From Our Pastor

TIME FOR ANOTHER "THIS & THAT"

Every so often these days, with face-to-face communication so limited, I know that I should keep you "in the loop" as much as possible with regard to what's going on in the life of the parish and the archdiocese. But I'm not always kept in the loop either...

One place where that is frustratingly true is with regard to Renew My Church. As I told you a few weeks ago, our "grouping" of five parishes is now down to four with the shifting of St. Lawrence O'Toole to another group. But the news that our "activation" has been moved up to sometime next year instead of January, 2022 has yet to be clarified, despite several attempts by me to get more information from the powers that be. Some of our friends from IJP have wisely suggested that the four parishes get together for a prayer service so that the bonds we began to establish last year can be refreshed; but as much as I agree with that suggestion, I'd prefer to wait until we do get some clarity with regard to this new proposed timeline. Fingers crossed....

Another frustration is connected to the delayed installation of our new sound system. That was all set to begin in March when....well you know what happened then. But there really wouldn't have been a problem with having workers in the church even at that time, except for the fact that the Archdiocese froze all parish savings accounts for fear that the pandemic would prevent parishes from having sufficient funds to pay their bills. That meant that we couldn't access the funds in our To Teach Who Christ Is account which were earmarked for the sound system, and we've been given no sense of when that freeze might be lifted. While we're not exactly rolling in dollars these days, the payroll protection money from the government as well as your continued generosity have allowed us to remain more financially stable than might otherwise have been the case, and I only wish we could move ahead with a project whose need we can all recognize every time our old sound system makes those horrible screeching sounds.

Another thing put indefinitely on hold is our Adult Formation/Scripture Study sessions. This was to have been the summer for eight weeks of Celtic Spirituality, but social distancing makes this particular topic impossible because table sharing is an integral part of this unique presentation. Even a study of the Gospel of Matthew, perhaps presented in church as some have suggested, and which would have been my final topic for next winter, wouldn't have been as enriching without the give and take we can enjoy in the Tolton Room. We'll just have to wait and see what winter brings.

But I'd prefer to end this on a more positive note by congratulating our RE 2nd graders who make their First Communion this Sunday. It's a wonderful moment for these children to be given the first of a lifetime of opportunities to grow closer and closer to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and we pray that they take advantage of sharing in this great gift throughout their lives.

25 Years of the Gospel of Life

This year the Church celebrates the 25th anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). This prophetic document was written by Pope John Paul II to reaffirm the value and inviolability of every human life and to appeal to all people to respect, protect, love, and serve every human life. The following is a brief overview of this important document.

The Gospel of Life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him. For this reason, direct attacks on human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, are always unacceptable. Yet, sadly we see new and expanding threats to human life emerging on an alarming scale. These new threats to life are often justified, protected, and even promoted by our laws and culture.

Not only must human life not be taken, but it must be protected with loving concern. Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world. God made the human person with the capacity to love and reason and share in a relationship with himself, the Creator. The human person bears an indelible imprint of God and is the pinnacle of all creation. The source of our dignity is not only linked to our creation by God, but to our final end and destiny to spend eternity with the Father. By accepting Christ as our Savior through the ministry of the Church, despite our sinfulness, we can begin to share in eternal life even now.

Despite the grave threats to human life in the modern world, we, as the People of God, are called to place our faith in Jesus, the "Word of life" (1 Jn 1:1). As Christians, we have received the full truth about human life as proclaimed by the very person of Jesus. In sharing in the lowliest and most vulnerable conditions of human life—even death on a cross—Jesus shows us that life is always good. The true meaning of our lives is found in giving and receiving love. It is only through this understanding of a sincere gift of self that human sexuality and procreation reach their true and full significance. God holds the lives of all people in his gentle and loving care, giving meaning and value to any sufferings that we bear. Even within the mystery which surrounds suffering and death, these experiences can become saving events as we unite them with Christ's own sacrifice. By making human life the instrument of our salvation, the Son of God shows us the priceless value of human life.

Although the roots of violence against life are not new—going all the way back to Genesis, when Cain took the life of his brother Abel—our modern world is now suffering under a culture of death. Scientific and technological advances and an increasingly secularized world have led to an eclipse of the value of human life. However, respect for life requires that science and technology should always be at the service of the human person and his integral development. We must reject systems of structuralized sin which value efficiency and productivity over human persons.

Governments and international institutions promote abortion and euthanasia as marks of progress and freedom. But this is a false and perverse understanding in which freedom is equated with absolute individualism. True freedom is inherently relational, recognizing that God has entrusted us to one another. As cultures and societies fail to recognize these objective truths, everything becomes relative, and all principles are called into question—even the fundamental right to life. However, the blood of Christ's sacrifice remains our constant hope. Christ's gift of himself on the Cross reveals how precious life truly is and gives us the strength to commit ourselves to building a culture of life. Christ's blood, shed for us, promises that in God's plan death will be no more, and life will be victorious.

Society as a whole must respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life. Each life is a gift from God and ultimately belongs to him. He has sole authority over life and death. We are therefore called to reverence and love every human person, loving our neighbors as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us.

Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of Life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society. In every child which is born, and in every person who lives or dies, we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ.

