shows that focus on lifestyles of the rich and famous can lessen the distorted view which television persuades viewers to believe is true," says Dr. Howard McNair, a family medicine physician at Advocate South Suburban Hospital in Hazel Crest, Ill. "Focusing on more humanitarian aspects of life can keep people grounded and in touch with 'the real world'."

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:46-52

Jesus restores sight to the blind man, Bartimaeus.

Family Connection

Today's Gospel offers us a powerful example of faith and persistence in prayer. Those around him rebuked Bartimaeus for his efforts to attract Jesus' attention. When silenced by the crowd, however, Bartimaeus called out all the more. He is persistent and bold in his confidence that Jesus will show mercy on him and do what he asks. His persistence and great confidence that Jesus would help him reminds us of the confidence with which our children bring to us their needs. In their faith and trust we can find an example of the attitude with which we might approach God in prayer.

As a family, recall a request that has been made repeatedly by one family member to another. Talk about why the request continues to be made if the answer continues to be no. Then read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:46-52. After reading the Gospel, pose questions such as these to your family: Why must Bartimaeus be persistent in calling out to Jesus? (Some people in the crowd are telling him to be quiet.) What does Bartimaeus do when some try to stop him? (He calls out to Jesus all the more.) When Jesus stops and calls for him, what does Jesus do and say? (He restores Bartimaeus's sight; Jesus tells Bartimaeus his faith has saved him.) When we pray, God wants us to be so confident he will help us that we don't permit anyone to keep us from bringing our needs to God in prayer. Invite family members to identify the things they need most from God. Pray these prayers of petition together as a family, confident that God will hear and answer your prayers. Respond to each petition, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on us." Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father.

THE COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2018 AT 7:00 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH CHURCH, 17951 Dixie Highway, Homewood, Il

A special evening Mass will be celebrated on All Souls Day, Friday, November 2nd at 7:00 p.m. Music for this Mass will include excerpts from the choral Requiem Masses of Maurice Duruflé and Gabriel Fauré. A light reception will follow Mass.

What is All Souls Day? The technical name of the feast is the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed. It is a date on the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar in which the faithful remember all those who have died and now sleep in eternal peace. The day is set aside for us to celebrate and to pray for the repose of souls, most especially those who may still be in purgatory.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARTS & ENVIRONMENT COMMITTEE

ALL SAINTS/ALL SOULS DAY

Once again this year, the Arts and Environment Committee will place two picture frames on the altar for All Saints/All Souls Day. The frame on the BVM side is for parishioners to write the names of recently deceased family members and friends on a slip of paper and attach to the frame with a purple ribbon. The other frame -- on the left side -- is reserved for parishioners to attach special petitions to specific saints of their choice. Both frames will remain in church through Thanksgiving.

Mass of Remembrance and Healing

Honoring children now entrusted to God's loving care.

Friday, November 16th, 7:00 pm

Sponsored by St. Joseph's Elizabeth Ministry

There probably is no greater pain than the loss of a child. The Elizabeth Ministry is hosting a Mass of Remembrance, Hope, and Healing for all who have suffered such a loss at any time in their lives. The loss might be from miscarriage, premature birth, stillbirth, abortion, accident, illness, suicide, or other circumstances.

Mothers, fathers, grandparents, siblings, relatives, and family friends are encouraged to come. If you know of someone who would benefit from this liturgy, please invite him or her to come. We hope those who have come to the mass in prior years will come again.

Refreshments will be served afterwards in the back of the church.

Priesthood Sunday
October 28, 2018

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated nationwide on the last Sunday of October each year. It is a call for parishioners to honor Christ as Priest and the men who were called to be His priests on earth. We thank our priests for their service to the church.

Prayer for Priests

God of all that is ancient and new, you called priests to minister in your temple in ancient times. Those priests ministered day and night in worship of you.

Bless our priests today who not only minister in our churches, but minister to your people, the living body of Christ in the world.

Give them wisdom and courage to continue to say yes to you and your people.

We ask this through Jesus, the ultimate high priest, who lives and reigns with you for ever and ever. Amen.

Parishioners are invited to view – and purchase – his pictures and banners during one of these days:

Thursday, November 15 – 9:00am – 12:00pm and 1:00pm – 7:00 pm;

Jose Medina, a Chicago native, got his art training after serving in the Navy. He worked for years in the commercial arts and advertising industry, but never as an artist. His illustrations and paintings were done off-the-clock. In retirement he lived in Arizona for a number of years before moving to Homewood where one of his seven children lives.
