COME HOLY SPIRIT – WE KNOW YOU'RE OUT THERE!

This is the weekend of Pentecost, when the beautiful red fabric would be hanging in the sanctuary, the doves would be circling above the altar, and we would hear the lovely Pentecost sequence and the gospel story of the disciples, locked away in fear, receiving the Holy Spirit for the first time. Some of that can be seen and heard on TV or on other screens, but the rest will have to be found in our memories for God only knows how long.

As usual, I'm writing this about six days before you read it; but given the way things move these days, I doubt that much will have changed since May 24th. Last week, some folks saw a glimmer of hope in President Trump's call for churches to be re-opened in a more timely fashion; I wish he actually had the power to make that happen—in a safe and reasonable way, of course—as is happening just across the border from us in Indiana. But it's not going to happen here in our politically & morally corrupt state of Illinois. The Catholic Province of Illinois, which includes all the dioceses in the state along with the Archdiocese of Chicago, will follow the guidelines I wrote about last week, and those will continue to be dependent on what the governor declares.

The 27 pages of protocols, rules and permissions forms we've been given will, as I pointed out last week, only allow for the church to be open for funerals, weddings, confessions, baptisms or adoration, all with a limit of 10 participants. The Archdiocese did finally clarify that the number 10 does not include the priest, leader of song, funeral director, doorkeeper or musician. Whoopee! And the requirements for the sanitizing of all surfaces with a bleach solution after any service make the likelihood of most of those things happening in the near future fairly remote. The only possible "reopening" might be for private prayer, but even that has severe limits. The times for the church to be open must be limited; a doorkeeper must be present to keep the doors open, to ensure that people wear masks and use hand sanitizer and then keep track of the time because each person can remain in the church for no more than 20 minutes; then the spot where that person sat or knelt must be sanitized before another person can be admitted. And the windows must be left open so that the air circulates, but we're discouraged from using air conditioning! On a 90 degree day with 90% humidity, that means that people will be safe from the virus but possibly pass out from heat stroke.

From Our Pastor

I could go on and on, but I won't. As I've said before, I understand the need to be respectful of others and reasonably cautious, but I see little reason in much of this. Still, we will follow all these protocols as best we can and do what we can to make some of this possible as soon as possible. In the meantime: please be patient, pray whenever and however you can, and do whatever you can to continue with your financial support by either mailing in dropping off your offerings in the rectory mailbox as many do each week or each month—because the mail still works quite well both for your offerings and for the bills that don't stop coming.

But back to Pentecost....Both the first reading today from the Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel have the disciples locked away in an upper room. In Acts, they're locked up in anticipation of the Spirit's arrival; in the Gospel, they're locked away for "fear of the Jews." Being locked away out of fear is not a good way to live; it's not where we belong as disciples of Jesus. And we don't have to wait for the Spirit to come because the Spirit has already been sent by Jesus; the Spirit resides now in our hearts and hovers over all creation. It's not that the Spirit isn't speaking or offering inspiration; it's just that not everyone seems to be listening!

Your Spirit of wisdom.*

*Be with those who have fallen ill and give them
Your comforting heart.*

MAY 24, 2020

PENTECOST SUNDAY

You can feel so small standing by the seashore. The vastness of all that is before you expands much farther than your eye can see. What is happening on the other side? As tides continue to ebb and flow, what occurs as they come and go remains largely a mystery and the effects of their presence unknown in your sight. Yet, things are moving and changing as you gaze upon the water, as the thumbprint of their presence is left behind. The greater the wind and wave, the greater the effect. But even a gentle breeze leaves its humble mark upon the seashore on which you stand. The smallest pebble still makes a ripple in the great blue expanse of ocean waters. It doesn't need to be big.

You never know the full impact of your smallest gesture or simplest of words. A yes or no, agree or disagree, here or there, this or that can influence time and history in ways you may never know. The Holy Spirit is like that: fierce and torrential, and then almost still and silent, creating and recreating nonetheless. Coming as a gentle breeze or a gusty wind, God's Holy Spirit continues to move over, around, and into the waters of our lives. The Spirit brings fruit and unknown possibilities to what we humbly bring with us and that same Spirit eventually brings all to fulfillment in Christ.

The first disciples didn't have much. They possessed simple faith and a willingness to go into uncharted territory with a love of their friend-God, humble offerings, and a knowledge that they were not alone. This allowed them to do amazing things with very little. Do you believe that you are being led and that you have a purposeful life? We often do not realize our value because we do not think that the little we have is good enough. How wrong we are! A little flour mixed with water and embraced by a prayer of blessing transforms simple offerings into the magnificent Eucharistic presence of God. If the Holy Spirit can do such amazing things with these humble gifts of the earth, even more can happen with you. Don't underestimate the value of the smile you gave a stranger, the door held open for an elderly widow, the listening ear offered to one who was lonely, the tolerance given to the wounded soul who is angry, and the loving shoulder you offered as a cradle under the head of someone in pain. Modest gifts offered with love can be transformed by the Spirit into wondrous blessings you may never know. It's Pentecost. Trust. You are not alone.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

WE ARE NEVER ALONE

My children want my help sometimes, and other times, not so much. I remember being a teenager and young adult myself. At times, I thought I knew everything. I didn't need help because I was just so darn smart. Truth is, I needed to find my own way. I needed to stretch my wings and prove to myself and my family I could fly. I assume that is what is happening with my own children as well. It just seems so different now that I'm the parent.

Human beings need help. We need community, and we need to rely on one another. At Pentecost, we reflect on Jesus sending to the Church a helper, the Holy Spirit. God interacting with us in this manner means we are never truly alone. We focus most of the time on the Spirit of God as the assistance we need, and we do need Him for sure. However, since it is that very same Spirit that turned us into "Church" from a band of people looking to carry on after Jesus' ascension, at Pentecost we gained more than divine help: we gained each other.

Today, the Church needs help in a profound way. We need to lean on the Holy Spirit to blow through the Church with a profound renewal. But we cannot forget that we have been given each other to lean on as well. We are a gift to each other, and together with the Spirit's help, we are the Body of Christ here on earth. We must be strong and stand for one another. If we do that, this Pentecost will bear fruit that will be with us for many Pentecosts to come.

PENTECOST

Why do we celebrate Pentecost when we do?

The book of Acts unpacks the events immediately following Jesus' ascension into heaven. The Apostles and other disciples were told to pray in Jerusalem and await another outpouring of the Holy Spirit. As the weeks ticked on, the Jewish Festival of Weeks approached. This festival took place 50 days after Passover and celebrated the giving of the law on Mount Sinai. The Festival of Weeks (or "Pentecost" in Greek) was a great pilgrimage feast, with Jews from all over the ancient world convening on Jerusalem for the celebration.

It was on Pentecost that God chose to send the Holy Spirit. Here, the new law of love was etched into the hearts of the disciples. As he burst out onto the balcony above the multinational crowd, Peter proclaimed the message of the resurrection, and the Holy Spirit enabled every listener to hear in their native language. 3,000 people were baptized that day! The disciples — and every baptized person — receives the gifts and zeal necessary to bring a new message of salvation to the people of God.

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

The Season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the Feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, John 20:19-23, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts. It is enough that we know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We already heard today's Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter this year (Lectionary Cycle A). That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the Feast of Pentecost, John 20:19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath."

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God through the forgiving of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.

Gospel Reading : John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."