For Your Information

Hospitals have tightened visitor policies and stopped certain surgeries during the COVID-19 pandemic, but you shouldn't hesitate to seek emergency care if you need it.

Heart attacks and strokes can be fatal and getting help quickly is key to treatment of both.

Getting Care is Critical During COVID-19

Don't ignore your symptoms during the pandemic.

Our hospitals have safety measures to protect you from infection.

Dr. Paul Silverman, Cardiologist reminds people "97% people who get COVID-19 will survive but a heart attack or stroke can be fatal."

Stroke Symptoms

- ▶ Numbness, or weakness on one side of your body especially in your arm, face or leg
- ▶ Terrible Headache, Confusion, trouble speaking or understanding
- ▶ Loss of balance

Heart Attack Symptoms

- ▶ Discomfort in your chest, jaw, arm, shoulder, neck or back
- ▶ Difficulty breathing
- ▶ Chest pain

If you think you are having a heart attack or stroke

Dr. Demetrius Lopes, Neurosurgeon urges everyone to "Call 911 ASAP when symptoms start"

Call your doctor if you think you have a heart or stroke condition or have questions.

Wishing you joy and good health,
Mary Bohlen RN

BACK-TO-SCHOOL SUPPLIES COLLECTION DRIVE: A HUGE SUCCESS

In what turned out to be a two-phased initiative, the Back-to-School Supplies Collection Drive for the kids living at the current PADS hotel shelter and their distributed living facilities was a huge success.

In the first phase, members of our PADS team from Saint Joseph's Parish "adopted" 24 kids from the PADS hotel who were scheduled to start school the week of 17 August 2020. We received a list of names, ages, grades and the supplies they needed to start the year off right. Many thanks and blessings to Peg Boivin, Julie Orbik, Theresa and Chuck Funke, RoseAnn Rooney, Karin Fortson and her step-daughter Hannah for their incredible generosity and support in the purchase, sorting and filling of the individual backpacks. We also received monetary support from other team member and for their generosity we are most grateful.

The second phase involved the general Back-to-School Supplies Collection Drive that was held this past Saturday, 22 August 2020. The main purpose was to collect school supplies for 45 more kids who live in the distributed housing facilities supported by PADS. They are scheduled to start school during the week of 7 September 2020.

To you the parishioners of Saint Joseph's Parish and the community of Homewood, a heartfelt thanks and appreciation for your most generous contributions of assorted supplies requested.

Many thanks and blessings again to the team that gathered on Saturday in the church parking lot to help with the collection of supplies including Theresa and Chuck Funke, Julie Orbik, Rita Davenport and Ruthie Austing. The success of this event would not have been possible without them.

Finally, while our world remains in flux in terms of our social, political and certainly spiritual direction, there remains a constant that continues to humble us each and every day. It is the continued generosity of those in our communities and their willingness to support those most in need.

"Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever!" Ephesians 3:20

Today's Readings

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday, August 30, 2020

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

Jeremiah laments but cannot fail to speak in God's name.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 63:2-6,8-9

Our souls yearn for God.

Second Reading: Romans 12:1-2

Paul encourages the Romans to stay faithful to God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus speaks of his Passion and rebukes Peter for his objection.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

Today's Gospel continues the story that began in last week's Gospel. Simon Peter was called the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church, and yet Peter continues to show the limitations of his understanding of Jesus' identity. Now that the disciples have acknowledged that Jesus is the Messiah, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he must suffer and die in Jerusalem to be raised on the third day. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely, calling him "Satan." In opposing this aspect of Jesus' mission, Peter shows that he is no longer speaking based on the revelation from God but as a human being. Jesus then teaches all of the disciples about the difficult path of discipleship: to be Christ's disciple is to follow in his way of the cross.

Peter could not yet understand what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah. It is unlikely that the other disciples understood any better. Messianic expectations were a common aspect of first-century Judaism. Under Roman occupation, many in Israel hoped and prayed that God would send a Messiah to free the Jews from Roman oppression. The common view was that the Messiah would be a political figure, a king that would free Israel from Roman rule. This is perhaps what Peter envisioned when he was led to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. In this passage, however, Jesus is beginning to teach his disciples that he would be the Messiah in a different way.

Jesus would be more like the suffering servant described by the prophet Isaiah than the political liberator. Those who would be Jesus' disciples would be called to a similar life of service. Perhaps this is what Peter feared most in Jesus' prediction of his Passion. He whom Jesus had called "rock" would also be called upon to offer himself in sacrifice and service to others. Christian leaders today are still called to sacrifice and serve others as Jesus did.

ST. JOSEPH'S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The archdiocese has advised religious education programs to develop the capacity to offer classes in both virtual and in-person formats. To do this we need catechists who can teach both virtual classes or 'at-home formation' and in-person classes. For in-person classes to be executed safely we need a new cadre of volunteers to monitor safety measures such as social distancing upon entry/exit and in the hallways, and that all persons in the school building are wearing masks. Catechists and other volunteers associated with the religious education program must complete archdiocese compliance requirements including Virtus training, mandated reporter training, and a background check. If you can help in any way please contact Karen Shifflett at kshifflett@posjhomewood.org or 708-798-6311. Thank you.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time • Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."
